British Nautical Melodramas, 1820-1850 Arnold Schmidt, 2022-07-30 During the 1820s and 30s nautical melodramas reigned supreme on London stages entertaining the mariners and maritime workers who comprised a large part of the audience for small theatres These plays mixed sentimental moments and comic interludes of domestic melodrama with patriotic images that communicated and reinforced imperial themes However generally the study of British theatre history moves from medieval and renaissance plays directly to the realism and naturalism of late Victorian and modern drama Readers typically encounter a gap between Restoration and eighteenth century plays like those of Oliver Goldsmith and

Richard Brinsley Sheridan and late nineteenth plays by Henrik Ibsen and Oscar Wilde Nineteenth century drama with the possible exception of plays by Byron Shelley and Wordsworth remains all but invisible Until recently melodramatic plays written and performed during this gap received little scholarly attention but their value as reflections of Britain's promulgation of imperial ideology and its role in constructing and maintaining class gender and racial identities have given discussions of melodrama force and momentum The plays included in these three volumes have never appeared in a critical anthology and most have not been republished since their original nineteenth century editions Each play is transcribed from original documents and includes an author biography a headnote about the play itself full annotations with brief definitions of unfamiliar vocabulary and explanatory notes Comprehensive editorial apparatus details the nineteenth century imperial naval political and social history relevant to the plays nautical themes as well as discussing nineteenth century theatre history melodrama generally and the nautical melodrama in particular Contemporary theatre practices acting audiences staging lighting special effects are also examined An extensive bibliography of primary and secondary texts a complete index and contemporary images of the actors theatres stage sets playbills costumes and locales have been compiled to aid study further

Under the Gaslight Augustin Daly, 1895 Modern Chivalry Hugh Henry Brackenridge, 1819 Shakespeare's Auditory Worlds Walter W. Cannon, Laury Magnus, 2020-10-27 Inspired by the verbal exuberance and richness of all that can be heard by audiences both on and off Shakespeare's stages Shakespeare's Auditory Worlds examines such special listening situations as overhearing eavesdropping and asides It breaks new ground by exploring the complex relationships between sound and sight dialogue and blocking dialects and other languages re voicings and finally nonverbal or metaverbal relationships inherent in noise sounds and music staging interstices that have been largely overlooked in the critical literature on aurality in Shakespeare Its contributors include David Bevington Ralph Alan Cohen Steve Urkowitz and Leslie Dunn and in a concluding Virtual Roundtable section six seasoned repertory actors of the American Shakespeare Center as well who discuss their nuanced hearing experiences on stage Their hearing invites us to understand the multiple dimensions of Shakespeare's auditory world from the vantage point of actors who are listening in the round to what they hear from their onstage interlocutors from offstage and backstage cues from the musicians galleries and often most interestingly from their audiences
