Seed Systems In Sub Saharan Africa Issues And Options:

Seed Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Venkatachalam Venkatesan, 1994-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 266 Seed production and distribution are important factors in determining the pace of agricultural development For a seed system to be effective it must satisfy the different requirements of each crop Presently Seed Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Venkatachalam Venkatesan, 1994 Seed Policy and Programmes for Sub-Saharan Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1999-01-01 One of the major challenges facing most countries in sub Saharan Africa is the need to invest significant resources into strengthening their capacity to increase the availability of good quality seeds of a wider range of plant varieties This publication presents the proceedings of the Regional Technical Meeting on Seed Policy and Programmes for sub Saharan Africa Evolution of Agricultural Services in Sub-Saharan Africa Venkatachalam Venkatesan, Jacob Kampen, 1998-01-01 This paper traces the evolution of World Bank support to agricultural services particularly agricultural extension and research in Sub Saharan Africa It describes the Bank s experience with the implementation of national programs in agricultural extension and research and how these are evolving to face the problems of the future The paper concludes that participation of the beneficiaries in the design and implementation of programs is critical and will ensure the programs convergence towards rural development Sector Investment Programs in Africa Stephen P. Jones, 1997-01-01 South Asia has made much progress in deregulation and liberalization in the 1990s but it still remains one of the least integrated regions in the world However this general trend masks wide disparities among South Asian nations the larger economies tend to be more highly protected with low import penetration rates while the smaller economies are relatively more open If the current reform program continues the benefits of liberalization will translate into higher growth This report reviews the regions economic performance from an international perspective and the steps taken to increase integration especially in terms of financial integration increased foreign direct investment portfolio and capital flows and regional integration intra regional trade regional arrangements Chapters also discuss the economic outlook for the region and prospects for South Asian exports such as textiles and clothing Uganda's AIDS Crisis Jill Armstrong, 1995-01-01 Examines the economic problems that arise when governments own and operate enterprises that could be managed by the private sector Despite more than a decade of divestiture state owned enterprises account for nearly as large a share of developing countries economies today as twenty years ago This report examines the economic problems that arise when governments own and operate enterprises that could be managed by the private sector It finds that such enterprises are often inefficient and shows how the resulting losses to the economy hinder growth making it harder for people to escape poverty Why have reforms had such little impact In an innovative study of the political economy of state enterprise reform the report describes common obstacles to reform and describes ways that some countries have overcome them Drawing on a rich database and detailed country case studies the report provides the most comprehensive assessment

yet of a decade of divestiture and reform of state owned enterprises It evaluates the experiences of 12 countries some of these countries reformed successfully and some did not but all tried to improve the incentive structure by changing the contract between the government and state owned firms The report offers guidance for successful reform and suggests ways that foreign assistance can more effectively support reform efforts The countries covered in the case studies are Chile China Czech Republic Egypt Ghana India Republic of Korea Mexico Philippines Poland Senegal and Turkey Published for the World Bank by Oxford University Press

Procurement and Disbursement Manual for Projects with Community Participation Gita Gopal, 1995 Draws on the experience of Bulgaria to study the problems encountered in financing government operations in the transition economies This report describes Bulgaria's experience in addressing external shocks to its economy and large declines in the ratio of tax revenues to GDP The book provides broad coverage of the problems many other governments face in transforming their systems of taxation in the transition to a market economy Chapters discuss taxation and incentives government and households indirect taxation and financing of social expenditures Attention is also drawn to the implementation of a value added tax and to policies on fuel taxes The report facilitates an understanding of the differences between actual and optimal policies as governments seek to establish a framework for resolving their budgetary problems in the transition

Land Quality Indicators, 1995 Spanish edition Reformas Laborales y Economicas en America Latina y el Caribe Examines key aspects of labor market conditions as they are affected by the economic reforms that are integrating Latin American and Caribbean economies with world markets Also available English edition ISBN 0 8213 3348 8 Stock No 13348 Portuguese edition ISBN 0 8213 3502 2 Stock No 13502

Colombia's Pension Reform Klaus Schmidt-Hebbel, 1995 IFC Lessons of Experience No 1F This report reviews the experience of the International Finance Corporation IFC in its role as advisor and investor in privatization transactions during the past decade In pursuit of its mandate to further economic development by encouraging the growth of productive private enterprise in developing countries the IFC has naturally and increasingly been involved in supporting this movement The premise of the report is that privatization will always be partly based on political considerations including expected redistribution of wealth and the resulting winners and losers It discusses the IFC's experience from two perspectives as an advisor involved before the sale which illustrates how the IFC assists in the trade off between political and economic goals to conclude a deal and after privatization which discusses the resulting economic benefits The IFC asserts that its role in privatization is defined by the evolving frontiers of political commitment Within those frontiers it can help expand privatization possibilities by performing advisory assignments providing necessary investments and developing capital market institutions The IFC demonstrates that privatization strategies can assume many forms with few set prescriptions Other language editions English ISBN 0 8213 3447 6 Stock No 13447 Russian out of print ISBN 0 8213 3545 6 Stock No 13545 Spanish out of print ISBN 0 8213 3451 4 Stock No 13451
