reconciled Women Writers and the Dark Side of Late-Victorian Hellenism T. Olverson, 2009-11-19 Examining the appropriation of transgressive violent female figures from ancient Greek literature and myth by late Victorian writers Olverson reveals the extent to which ancient antagonists like the murderous Medea and the sinister Circe were employed as a means to protest against and comment upon contemporary social and political institutions Pioneering Spirituality Ross Cathy, 2015-10-27 A range of practitioners explore what fuels and sustains a life of pioneering mission What is the spirituality in the UK's wider culture and how do we connect with it How can spiritual treasures such as the Eucharist prayer pilgrimage and community be shared with others How can communities of disciples grow in this pioneering spirituality Spirit in the Dark Josef Sorett, 2016-08-01 Most of the major black literary and cultural movements of the twentieth century have been understood and interpreted as secular secularizing and at times profane In this book Josef Sorett demonstrates that religion was actually a formidable force within these movements animating and organizing African American literary visions throughout the years between the New Negro Renaissance of the 1920s and the Black Arts movement of the 1960s Sorett unveils the contours of a literary history that remained preoccupied with religion even as it was typically understood by authors readers and critics alike to be modern and therefore secular Spirit in the Dark offers an account of the ways in which religion especially Afro Protestantism remained pivotal to the ideas and aspirations of African American literature across much of the twentieth century From the dawn of the New Negro Renaissance until the ascendance of the Black Arts movement black writers developed a spiritual grammar for discussing race and art by drawing on terms such as church and spirit that were part of the landscape and lexicon of American religious history Sorett demonstrates that religion and spirituality have been key categories for identifying and interpreting what was or was not perceived to constitute or contribute to black literature and culture By examining figures and movements that have typically been cast as secular he offers theoretical insights that trouble the boundaries of what counts as sacred in scholarship on African American religion and culture Ultimately Spirit in the Dark reveals religion to be an essential ingredient albeit one that was always questioned and contested in the forging of an African American literary tradition Modernism and Theology Joanna Rzepa, 2021-03-16 This is the first book length study to examine the interface between literary and theological modernisms It provides a comprehensive account of literary responses to the modernist crisis in Christian theology from a transnational and interdenominational perspective It offers a cultural history of the period considering a wide range of literary and historical sources including novels drama poetry literary criticism encyclicals theological and philosophical treatises periodical publications and wartime propaganda By contextualising literary modernism within the cultural religious and political landscape the book reveals fundamental yet largely forgotten connections between literary and theological modernisms It shows that early twentieth century authors poets and critics including Rainer Maria Rilke T S Eliot and Czesław Miłosz actively engaged with the debates between modernist and neo scholastic theologians raging across Europe These debates contributed to developing new ways of thinking about the relationship between religion and literature and informed contemporary critical writings on aesthetics and poetics Creativity and Spirituality Maureen Miner, Martin Dowson, 2017-02-01 The volume was developed to address conceptual relational and formational questions around the phenomena of creativity and spirituality from a multidisciplinary perspective We acknowledge the complexity of each phenomenon and the need for multiple perspectives in a number of ways First different chapters are written from psychological theological or philosophical perspectives Second multiple research perspectives are considered across empirical and phenomenological methods of inquiry Finally multiple associations between creativity and spirituality are evaluated From such multiple perspectives the theme of this volume emerges Both creativity and spirituality are important for individual and societal flourishing but we know little about fostering both in the 21st century Some ways of fostering them are psychologically harmful and need to be avoided New ways of protecting people as they engage in creative and spiritual endeavours are needed In particular formal training in both creativity and spirituality within the sphere of higher education should be developed in the light of current research However new research that integrates multiple perspectives and examines creativity and spirituality together is needed for training that avoids harm and promotes individual and social flourishing The book will be valuable for educators in all disciplines of higher education because it justifies and explicates training in creativity and spirituality within all areas of higher education Further it discusses how such training might best be included within andragogical practice The book will be useful for researchers of creativity and spirituality because it gives an overview of contemporary research issues and findings and proposes a new philosophical theological perspective for integrative research in these areas Students in fields of creativity theology and spirituality will use the book as a synthesis of contemporary theories and research relating to both creativity and spirituality and for direction in post graduate research More broadly Christians and others who appreciate the creative and performing arts will find much to challenge their thinking and deepen their awareness of spirituality within human creativity Dark Religion Vladislav Šolc ,George J. Didier, 2018-12-01 Jungian analysts Vlado Solc and George J Didier set out to explore the psychological dynamics and causes of religious fundamentalism and fanaticism The book offers an in depth psychological analysis of what happens when a person becomes possessed by the unconscious energies of the Self Dark Religion also reveals that spirituality is an inherent dimension of human life and one of its most essential needs It only becomes dark when it denies ignores or separates itself from its vital roots The authors coin the term dark religion to describe all forms of fanatical radical and extreme religions Their study shows how dark religion leads to profound conflicts on both the personal and cultural level including terrorism and wars surveys the vast contemporary cultural and religious landscapes All the while discovering the emergent forms of spiritual praxis in light of postmodernism and the rise of fundamentalism in the new millennium Creative Psychics, the Art of Regeneration Fred Henkel, 1917 All Things Spiritual Phillip Eldridge Williams, 2022-01-12 This short quip referred to in conversation and seen often in descriptive writing as well as various and sundry speeches is in reality on shaky ground when taken apart. The truth has been the object of the search of man since he became serious with his ontology from earliest recorded history and finds its way in most academic institutions with each Latin phrase in its logo. Matter has always been taken for granted but until recently 1939 with the declaration of the Physicists community in Copenhagen Denmark has acknowledged that indeed there is no final field theory for locating reality. In this book I will attempt to speak to this lack of reality by delving into the state of being or lack thereof I will refer to as spirituality and the Native American priority given to the Great Spirit and the answer they give to one's ontology why one is here known as their vision quest. We will investigate spirituality as that encounter we all must deal with in our religious medium for finding some sense of meaning and its answer to our need for respect. I'll look at the Judeo-Christian offering of the image of God and the spooky goings on at a distance stipulated by Albert Einstein as well as the implications of Galileo's insightful declaration in the 17th century that all meaning begins with experience. Spirituality and ends with experience that spirituality is all that there is and to offer proposals based upon purely logic alone is meaningless as regards reality. Spirituality in the best sense of the word is your taking serious your honor as well as that of others. This could be seen as the First and Greatest Commandment and the Second like unto it: Thy neighbor as thyself. This work is the culmination of 15 years of writing and a lifetime of seeking first the kingdom of God and his righteousness having all these things being added unto me. Matthew 6:33 Now to have all these things added unto you is to be quickened with eyes to see and ears to hear things matter as they are and not from the might makes right syndrome or the what's in it for me modus operandi. This quickening power is the mighty hand of God as opposed to the hand of God revealing the nature of truth. God's righteousness as being no respecter of persons time place or thing and doing so unconditionally. This is indeed the Final Field or the Truth of the Matter.

Conjugal Spirituality Mary Anne McPherson Oliver, 1994 Mary Anne Oliver develops an alternate to celibate religious practices drawing from the experience of couples and diverse sources in the Christian tradition. This work explores the dynamics of conjugal love.

Light in the Dark/Luz en lo Oscuro Gloria Anzaldua, 2015-09-17 Light in the Dark is the culmination of Gloria E. Anzaldua's mature thought and the most comprehensive presentation of her philosophy. Focusing on aesthetics ontology epistemology and ethics it contains several developments in her many important theoretical contributions.

The Arc of Spirituality Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2021-10-04 The Arc of Spirituality invites readers on a journey through Western history a journey that begins with the pioneering concepts of ancient Israelites who understood spirituality communally and covenantally. Continuing biblically with wisdom and apocalyptic conceptions The Arc of Spirituality examines Western Christian spirituality as it developed historically through twelve phases culminating in the modern period with ethical ecumenical pluralist and ecological expressions and most recently with postmodern secular alternatives. Having described his own journey in previous volumes in this culminating book Vande Kappelle builds on earlier writings such as Response to the Other The Second Journey and The Church Alumni Association to tell the story of the Western world's unfolding love affair with God. The narrative while continuously inspiring necessarily takes us through dark alleys and down deep rabbit holes in spirituality's never ending quest to know and experience the transcendence around us and within. The goal of spirituality is always God and while God makes the journey interesting it is never easy for there are no clear steps to follow or learn. While spirituality is more caught than taught at some point we discover it is more about unlearning than learning enriched more by subtraction than by addition. The Arc of Spirituality is useful for individual or group study. Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion or reflection.

Dark Quest Jeffrey Smith, 2008-05. Dark Quest strives to be realistic utilizing insights and truth from all sources that may throw light on man's eternal quest. It assumes that all truth is God's truth whatever its origin and no matter what human presents it. All truth is religious when fully and wisely used by men to move closer to one humanity in one world living in last and highest loyalty to the one real God of all space time and eternity as we know them today and as we shall know them more fully tomorrow if for us on earth there are any tomorrows.
