Cross-cultural Communication and Aging in the United States Hana Noor Al-Deen, 2013-10-18 Recently the communication discipline has devoted increasing energy toward the study of aging yet most of the research has insufficiently addressed a crucial factor in communicative relationships culture Meanwhile cross cultural intercultural communication has not adequately addressed the aging process Combining three powerful elements communication aging and culture all of which have an increasingly profound impact on today's multicultural society this book focuses on older Americans in various communicative contexts within the framework of their cultures Composed of original research by experts in their respective fields the book combines communication aging and culture for a unique examination of those elements in American society Section 1 deals with perspectives in cross cultural communication and aging These perspectives both illustrate the issues that greatly affect the lives of our elders and suggest ways to improve their status Section 2 showcases three American co cultures Hawaiian Arab and Mormon illustrate how language attitudes and mentoring can serve as the links for maintaining cross generational continuity in multicultural society Section 3 demonstrates that many American organizations frequently contribute to the hardships that both internal elder customers employees and external elder customers residents and patients must endure Section 4 incorporates popular culture and aging It presents the role of selective popular media in portraying our elders Because Americans rely heavily on the media their mediated perceptions can have a profound impact on their attitudes toward the older population Designed as a reader or supplementary text for college students in communication gerontology anthropology sociology and other related fields this text can also be used by professionals in gerontological service areas by libraries and as a personal reference It offers extensive appendices figures and tables for additional reference Urban Foodways and Communication Casey Man Kong Lum, Marc de Ferrière le Vayer, 2016-05-19 Embedded in the quest for ways to preserve and promote heritage of any kind and in particular food heritage is an appreciation or a sense of an impending loss of a particular way of life knowledge skills set traditions deemed vital to the survival of a culture or community Foodways places the production procurement preparation and sharing or consumption of food at an intersection among culture tradition and history Thus foodways is an important material and symbolic marker of identity race and ethnicity gender class ideology and social relations Urban Foodways and Communication seeks to enrich our understanding of unique foodways in urban settings around the world as forms of intangible cultural heritage Each ethnographic case study focuses its analysis on how the featured foodways manifests itself symbolically through and in communication The book helps advance our knowledge of urban food heritages in order to contribute to their appreciation preservation and promotion Measuring Up Vickie Rutledge Shields, 2013-03-01 The mute gestures of advertising images are frozen for posterity by photographers and illustrators gestures that for better or worse perpetuate a certain aesthetic and eventually become emblematic of a period The images of today display the values of a society that has more interest in the body than the mind They are technoenhanced labyrinths of unattainable appearances that leave women and men feeling horrified estranged and restricted by unrealistic silent mandates Measuring Up looks at advertising as more than just a way to extract money from unsuspecting people but as a vehicle for conveying the larger views of a confining body obsessed culture By weaving theoretical and textual insights from feminist and cultural studies with the voices of real women and men Measuring Up offers a unique reception analysis of the effects of repetitious exposure to advertisements of perfect bodies in our everyday lives Shields examines a particular complex relationship between the idealized images of gender we see in advertising and our own thoughts feelings and behavior in relation to these images The study is unique in presenting audience reception in terms of ethnographic data not textual interpretations alone Measuring Up engages with and informs current theoretical debates within these sometimes complementary and sometimes contradictory literatures feminist media studies feminist film theory critical social theory cultural studies and critical ethnography This is an important work that explores the forms and channels of power used in one of the most insidious and overt means of mass influence in popular culture Barbie in the Media Emily R. Aguiló-Pérez, Rebecca C. Hains, 2025-09-26 What is the significance of Barbie s journey from toy aisles to screens Barbie in the Media offers a groundbreaking exploration of Barbie as a transmedia phenomenon In examining the brand s multifaceted media presence this volume's chapters consider both Mattel's corporate storytelling about and fans' reinterpretations of the iconic doll. Collectively they reveal that these mediated negotiations of Barbie reflect and contribute to broader discourses about gender and identity in evolving sociopolitical contexts inscribing the doll with ever-changing and often conflicting anxieties and dreams. These render the brand's media presence a fascinating site of contested meaning worthy of the sustained critique that Barbie in the Media offers readers.
