Senecas Morals By Way Of Abstract 8ed:

Classical Scholarship and Its History Stephen Harrison, Christopher Pelling, 2021-04-06 It is unusual for a single scholar practically to reorient an entire sub field of study but this is what Chris Stray has done for the history of UK classical scholarship His remarkable combination of interests in the sociology of scholars and scholarship in the history of the book and of publishing and especially in the detailed intellectual contextualisation of classical scholarship as a form of classical reception has fundamentally changed the way the history of British classics and its study is viewed A generation ago the history of classical scholarship still consisted largely of accounts of particular scholars and groups of scholars written by other scholars from a broadly biographical and heroic individual perspective In these works scholars often sought to find their own place in the great tradition choosing to praise or blame those whose work they admired or deprecated and to identify with particular schools or trends and there were few attempts to provide a broader and less prosopographical perspective Almost all the chapters in the volume originated as papers at a conference in honour of the honorand and have been improved both by discussion there and by the rigorous peer review process conducted by the two experienced editors It covers various aspects of classical reception with a particular focus on the history of scholars their institutions and their writings the main focus is on the UK but there are also substantial engagements with continental Europe and especially the USA the period covered runs from the Renaissance to the present The cast contains a number of world famous names Unusually the volume also contains an essay by the honorand but we are very keen to include this especially as it focusses on the topic of scholarly collaboration Classical Civilisation and Ancient History in British Secondary Education Edith Hall, Arlene Holmes-Henderson, 2025-07-08 An Open Access edition will be available on publication on the Liverpool University Press website thanks to funding from the Arts and Humanities Research Council AHRC In the UK A Levels and GCSEs in Classical Civilisation and Ancient History offer exciting avenues through which to access the cultures of people who spoke ancient Greek and Latin and their neighbours across the ancient Mediterranean and Black Sea worlds They are inherently interdisciplinary offering an outstanding opportunity to study a civilisation in the round using diverse sources from literary and philosophical texts to legal documents inscriptions art architecture and archaeology Yet many people are either unaware of the existence of these courses or do not understand their contents This unprecedented study by two Classics Professors at the University of Durham with extensive experience of teaching in schools and HEIs charts the subjects historical development and emergence in their current form since the mid 20th century explaining and illustrating their contents It describes the skills and competencies that they confer which are valued by university admissions offices and employers alike It presents the results of interviews with several significant participants in the story of these classical subjects and of questionnaires filled in by many additional teachers and students It also offers practical advice on how to introduce Classical Civilisation and or Ancient History at secondary level with guides to bibliographical and other resources
