Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism Modernism on Stage Juliet Bellow, 2017-07-05 Modernism on Stage restores Serge Diaghilev's Ballets Russes to its central role in the Parisian art world of the 1910s and 1920s During those years the Ballets Russes stage served as a dynamic forum for the interaction of artistic genres dance music and painting in a mixed media form inspired by Richard Wagner's Gesamtkunstwerk total work of art This interdisciplinary study combines a broad history of Diaghilev's troupe with close readings of four ballets designed by canonical modernist artists Pablo Picasso Sonia Delaunay Henri Matisse and Giorgio de Chirico Experimental both in concept and form these productions redefine our understanding of the interconnected worlds of the visual and performing arts elite culture and mass entertainment in Paris between the two world wars This volume traces the ways in which artists working with the Ballets Russes adapted painterly styles to the temporal three dimensional and corporeal medium of ballet Analyzing interactions among sets costumes choreography and musical accompaniment the book establishes what the Ballets Russes productions looked like and how audiences reacted to them Juliet Bellow brings dance to bear upon modernist art history as more than a source of imagery or ornament she spotlights a complex dialogue among art forms that did not preclude but rather enhanced artists' interrogation of the limits of medium

Matisse Henri Matisse, Sean Rainbird, Ortrud Westheider, Michael Philipp, Dorothee Böhm, Bucerius Kunst Forum, 2008
 Henri Matisse 1869 1954 is considered to be one of the preeminent artists of the early twentieth century By placing its focus on the artist's portraits the show as well as the exhibition catalogue will concentrate on a facet of his oeuvre which has never yet been the theme of an exhibition The concern here will be with the fascinating question as to how Matisse managed to create a likeness of his subject despite the fact that his consistent aim was the generally valid synthesis of the outward appearance of nature and not exactitude true character true portrait Cézanne's Bathers: Biography and the Erotics of Paint Aruna D'Souza, 1999 "Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915" James H. Rubin, 2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists Matisse Nicholas Watkins, 1985 This volume traces the career of Henri Matisse from the Fauve paintings of the 1907 Salon d'Automne to the final flowering of his paper cut outs culminating in his masterpiece the Vence Chapel Along the way the author describes the full range of Matisse's paintings sculpture book illustrations and paper cut outs with visual sensitivity and a keen knowledge of technique At times the author seems to pause to look at specific masterpieces in all their complexity The Dinner Table Le Bonheur de vivre and Luce calme et volupe among many others He also shows us how Matisse responded to the artistic political and social events of his day from Cubism to the two World Wars Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915 Mr James H Rubin, Dr Olivia Mattis, 2014-11-28 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 Rhythmical Subjects Laura Marcus, 2024-02-15 Drawing on extensive archival research Rhythmical Subjects shows the ways in which literature dance music the visual arts and architecture drew from and fed into the realms of social and anthropological thought The Making of Modern Art Michael Peppiatt, 2020-05-05 A new collection of key texts from a leading critic of modern art The critic Michael Peppiatt has been described by Art Newspaper as the best art writer of his generation For more than 50 years he has written trenchant and lively dispatches from the center of the international art world In this new volume of key works Peppiatt gives his unique insight into the making collection display and interpretation of modern art Covering the whole spectrum of modern art from pioneers such as Gustav Klimt and Chaim Soutine to collectors and dealers who played a pivotal role in the modern art world to artists such as Francis Bacon Bill Jacklin and Frank Auerbach with whom he had close relationships Peppiatt interweaves personal anecdote with critical judgment Each text is accompanied by a new short introduction written in Peppiatt s signature vivid and jargon free style in which he contextualizes his writings and reflects on significant moments in a lifetime of artistic engagement This volume will provide readers with an exhilarating tour of 20th century art

"Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" HeatherBelnap Jensen,2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book s premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789 1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period
