More Stepping Stones To Jewish Christian Relations:

Christian-Jewish Relations Through the Centuries Stanley E. Porter, Brook W. Pearson, 2004-12-19 Christian Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming in their own way a part of the ongoing dialogue Jews and the Christian Imagination S. Haynes, 1995-03-22 Reluctant Witnesses Jews and the Christian Imagination is an analysis of the ancient Christian myth that casts Jews as a witness people and this myth's presence in contemporary religious discourse It treats diverse products of the Christian imagination including systematic theology works of fiction and popular writings on biblical prophecy The book demonstrates that the witness people myth which was first articulated by Augustine and which determined official attitudes towards Jews in medieval Christendom remains a powerful force in the Christian imagination

A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson Adam Barkman, Antonio Sanna, 2024-02-02 The twelve essays in A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson offer various interpretations of Mel Gibson's work treating this prolific but controversial figure not only as a filmmaker but as a historian religious thinker and social philosopher From The Man Without a Face and Braveheart to The Passion of the Christ Apocalypto and Hacksaw Ridge this interdisciplinary collection mines Gibson's life and oeuvre for insight into existential problems Aristotelian virtues the politics of film interreligious dialogue adaptation issues and much more Faith Transformed John C. Merkle, 2003 Traditionally Christian churches have taught that the validity of Judaism came to an end with the emergence of Christianity But in the last half century many Christians have repudiated this teaching and have affirmed the abiding validity of Judaism Consequently they have had to reevaluate Christian self understanding in relation to Judaism In Faith Transformed Christian scholars who have been at the forefront of Christian Jewish relations share how their encounters with Jews and Judaism have transformed their understanding and practice of Christianity They reveal how their Christian faith has been profoundly enriched by drawing inspiration from the Jewish tradition Continuity and Change Steven T. Katz, Steven Bayme, 2012-07-10 This collection of essays was inspired by the desire to create a suitable tribute to Dr Irving Greenberg Dr Greenberg has been one of the truly major figures in the American Jewish community for the past forty years A community activist and a theologian of distinction he has influenced not only the practical direction of Jewish life especially through his work with the leadership of Jewish Federations throughout the country but also the shape of contemporary Jewish thought through his writings on the Holocaust the State of Israel and traditional Jewish themes The outstanding list of authors who have contributed to this volume writing on central issues in traditional and modern Jewish thought and history are a testimony to Dr Greenberg's repercussive presence and theological contribution. Those interested in the contemporary American Jewish community and the nature and shape of modern Jewish thought at the beginning of the new millennium will find this a valuable thought provoking addition to their libraries Catholics and Jews in

Twentieth-century America Egal Feldman, 2001 This book recounts the transformation of a relationship of irreconcilable enmity to one of respectful coexistence and constructive dialogue. From the Inquisition to the Passion Play at Oberammergau the Catholic Church for centuries perpetuated a theology of contempt that reinforced antipathy between the two faiths. Focusing primarily on the Catholic doctrinal view of the Jews and its ramifications, Egal Feldman traces the historical roots of antisemitism, examining tenacious Catholic beliefs such as displacement theology, deicide, and the conviction that the Jews' purported responsibility for the Crucifixion justified all their subsequent misery and vilification. A new era of Catholic Jewish relations opened in 1962 with Vatican II's Nostra Aetate No. 4. This document brought about a reversal of the theology of contempt, a de-emphasis on converting Jews to Christianity, and a determination to initiate constructive dialogue between Catholics and Jews. Feldman explores the strides made in improving relations and discusses recent disputes, including the erection of a convent near Auschwitz and the proposed canonization of the wartime pope Pius XII, that reflect the fragility of the interfaith relationship. This book underscores the magnitude of the change in Catholic thinking about Jews since Vatican II and the courage of thinkers and leaders on both sides in forging new bonds across the lines of faith Anti-Judaism and the Gospel of John Mirosław Stanisław Wróbel, 2023-12-04 In the light of the research undertaken in this book, the author concludes that the so-called anti-Jewish texts in the Johannine Gospel are not directed against the Jews, being an ethnic or religious community. The object of the polemic and attacks is not the entire Jewish nation across the span of all the ages, but a group of the Jewish leaders or opponents to Jesus in the First Century AD. Looking through the prism of the aposynagoga polemic, one can notice that the state of tension between the Johannine community and rabbinic Judaism is inter-Jewish, not anti-Jewish in character. The source of the polemical language of the Fourth Gospel is the Christological discussion in the historical and sociological context: the Messianic confession, the excommunication from the Synagogue, the presence of Samaritans in the Johannine community, the struggle for the preservation of the identity Christianity In Jewish Terms

Tikva Frymer-Kensky, David Novak, Peter Ochs, David Sandmel, Michael Singer, 2008-08-01 Over the past few decades there has been a dramatic and unprecedented shift in Jewish-Christian relations, including signs of a new, improved Christian attitude towards Jews. Christianity in Jewish Terms is a Jewish theological response to the profound changes that have taken place in Christian thought. The book is divided into ten chapters, each of which features a main essay written by a Jewish scholar that explores the meaning of a set of Christian beliefs. Following the essay are responses from a second Jewish scholar and a Christian scholar. Designed to generate new conversations within the American Jewish community and between the Jewish and Christian communities Christianity in Jewish Terms lays the foundation for better understanding It was named a Choice Outstanding Academic Book of 2001 The Gospels and Rabbinic Judaism Michael Hilton, Gordian Marshall, 2009-04-01 This book has grown out of Bible studies carried on jointly by a Dominican priest and a Jewish rabbi New Testament and rabbinic texts have been studied by various combined groups of Jews and Christians and the reactions of the groups noted by the authors From their experience a textbook has emerged for others to use ideally in similar joint groups The main topics covered are the great commandment the synagogue and its function the parable the Sabbath divorce and forgiveness These topics differ not only in subject matter but also in the type of comparison offered legal historical literary theological and even contracting themes Reading the texts will produce questions for dialogue some suggested questions for discussion are also included also with a useful glossary and a bibliography Visions of the Other Eugene J. Fisher, 1994 Fisher has gathered here in one volume significant essays by four of the most important scholar theologians in the world These scholars two Jews and two Christians critique the dialogue between the Jewish people and the Christian churches in light of 2 000 years of uneasy relations reassessing all that has gone before in a spirit of renewed hope

Opening the Covenant Michael S. Kogan, 2008 Michael Kogan delves deeply into the theologies of Christianity and Judaism to locate the precise points of difference and convergence He sees Christianity as the breaking open of the original Covenant to include gentile peoples God has brought this about Kogan argues through Jesus and his interpreters Our Father Abraham Marvin R. Wilson, 2021-06-29 Although the roots of Christianity run deep into Hebrew soil many Christians remain regrettably uninformed about the rich Jewish heritage of the church Our Father Abraham delineates the vital link between Judaism and Christianity exemplified by the common ancestry of the two faiths traceable back to Abraham Marvin Wilson calls Christians to reexamine their Semitic heritage to regain a more authentically biblical understanding of what they believe and practice Wilson a trusted voice among both Jews and Christians speaks to both past and present first developing a historical perspective on the Jewish origins of the church and then discussing how the church can become more attuned to the Hebraic mindset of Scripture Drawing from his own extensive experience he also offers valuable practical guidance for salutary interaction between Christians and Jews Discussion questions at the end of each chapter make this book especially suitable for use in groups Christian Jewish or interfaith as readers strive to make sense of their own faith in connection with the other The second edition of Our Father Abraham features a new preface an expanded bibliography of recent relevant works and two new chapters one that discusses Jewish Christian relations after the Holocaust and another that reflects on Wilson's own fifty plus year career as an evangelical Christian deeply committed to interfaith dialogue As Christians and Jews feel a growing need for mutual support in an increasingly secular Western world Wilson's widely acclaimed book will offer encouragement and wise guidance toward this worthy end God and Humanity in Auschwitz Donald Dietrich, 2017-07-12 God and Humanity in Auschwitz synthesizes the findings of research developed over the last thirty years on the rise of anti-Semitism in our civilization Donald J Dietrich sees the Holocaust as a case study of how prejudice has been theologically enculturated He suggests how it may be controlled by reducing aggressive energy before it becomes overwhelming Dietrich studies the recent responses of Christian theologians to the Holocaust and the Jewish theological response to questions concerning God's covenant with Israel which were provoked by Auschwitz Social science has dealt with the psychosocial dynamics that have supported genocide and helps explain how ordinary persons can produce extraordinary evil Dietrich shows how this research combined with theological analyses can help reconfigure theology itself Such an approach may serve to help dissolve anti-Semitism to aid in constructing such positive values as respect for human dignity and to point the way to restricting future outbreaks of genocide God and Humanity in Auschwitz surveys which religious factors created a climate that permitted the Holocaust It also illuminates what social science has to tell us about developing a strategy that when institutionally implemented can channel our energies away from sanctioned murder toward a more compassionate society The book has proven to be an essential resource for theologians sociologists historians and political theorists

The Concept of the Messiah in the Scriptures of Judaism and Christianity Shirley Lucass, 2011-09-15 In this title Shirley Lucass examines the history of the concept of messiah in biblical and post biblical traditions For 2000 years Judaism and Christianity have been at odds with one another The problem at the heart of the division is the concept of messiah Shirley Lucass looks directly at the concept of messiah from an historical perspective and examines its roots in ancient Jewish literature and its development within the Christian tradition aiming not only to trace the biblical and extra biblical developments of the concept but to outline a platform for religious dialogue Lucass begins with a survey of methodological approaches and then moves on to consider the origins of the messiah concept in ancient near eastern kingship the anointed in the Second Temple period and the messiah as outlined in the New Testament and in post 70 CE Messianism Lucass contends that the New Testament concept of messiah is not inconsistent with nor incompatible with the

Jewish antecedent traditions and it is this conclusion which enables her to present a valuable chapter on the implications of this study for inter religious dialogue

Nostra Aetate Neville Lamdan, Alberto Melloni, 2007 On 30th October 1st November 2005 for the 40th Anniversary of the Declaration Nostra Aetate proclaimed by Pope Paul VI at the Council Vatican II on 28 October 1965 a joint symposium on Nostra Aetate Origins Promulgation Impact on Jewish Catholic Relations was held in Jerusalem by the Center for the Study of Christianity at the Hebrew University in conjunction with the John XXIII Foundation for Religious Studies in Bologna This volume brings together most of the papers delivered at the symposium which proved that Nostra Aetate is still a vibrant spiritus movens in Catholic Jewish relations

Irreconcilable Differences? A Learning Resource For Jews And Christians David Sandmel, Rosann M. Catalano, Christopher M. Leighton, 2018-03-08 Written by Jewish and Christian educators for use by college and adult learners this volume explores eight basic questions that lie at the core of both traditions and that can serve as a bridge for understanding Among the questions are Do Jews and Christians worship the same God Do Jews and Christians read the Bible the same way What is the place of the land of Israel for Jews and Christians Are the irreconcilable differences between Christians and Jews a blessing a curse or both Each chapter includes discussion questions

The People and the People of God Hans Ucko, 2002 The Jewish Christian dialogue continues to be a challenge for Christian theology calling for a rethinking of Christian hermeneutics Hans Ucko widens the arena for Jewish Christian dialogue and proposes a constructive interaction between contextual theologies and Jewish Christian dialogue Minjung theology from South Korea and Dalit theology from India have creatively worked with the concepts people peoplehood and People of God The Jewish Christian dialogue has likewise delved into the question of People of God An encounter between these two worlds might be mutually enriching and challenging

Anti-Zionism and Antisemitism in the Contemporary World Robert S. Wistrich, 1990-06-18 With its origins in a conference organized by the Institute of Jewish Affairs in London this book asks if a common denominator can be found between the anti-Semitism that has existed through the ages and more contemporary forms of anti-Zionism
