The New Social Studies Barbara Slater Stern, 2009-11-01 This volume The New Social Studies People Projects and Perspectives is not an attempt to be the comprehensive book on the era Given the sheer number of projects that task would be impossible However the current lack of knowledge about the politics people and projects of the NSS is unfortunate as it often appears that new scholars are reinventing the wheel due to their lack of knowledge about the history of the social studies field The goal of this book then is to sample the projects and individuals involved with the New Social Studies NSS in an attempt to provide an understanding of what came before and to suggest guidance to those concerned with social studies reform in the future especially in light of the standardization of curriculum and assessment currently underway in many states The authors who contributed to this project were recruited with several goals in mind including a broad range of ages interests and experiences with the NSS from participants during the NSS era through new young scholars who had never heard much about the NSS As many of the authors remind us in their chapters much has been written of the failure of the NSS However in every chapter of this book the authors also point out the remnants of the projects that remain

Explorations in Curriculum History Sherry L. Field, 2005-02-01 Mission Statement The book series entitled Research in Curriculum and Instruction will focus on a considerations of curriculum practices at school district state and federal levels b relationship of curriculum practices to curriculum theories and societal issues c concerns derived from curriculum policy analyses and from analyses of various curriculum advocacies and d insights derived from investigations into curriculum history Although the series will emphasize the American curriculum scene aspects of curriculum practice and theory embedded in non US countries will not be overlooked Furthermore this series will not restrict its concern to general curriculum matters but it will draw explicit attention to curriculum issues relating to the several curriculum subjects The series primary concern will be to illuminate practice and issues toward informed and improved curriculum practice This volume will contain selected papers presented at meetings of the Society for the Study of curriculum History across the past decade plus several specially commissioned papers from senior scholars in the field Professor Field was the Society's President for some time during that period Papers will treat dimensions of the development of the American school curriculum both elementary and secondary Forms of Curriculum Inquiry Edmund C.
