Wymer, 2019-01-04 This book gives detailed and original critical readings of all eleven of Derek Jarman's feature length films arguing that he occupies a major and influential place in European and world cinema rather than merely being a cult figure It places particular emphasis on the importance of Renaissance art and literature for Jarman and emphasises his interest in Jungian psychology Wymer shows how Jarman used his films to take his audience with him on an inner journey in search of the self whilst remaining fully aware of the dangers of such a journey Making substantial use of Jarman's unpublished papers as well as all his published works Wymer argues that the films are orientated towards a much wider audience than is often supposed They are addressed to anyone of whatever gender or sexuality who is prepared to go on a journey in search of him or her self and to become Jarman's accomplice in the dream world of the soul The Pet Shop Boys and the Political
