Ragdale A History And Guide:

Ragdale Alice Hayes, Susan Moon, 1990 Inventing the New American House Stuart Cohen, 2015-04-14 Howard Van Doren Shaw designed stately country houses in and around Chicago from affluent Lake Forest Illinois and Lake Geneva Wisconsin to Iowa Minnesota Ohio and Indiana from 1894 to 1926 a period in American architecture that spanned the Gilded Age the adoption of Beaux Arts classicism as the ideal for civic architecture the invention of the skyscraper and the beginning of modernism Born in 1869 he worked for the leading industrialists of that period including Reuben H Donnelley of printing fame newspaper giant Joseph Medill Patterson Edward Forster Swift the meatpacking king and Edward L Ryerson of Ryerson Steel A contemporary of Frank Lloyd Wright Shaw explored many of the same ideas as the Prairie School Architects within the forms of traditional architecture Though he was recognized as one of the leading country house architects of the early twentieth century his name was largely forgotten after his death Like many traditional architects practicing today Shaw was skilled at adapting historic precedents to suit contemporary living in particular the easy flow of interior space that became a design hallmark of the period for traditionalists and modernists alike For the new and fashionable suburb of Lake Forest Shaw created Market Square the town center which was lauded for its design as both a unique town green and the first American shopping center designed to accommodate automobiles This timely reappraisal of Howard Van Doren Shaw s work features many previously unpublished images from the Shaw Archive in the Burnham and Ryerson Library at the Art Institute of Chicago and the Chicago History Museum rare construction drawings and new color photography as well as a catalogue of Shaw s residential work His legacy includes substantial houses in prosperous communities many of which are still standing including Ragdale once Shaw s own summer house in Lake Forest now home to the prestigious artists community the Becker Estate on Chicago s North Shore and The Hermann House overlooking Lake Michigan Lake Forest Arthur H. Miller, Shirley MacDonald Paddock, 2000 Introduction Beginnings New England village The gilded age 1865 1885 American renaissance 1885 1896 The great estate era 1897 1917 The great estates village and townspeople Market Square Great estate life cycles three stories Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement Judith B. Tankard, 2018-11-27 The ever alluring Arts and Crafts garden is profoundly relevant to our 21st century needs Sam Watters author of Gardens for a Beautiful America In Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement landscape scholar Judith B Tankard surveys the inspirations characteristics and development of garden design during this iconic movement Tankard presents a selection of houses and gardens of the era from Great Britain and North America With almost 300 illustrations and photographs and an emphasis on the diversity of designers who helped forge the movement Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement is an essential resource for this truly distinct approach to garden design Chicago Gardens Cathy Jean Maloney, 2008-09-01 Once maligned as a swampy outpost the fledgling city of Chicago brazenly adopted the motto Urbs in Horto or City in a Garden in 1837 Chicago Gardens shows how this upstart town earned its sobriquet over the next century from the first vegetable plots at Fort

Dearborn to innovative garden designs at the 1933 World's Fair Cathy Jean Maloney has spent decades researching the city's horticultural heritage and here she reveals the unusual history of Chicago's first gardens Challenged by the region's clay soil, harsh winters and fierce winds, Chicago's pioneering horticulturalists Maloney demonstrates found imaginative uses for hardy prairie plants This same creative spirit thrived in the city's local fruit and vegetable markets encouraging the growth of what would become the nation's produce hub The vast plains that surrounded Chicago meanwhile inspired early landscape architects such as Frederick Law Olmsted, Jens Jensen and O.C. Simonds to new heights of grandeur Maloney does not forget the backyard gardeners, immigrants who cultivated treasured seeds and pioneers who planted native wildflowers Maloney's vibrant depictions of Chicagoans like Bouquet Mary, a flower peddler who built a greenhouse empire, add charming anecdotal evidence to her argument that Chicago's garden history rivals that of New York or London and ensures its status as a world-class capital of horticultural innovation With exquisite archival photographs, prints and postcards as well as field guide descriptions of living legacy gardens for today's visitors, Chicago Gardens will delight green thumbs from all parts of the world
