Reading Duncan Reading Stephen Collis, Graham Lyons, 2012-12-01 In Reading Duncan thirteen scholars and poets examine first what and how the American poet Robert Duncan read and perforce what and how he wrote Harold Bloom wrote of the searing anxiety of influence writers experience as they grapple with the burden of being original but for Duncan this was another matter altogether Indeed according to Stephen Collis No other poet has so openly expressed his admiration for and gratitude toward his predecessors Part one emphasizes Duncan s acts of reading tracing a variety of his derivations including Sarah Ehlers s demonstration of how Milton shaped Duncan s early poetic aspirations Siobh n Scarry s unveiling of the many sources including translation and correspondence drawn into a single Duncan poem and Cl ment Oudart s exploration of Duncan s use of foreign words to fashion a language to which no one is native In part two the volume turns to examinations of poets who can be seen to in some way derive from Duncan and so in turn reveals another angle of Duncan s derivative poetics J P Craig traces Nathaniel MacKey s use of Duncan s would be shaman Catherine Martin sees Duncan s influence in Susan Howe s development of a poetics where the twin concepts of trespass and permission hold comparable sway and Ross Hair explores poet Ronald Johnson s reading to steal These and other essays collected here trace paths of poetic affiliation and affinity and hold them up as provocative possibilities in Duncan s own inexhaustible work performance art as well as architecture science and culture The Householders Tara McDowell,2019-10-01 How the poet Robert Duncan and the artist Jess made the household part of their separate and collaborative creative practice I m a householder the poet Robert Duncan once explained My whole idea of being able to work was to have a household In this book Tara McDowell examines the household physical and conceptual that Duncan established with the artist Jess beginning in 1951 when the two men exchanged marriage vows and ending with Duncan s death in 1988 For Duncan and Jess the household rather than the studio gallery or collective provided the support structure for their art Indeed McDowell argues convincingly their work was coextensive with their household The material surroundings of their house in San Francisco and the daily rhythms of their domestic lives became part of their creative practice Duncan wrote poetry that is romantic ornate and obscure Jess born Burgess Franklin Collins created multi imaged complex collages and assemblages McDowell explores their life and work reading Duncan and Jess with and against each other in alignment and misalignment She examines their illustrated book Caesar s Gate a collaborative effort that led them to reject collaboration considers each man s lifelong preoccupation with an unfinished project Jess s Narkissos and Duncan s The H D Book and discusses their origin myths and self made genealogies describing them as a form of witness in the face of the calamities of the twentieth century Duncan and Jess made the household a necessary precondition for their art making Doing so they reclaimed and rehabilitated the domestic from which gay couples were traditionally excluded for their own uses The household permitted them to reimagine the world McDowell s portrait of a couple expands to encompass broader issues urgent in midcentury America and still resonant today belonging and kinship alienation and catastrophe Twentieth-Century American Poetics: Poets on the Art of Poetry Dana Gioia,David Mason,Meg Schoerke,2004 This comprehensive chronological anthology includes 58 essays on poetry by 53 poets Starting with James Weldon Johnson and Robert Frost the book offers diverse and often conflicting accounts of the nature and function of poetry The collection includes rarely anthologized essays by Jack Spicer Rhina Espaillat Anne Stevenson and Ron Silliman as well as work by some of the finest younger critics in America including William Logan Alice Fulton and Christian Wiman Contextual Practice Stephen Fredman,2010 Fredman makes the original argument that some of the most innovative works of poetry and art in the postwar period 1945 1970 engaged in a contextual practice a term that refers both to a way of making art characterized by assemblage and to a new relationship between art and life an erotic poetics Imagining Persons Robert J. Bertholf,Dale M. Smith,2017-12-15 Robert Duncan s nine lectures on Charles Olson delivered intermittently from 1961 to 1983 explore the modernist literary background and influences of Olson s influential 1950 essay Projective Verse These transcribed talks pay tribute to Olson and expand our knowledge of Duncan s vision of modernist writing Twentieth-century American Poetry Dana Gioia,David Mason,Meg Schoerke,2004 Publisher Description Gilbert Sorrentino William McPheron,1991 The trajectory of Gilbert Sorrentino s literary life can be tracked in this bibliography from his first short story in a 1956 issue of his college literary magazine through his involvement with the New York publishing scene in the 1960s and 1970s and finally into the 1980s and early 1990 when his work as at the beginning once again is being published by small presses The bibliography treats writings both by and about Sorrentino uniting in one volume exhaustive descriptive analyses of primary works with annotated treatment of secondary sources It thereby serves the needs not only of scholars and collectors interested in the physical production of Sorrentino s books but also of literary critics concerned with matters of reception and interpretation
