Old Age From Antiquity To Postmodernity:

Old Age from Antiquity to Post-modernity Paul A. Johnson, Pat Thane, 1998 Featuring both methodological and empirical studies Old Age represents a substantial contribution to the historical understanding of old age in past societies as well as to the debate about post modernism in historical study Old Age from Antiquity to Post-Modernity Paul Johnson, Pat Thane, 2002-11-01 Based on themes such as status and welfare Old Age from Antiquity to Post Modernity examines the role of the elderly in history This empirical study represents a substantial contribution to both the historical understanding of old age in past societies as well as the discussion of the contribution of post modernism to historical scholarship Imagining Ageing Carmen Concilio, 2018-10-04 What do literary texts tell us about growing old The essays in this volume introduce and explore representations of ageing and old age in canonical works of English and postcolonial literature The contributors examine texts by William Shakespeare Daniel Defoe Julian Barnes Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney J M Coetzee Alice Munro Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace and together with a medical study they suggest solutions to the challenges arising from the current demographic change brought about by ageing Western populations Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology Julia Twigg, Wendy Martin, 2015-06-12 Later years are changing under the impact of demographic social and cultural shifts No longer confined to the sphere of social welfare they are now studied within a wider cultural framework that encompasses new experiences and new modes of being Drawing on influences from the arts and humanities and deploying diverse methodologies visual literary spatial and theoretical perspectives Cultural Gerontology has brought new aspects of later life into view This major new publication draws together these currents including Theory and Methods Embodiment Identities and Social Relationships Consumption and Leisure and Time and Space Based on specially commissioned chapters by leading international authors the Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology will provide concise authoritative reviews of the key debates and themes shaping this exciting new field The Postmodern Life Cycle Friedrich Schweitzer, 2012-11 A theology in tune with postcolonial theory has the potential to creatively inform and transform ecclesial practice Focusing on the relation of theology to postcolonial theory Postcolonial Theologies brings together a wide diversity of authors many of them fresh and exciting theological voices in essays that are stunningly creative and prophetically lucid All essays are theologically constructive not merely deconstructive or critical in their visions for Christianity Forming a sort of doctrinal landscape they emerge under the themes of theological anthropology shaped by ethnicity class and privilege a Christology that intersects the claims of Christ and empire and a Cosmology that imagines a postcolonial world The Art of Ageing: Textualising the Phases of Life Brian Worsfold, 2005 El tema del envejecimiento es total absolutamente todo existe en el tiempo A pesar de que la matemática rechaza la noción de que el tiempo pasa la conciencia humana percibe el envejecimiento como consecuencia del paso del tiempo Mediante textualizaciones en poesía teatro y prosa se pone de manifiesto el sentido y la complejidad de la percepción de esta trayectoria temporal Por esta razón los artículos que contiene este libro son eminente escritores y revelan los pensamientos de poetas cantantes escritores críticos literarios psicólogos sociólogos y antropólogos

Growing Old in a Better World Robert Troschitz, 2024-09-23 As utopias question social ills and express human wants and unfulfilled dreams they offer insights into the problems desires and ideals of a certain time This book uses this lens to examine cultural representations of ageing and old age in utopian writings from the Renaissance till today The individual chapters offer detailed analyses and interpretations of numerous utopias from Thomas More's Utopia 1516 to contemporary science fiction Through close readings the book explores age related fears and ideals and investigates how perceptions of ageing and the life course as well as attitudes towards older people have developed over the centuries Covering a large time span and a broad range of different utopias the book identifies long term developments and also puts certain dreams such as that of ever lasting youth into a wider perspective It thus enriches both our understanding of the cultural history of ageing and the history of utopian thought The book will appeal to scholars and students from the fields of cultural gerontology and utopian studies as well as literary studies and cultural history more generally

Living with Ageing and Dying Merryn Gott, Christine Ingleton, 2011-05-12 Ageing populations mean that palliative and end of life care for older people must assume greater priority Indeed there is an urgent need to improve the experiences of older people at the end of life given that they have been identified as the disadvantaged dying To date models of care are underpinned by the ideals of specialist palliative care which were developed to meet the needs of predominantly middle aged and young old people and evidence suggests these may not be adequate for the older population group This book identifies ways forward for improving the end of life experiences of older people by taking an interdisciplinary and international approach Providing a synergy between the currently disparate literature of gerontology and palliative care a wide range of leading international experts contribute to discussions regarding priority areas in relation to ageing and end of life care Some authors take a theoretical focus others a very practical approach rooted in their clinical and research experience The issues covered are diverse as are the countries in which discussions are contextualised Those working in both palliative care and gerontology will find the issues and advice discussed in this book hugely topical and of real practical value

The Decline of Life Susannah R. Ottaway, 2004-02-02 The Decline of Life is an ambitious and absorbing study of old age in eighteenth century England Drawing on a wealth of sources literature correspondence poor house and workhouse documents and diaries Susannah Ottaway considers a wide range of experiences and expectations of age in the period and demonstrates that the central concern of ageing individuals was to continue to live as independently as possible into their last days Ageing men and women stayed closely connected to their families and communities in relationships characterised by mutual support and reciprocal obligations Despite these aspects of continuity however older individuals ability to maintain their autonomy and the nature of the support available to them once they did fall into necessity declined significantly in the last decades of the century As a result old age was increasingly marginalised Historical demographers historical gerontologists sociologists social historians and women s historians will find this book essential reading Aging: Culture, Health, and Social Change David N. Weisstub,David C. Thomasma,S. Gauthier,G.F. Tomossy,2013-06-29 Culture Health and Social Change is the first of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines contest some of the predominant paradigms on aging and critically assess modern trends in social health policy How we approach and understand aging will have indelible effects on existing and future elder citizens Acknowledging the cultural variances that exist in the human experience of aging is therefore of vital importance in order to respond to individual needs in a manner that is not paternalistic discriminatory or exclusionary Bridging the Gap Between AI and Reality Bernhard Steffen,2024-10-30 This open access book constitutes revised selected papers from the First International Conference on Bridging the Gap between AI and Reality AISoLA 2023 which took place in Crete Greece in October 2023 The papers included in this book focus on the following topics The nature of AI based systems ethical economic and legal implications of AI systems in practice ways to make controlled use of AI via the various kinds of formal methods based validation techniques dedicated applications scenarios which may allow certain levels of assistance and education in times of deep learning Early Modern Art Theory. Visual Culture and Ideology, 1400-1700 James Hutson,2016-03 The development of art theory over the course of the Renaissance and Baroque eras is reflected in major stylistic shifts In order to elucidate the relationship between theory and practice we must consider the wider connections between art theory poetic theory natural philosophy and related epistemological matrices Investigating the interdisciplinary reality of framing art making and interpretation this treatment rejects the dominant synchronic approach to history and historiography and seeks to present anew a narrative that ties together various formal approaches focusing on stylistic transformation in particular artist s oeuvres Michelangelo Annibale Carracci Guercino Guido Reni Poussin and others and the contemporary environments that facilitated them Through the dual understanding of the art theoretical concept of the Idea an evolution will be revealed that illustrates the embittered battles over style and the overarching intellectual shifts in the period between art production and conceptualization based on Aristotelian and Platonic notions of creativity beauty and the goal of art as an exercise in encapsulating the divine truth of nature A Guide to Humanistic Studies in Aging Thomas R. Cole,Ruth E. Ray,Robert Kastenbaum,2010-06 Aging has long been of interest to scholars and practitioners in a vast array of academic fields and professions Thomas R Cole Ruth E Ray and Robert Kastenbaum have brought together leaders from a variety of academic realms to explore how aging is depicted in the modern era and the effect of these portrayals on individuals and society Psychiatry in the Elderly Robin Jacoby,Catherine Oppenheimer,2002 Old age psychiatry continues to grow as speciality driven by research advances demographics and political will Psychiatric services and treatments for the old are improving and the outlook for further progress is encouraging In this new edition of the classic textbook of old age psychiatry Robin Jacoby and Catherine Oppenheimer have retained the coherent structure of previous editions approaching the topic

under the section headings of basic sciencej clinical practice psychiatric services and specific disorders however within this logical structure they have conducted a major revision bringing in a number of new authors and covering the full range of new research The exciting developments in the field of molecular biology are covered as are the improvements in our understanding of the pathogenesis of the dementias specifically although not limited to Alzheimer s Disease All of the chapters in this new edition have been revised and updated and there are new chapters on quality of life measurement the economics of care suicide in old age hallucinations and functional symptoms in Parkinson s Disease The team of expert contributors has grown to 62 in number representing a wide range of specialities and providing input from nine different countries This has resulted in the most comprehensive and holistic review of the field Psychiatry in the Elderly continues to be essential reading for trainees practicing psychiatrists and those in other branches of care whose work brings them into contact with elderly psychiatric patients
