Other Cultures Aims Methods And Achievements In Social Anthropology:

Other Cultures John Beattie, 2013-10-08 The first part of this book considers what kind of study social anthropology is the types of questions social anthropologists ask and how they go about obtaining the answers The second part discusses the more important fields in which social anthropologists have advanced our knowledge of other cultures kinship and marriage social order economic relations and magical and religious institutions The important theme of social change is also discussed First published in 1964 Other Cultures John Beattie, 1964 Other Cultures John Beattie, 1969 Other Cultures

John Beattie (antropolog.), 1966 Social Organization and Peasant Societies Maurice Freedman, 2017-07-05 The essays included in Social Organization and Peasant Societies were written in honor of the man who taught their authors Each entry is about different problems within the general field of social organization They were composed in many styles and deal ethnographically with a heterogeneous collection of peoples and countries Together they illustrate an important aspect of Firth's influence as a teacher the range of his interests and his success in promoting social anthropological research on the broadest front The breadth and the variety in the work of his students reflect Firth's own catholicity From economics he reached into every corner of the field covered by social anthropology and many of his interests can be traced in these essays on themes in kinship and marriage by Baric Benedict Kaberry and Leach and on religious subjects by Freedman Morris and Stanner Still more detail the study of modern social change by Little and Mayer There is even one on art by Forge Three are devoted to subjects in economic anthropology by Belshaw Swift and Ward On all of these varied and complex topics Raymond Firth has written extensively and taught untiringly Many of the contributors to his festschrift are themselves leading anthropologists Raymond Firth's importance in the history of social anthropology is undisputed He came into the profession when it was small and unformed when it existed only in the tiny groups of people around Malinowski and Radcliffe Brown He urged it on by intellectual leadership by careful organization and by devoted service He was one of a small band of scholars he created a large school He inherited an esoteric seminar from Malinowski he turned it into a great class where over the years hundreds of students marveled at his skill and learned their craft as analysts and field workers His protege listened to his formulation of problems his critique of methods and his courteous but un Death and Bereavement Across

Cultures Colin Murray Parkes, Pittu Laungani, William Young, 2015-06-05 All societies have their own customs and beliefs surrounding death In the West traditional ways of mourning are disappearing and although Western science has had a major impact on how people die it has taught us little about the way to die or to grieve Many whose work brings them into contact with the dying and the bereaved from Western and other cultures are at a loss to know how to offer appropriate and sensitive support Death and Bereavement Across Cultures 2nd Edition is a handbook which meets the needs of doctors nurses social workers hospital chaplains counsellors and volunteers caring for patients with life threatening illness and their families before and after bereavement It is a practical guide explaining the religious and other differences commonly met with in multi cultural societies when someone is dying or bereaved In doing so readers may be surprised to find how much we can learn from other cultures about our own attitudes and assumptions about death Written by international experts in the field the book Describes the rituals and beliefs of major world religions Explains their psychological and historical context Shows how customs are changed by contact with the West Considers the implications for the future The second edition includes new chapters that explore how members of the health care professions perform roles formerly conducted by priests and shamans can cross the cultural gaps between different cultures and religions consider the relevance of attitudes and assumptions about death for our understanding of religious and nationalist extremism and its consequences discuss the Buddhist Islamic and Christian ways of death Death raises questions which science cannot answer Whatever our personal beliefs we can all gain from learning how others view these ultimate problems This book explores the richness of mourning traditions around the world with the aim of increasing the sensitivity and understanding which we all bring to the issue of death and bereavement

The British Army, Manpower and Society into the Twenty-first Century Hew

Strachan,2021-06-30 These essays set the relationship between the Army and society in the context of the 20th century as a whole They then consider the key areas of current controversy the pressure on the Army caused by changes in society the Army's right to be different race homosexuality and gender

A'aisa's Gifts Michele Stephen,2023-09-01 Filled with insight provocative in its conclusions A'aisa's Gifts is a groundbreaking ethnography of the Mekeo of Papua New Guinea and a valuable contribution to anthropological theory Based on twenty years fieldwork this richly detailed study of Mekeo esoteric knowledge cosmology and self conceptualizations recasts accepted notions about magic and selfhood Drawing on accounts by Mekeo ritual experts and laypersons this is the first book to demonstrate magic's profound role in creating the self It also argues convincingly that dream reporting provides a natural context for self reflection In presenting its data the book develops the concept of autonomous imagination into a new theoretical framework for exploring subjective imagery processes across cultures Filled with insight provocative in its conclusions A'aisa's Gifts is a groundbreaking ethnography of the Mekeo of Papua New Guinea and a valuable contribution to anthropological theory Based on twenty years fieldwork this richly detailed study of Mek

Folklore and the Fantastic in Nineteenth-Century British Fiction Jason Marc

Harris,2016-04-15 Jason Marc Harris s ambitious book argues that the tensions between folk metaphysics and Enlightenment values produce the literary fantastic Demonstrating that a negotiation with folklore was central to the canon of British literature he explicates the complicated rhetoric associated with folkloric fiction His analysis includes a wide range of writers including James Barrie William Carleton Charles Dickens George Eliot Sheridan Le Fanu Neil Gunn George MacDonald William Sharp Robert Louis Stevenson and James Hogg These authors Harris suggests used folklore to articulate profound cultural ambivalence towards issues of class domesticity education gender imperialism nationalism race politics religion and metaphysics Harris s analysis of the function of folk metaphysics in nineteenth and early twentieth century narratives reveals the ideological agendas of the appropriation of folklore and the artistic potential of superstition in both folkloric and literary contexts of the supernatural Decolonisation, Africanisation and the Philosophy Curriculum Edwin Etieyibo,2019-10-23

This book appropriately titled Decolonisation Africanisation and the Philosophy Curriculum signposts and captures issues about philosophy the philosophy curriculum and its decolonisation and Africanisation This topic is of critical importance at present for the discipline of philosophy not the least because philosophy and the current philosophical canons are perceived to be improvised by virtue of their historical marginalisation and exclusion of other valuable and important philosophical traditions and perspectives The continued marginalisation and exclusion of one such philosophical tradition and perspective i e African philosophy connects to issues of space contestations and raise questions of justice The chapters in this book engage with all of these issues and they also attempt to make sense of what it will mean for philosophy and the philosophy curriculum to be decolonised and Africanised how to go about achieving this task and what the challenges and problems are that confront efforts to decolonise and Africanise the philosophy curriculum Furthermore the contributors initiate discussions on the value and importance of non western philosophical traditions and perspectives and by so doing challenge the dormant and triumphant narrative and hegemony of Western philosophy as well as the centrality accorded to it in philosophical discourse The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in the South African Journal of Philosophy

Chinese Lineage and Society Maurice Freedman,2021-01-07 This book takes the argument first set out in Lineage Organization in South Eastern China a step further It incorporates some of Professor Freedman s field data gathered in the Hong Kong New Territories in 1963 and draws on a wide variety of written sources As in his first book on the subject the author seeks to analyse certain crucial institutions of Chinese society within the framework of contemporary anthropological theory

A Companion to African Philosophy Kwasi Wiredu,2008-04-15 This volume of newly commissioned essays provides comprehensive coverage of African philosophy ranging across disciplines and throughout the ages Offers a distinctive historical treatment of African philosophy Covers all the main branches of philosophy as addressed in the African tradition Includes accounts of pre colonial African philosophy and contemporary political thought Reviewing Imperial

Conflicts Cristina Baptista,Ana Cristina Mendes,2014-03-26 This volume of essays investigates across a wide range of texts and with an emphasis on the notion of conflict the various forms objects and modes of circulation that sustained the European civilizing mission At the heart of this volume are two controversial and conflicting papers authored by Robert JC Young and Bernard Porter around which other researchers come together to complement the debate and address some of the thorny issues that arise from reviewing colonial and postcolonial conflicts Under the aegis of history and cultural studies as well as film studies the contributors in this collection share the common purpose of reviewing imperial conflicts while arguing for their own research agendas From opposition and conflict new perspectives on those cultural processes within the particular context of the British Empire are gained The Oxford Handbook of Public Management Ewan Ferlie, Laurence E. Lynn, Christopher Pollitt, 2007 The public sector continues to play a strategic role across the world and in the last thirty years there have been major shifts in approaches to its management This text identifies the trends in public management and the effects these have had as well as providing a broad overview to each topic Philanthropology, the Science of

Philanthropy Theo Schuyt, 2024-09-03 This book sheds a positive light on the prevalence of love for humankind in the form of philanthropy All around our globe people rich and poor urban and rural religious and non religious in advanced and developing societies alike perform acts of philanthropy organizationally embedded and guided by philanthropic values and norms This book therefore attempts to reach a truly international audience because philanthropy is not an exclusively Western phenomenon Besides the growing public interest across the world more and more academic disciplines are taking an interest in philanthropy each scrutinizing philanthropy from their own disciplinary perspective and with a particular focus As a result however the overall picture has rather faded into the background In line with cultural anthropologists the book presents philanthropy as a universal societal system differently arranged in each society that deserves a distinctive academic discipline the science of philanthropology The Science of Religion: A Defence Donald Wiebe, 2018-10-16 Donald Wiebe Professor of Philosophy of Religion at Trinity College University of Toronto has spent much of his academic career arguing for a clear demarcation between Theology and Religious Studies The Science of Religion A Defence offers a brilliant overview of Professor Wiebe s contributions on methodology in the academic study of religion of the development of his thinking over time and of his intellectual commitment to a science of religion The work is divided into three parts The first part identifies pertinent connections between religion religious studies and science and why reductionism in the academic study of religion when properly applied can bridge the explanatory gap between the sceptic and the devotee The second part treats conceptual debates in the academic study of religion with particular reference to the place of belief understanding and meaning in the modern study of religion The third part addresses the theological resistance to the scientific study of religion and how that resistance can be overcome Finally two new essays are included a critique on The Preconceptions of a Science of Religion by Anthony J Palma and an accompanying reply by Donald Wiebe The Science of Religion A Defence is an essential resource for both scholarly and non scholarly audiences alike and will be of particular interest to both defenders and critics of a scientific study of religion English Language Teaching in Its Social Context Christopher Candlin, Neil Mercer, 2001 English Language Teaching in its Social Context offers sociolinguistic ethnographic and social psychological perspectives on TESOL teaching and learning and introduces the relevant literature on second language acquisition Together with its companion volumes it presents English language teaching in a variety of specific institutional geographic and cultural contexts The articles a range of seminal and specially commissioned pieces have been carefully chosen to present four major principles of English language teaching they focus on the roles played by teachers and learners recognise the individuality of language learners support teachers in the provision of active guidance for students learning examine both positive and negative patterns of interaction between learners and teachers This Reader offers people unfamiliar with research in this field an overall impression of English language teaching issues while allowing the more experienced reader the opportunity to relate his or her own experiences to the theories presented Evaluating Communication for Development June Lennie, Jo Tacchi, 2013-02-11 Evaluating Communication for Development presents a comprehensive framework for evaluating communication for development C4D This framework combines the latest thinking from a number of fields in new ways It critiques dominant instrumental accountability based approaches to development and evaluation and offers an alternative holistic participatory mixed methods approach based on systems and complexity thinking and other key concepts It maintains a focus on power gender and other differences and social norms The authors have designed the framework as a way to focus on achieving sustainable social change and to continually improve and develop C4D initiatives The benefits and rigour of this approach are supported by examples and case studies from a number of action research and evaluation capacity development projects undertaken by the authors over the past fifteen years Building on current arguments within the fields of C4D and development the authors reinforce the case for effective communication being a central and vital component of participatory forms of development something that needs to be appreciated by decision makers They also consider ways of increasing the effectiveness of evaluation capacity development from grassroots to management level in the development context an issue of growing importance to improving the quality effectiveness and utilisation of monitoring and evaluation studies in this field The book includes a critical review of the key approaches methodologies and methods that are considered effective for planning evaluation assessing the outcomes of C4D and engaging in continuous learning This rigorous book is of immense theoretical and practical value to students scholars and professionals researching or working in development communication and media applied anthropology and evaluation and program planning The Routledge Dictionary of Anthropologists Gérald Gaillard, 2004 This detailed and comprehensive guide provides biographical information on the most influential and significant figures in world anthropology from the birth of the discipline in the nineteenth century to the present day Each of the fifteen chapters focuses on a national tradition or school of thought outlining its central features and placing the anthropologists within their intellectual contexts
