Our Brothers War:

Our Brothers' War Maureen Podshadley Morehead, Pat M. Carr, 1993 Collection of poems and fiction told from the point of view of the women during the Civil War The Brothers' War John C. Reed, 2022-09-04 John C Reed's The Brothers War emerges as a captivating narrative meticulously woven and compellingly presented under the auspices of DigiCat Publishing. Reed's work delves into the complex dynamics of sibling conflict set against a broader tapestry of historical or possibly allegorical significance. The author employs a literary style that resonates with the richness of classical literature seamlessly integrating a modern sensibility allowing the work to transcend temporal confines. The painstaking reproduction of the text by DigiCat for contemporary consumption pays homage to the tome's status as a distinguished element of the literary canon ensuring its accessibility and relevance to a new generation of readers in various formats. Reed's own background and experiences shape the nuanced portrayal of fraternal strife and the broader human condition embedded within The Brothers War. The descriptive power and emotional depth of the novel suggest that Reed has drawn from a deep well of both historical knowledge and personal insight which lend authenticity and gravitas to his narrative. This hallmark of Reed's literary craft not only enriches the text but also provides a window through which the author's influences and motivations can be discerned. With its blend of rich character development and universal themes The Brothers War is recommended for readers who seek both the depth of historical fiction and the intimate exploration of human relationships. DigiCat Publishing's exquisite rendering makes it an indispensable addition to the libraries of aficionados of classic literature as well as those who appreciate the timeless art of storytelling. The work's portrayal of the human spirit's resilience and the nuances of familial bonds ensures its rightful place as a classic that continues to resonate across the ages. The Brothers' War Jeff Grubb, 2018-03-27 The Myth The Magic Dominarian legends speak of a mighty conflict obscured by the mists of history. Of a conflict between the brothers Urza and Mishra for supremacy on the continent of Terisiare. Of titanic engines that scarred and twisted the very planet. Of a final battle that sank continents and shook the skies. The saga of the Brothers War. The Brothers' War J. Patrick Lewis, 2007 The wonderful wordplay of J. Patrick Lewis breathes new life into the speeches of Lincoln, the letters of Grant and Lee, and the moving human drama of our country's Civil War. Lewis' poignant poetry gives young readers a vivid insight into the brutal conflict that tore America apart. The author draws on primary source books and articles to inspire each poem, bringing the ordinary and extraordinary voices of the Civil War to light. The book also includes a note from the Photo Editor on the authentic period images used throughout. Readers experience history directly as it was lived by Americans in the 1860s. Four Brothers in Blue, Or, Sunshine and Shadows of the War of the Rebellion Robert Goldthwaite Carter, 1999 These letters collected and transcribed by Captain Robert Goldthwaite Carter in the 1870s are among the finest primary sources on the daily life of the Union soldier in the Civil War. Robert and his three brothers all saw action with the Army of the Potomac under its various commanders: Generals McClellan, Burnside, Hooker, Meade, and

Grant At times in pairs but often in neighboring units they fought on the battlefields of Bull Run Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville Gettysburg the Wilderness and Petersburg

Opaque Memories of War Gary Robert Geister,2010-04-08 Many of the poems contained herein follow excerpts from my books NAM The Devils Domain The Pimp of Saigon and Undaunted Valor These poems were created to envision facts of war inspired by my Vietnam War experiences some are inspired by myths reported by biased American newspaper radio and television media Still others were created to reflect individual valor human suffering and mans inhumanity to man Myths The biased American media reported that the U S Military lost many encounters with the enemy in Vietnam The TET offensive was an NVA VC Victory and that America had lost its first war ever as witnessed on television during the fall of Saigon April 30 1975 Facts The American military was not defeated in Vietnam The American military did not lose a battle of any consequence From a military standpoint the war was a major military defeat for the Vietcong and North Vietnamese Army Militarily the 1968 TET offensive resulted in a total defeat of the Communist forces on all fronts It resulted in the death of some 45 000 NVA troops and the complete if not total destruction of the Vietcong elements in South Vietnam The fall of Saigon happened April 30 1975 two years after the American military had left Vietnam The last American troops departed Vietnam in their entirety March 29 1973 It is impossible to lose a war we had stopped fighting We fought to an agreed governmental stalemate and turned over all military responsibility to the South Vietnamese army which included jets helicopters tanks trucks weapons and ammo The U S peace settlement was signed in Paris on January 27 1973 It called for the release of all U S prisoners and withdrawal of U S forces Effective April 30 1975 the South Vietnamese army outnumbered the North Vietnamese army by at least two to one in all categories men machines aircraft and firepower The U S A supported the French military with 98% if its military costs and fought Communism in Vietnam for a total involvement for 10 000 days With the South Vietnamese army now in charge of their own countrys destiny they never fought but instead surrendered unconditionally to North Vietnam within nine days The 140 000 evacuees in April 1975 during the fall of Saigon consisted entirely of Vietnamese civilians and military There were twice as many casualties in Southeast Asia primarily Cambodian the first two years following the end of U S involvement than there were during all the years of the Vietnam War The media perceived loss of the war the countless assassinations and torture visited upon Vietnamese Laotians and Cambodians is due to the American media for their undying support by misrepresentation of the anti war movement in the United States As Americans we must support our military men and women involved in the War On Terrorism for once again the American media is working tirelessly to undermine their efforts and force a psychological loss or stalemate for the United States
