Our English For Melanesia:

Our English for Melanesia Halstead,1990-05 The Light of Melanesia Henry Hutchinson Montgomery,1896

The light of Melanesia, a record of 35 years' mission work Henry Hutchinson Montgomery,1896 The Making of Global and Local Modernities in Melanesia Holly Wardlow,2016-12-05

Authored by well established and respected scholars this work examines the kinds of efforts that have been made to adopt Western modernity in Melanesia and explores the reasons for their varied outcomes The contributors take the work of Professor Marshall Sahlins as a starting point assessing his theories of cultural change and of the relationship between cultural intensification and globalizing forces They acknowledge the importance of Sahlins ideas while refining extending modifying and critiquing them in light of their own first hand knowledge of Pacific island societies Also presenting one of Sahlins less widely available original essays for reference this book is an exciting contribution to serious anthropological engagement with Papua New Guinea

Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf,2006-09-30 Melansia boasts over one quarter of the world s distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf s work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji

We were married after three years at opposite ends of the world We then too rapidly for comfort made off in a snowstorm for the South Seas All this we imprudently did in our late forties Thus Muriel Jones introduces her account originally published in 1974 of how she came to start her married life in the Solomon Islands whose impact was traumatic perhaps just because we were not in our first youth or innocent of other tropical experience St Peter s College was the only thing at Siota there was no store and the only post office on the island was so difficult of access that I never visited it we ourselves did most of the postal business quite informally at our end of the island It is not surprising that even high ranking visitors tended to arrive looking like ship wrecked sailors If one was ill enough to see a doctor one was on the whole too ill to be subjected to several hours of sun or rain in an open boat and a probable night en route There is too the account of the old lady whose family on her death wanted to bury her in a coffin instead of the customary mat Poor old lady at the end of all these exertions the coffin with her in it stood in the church for the funeral uneasily supported on two rickety small tables from our sitting room mutely exhorting us to STOW AWAY FROM BOILERS Muriel Jones tells the unusual story of her five Melanesian years of the impact of Christianity on a pagan people of her husband's college and its move to another island of the students the islands and their animals and exotic vegetation of the islanders nine tenths of whom live in communities ranging from twenty to two hundred people and of their changing way of life Her story takes one about as far as it is possible to go from an urban civilisation and in telling it she reveals the resources of her own character Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books,1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe

Melanesia To-day Arthur Innes Hopkins,1927 Australian national bibliography ,1961 Living Theology in Melanesia John D'Arcy May,1985 Salvation in Melanesia Michael Press,2020-06-15 Salvation in Melanesia explores the views of salvation held by Methodist Lutheran and Pentecostal Christians in Fiji and Papua New Guinea uncovering the ways in which a Protestant theology of unconditional salvation through God's judgment and grace has been combined with traditional Melanesian religious concepts of reciprocity retribution and obedience to cultural laws While Pentecostal churches have offered new experiences of transformation by rejecting what they regard as the mingling of Melanesian culture with Christianity in other churches they have also kept certain elements of traditional Melanesian spirituality Meanwhile today economic globalization and secularization result in new questions about the relationship between the people the leaders the land and God Michael Press uses mission sources and interviews to describe the different concepts of mission their reception the main images of God and the relationship between religion and culture in Melanesian churches as well as the factors that support or hinder personal transformation Bikmaus ,1984 Melanesians and Missionaries Darrell L. Whiteman,2002-05-10 In Melanesians and Missionaries one of the best of the younger generation of missionary anthropologists demonstrates that a commitment to the missionary enterprise on the part of a solid scholar facilitates rather than hinders the anthropological study of a missionary topic This is better anthropology because Dr Whiteman is able to probe more deeply into his topic and demonstrates that he understands and appreciates both Melanesians and missionaries Charles H Kraft Professor of Anthropology School of World Mission Fuller Theological Seminary Pasadena Our English for Melanesia Grade 3 Teachers Resource Book Halstead,1996-03-01 The Spectre of the Vatican, Or, The Efforts of Rome in England Since the Reformation John Wyse,1875 Our English for Melanesia 3 Flip Chart Halstead,1999-04-01
