Les garanties fondamentales de la personne en droit humanitaire et droits de l'homme Mohamed El Kouhene, 2017-07-03 Nouvelle édition avec préface du Prince Hassan bin Talal La protection de l'individu dans les situations de conflits armés et sa protection dans les situations de paix ont été scindées pour des raisons historiques sociales juridiques et politiques Mohamed El Kouhene confronte ces deux branches de droit international que les développements récents rapprochent de manière substantielle Il les compare sous l'angle des droits les plus fondamentaux de la personne et les met en relation sous leur aspect le plus délicat savoir les régimes de protection leur portée leurs interdépendances Bien qu'ils constituent deux systèmes juridiques distincts le droit international humanitaire et le droit international des droits de l'homme forment plus que jamais un faisceau de normes et de mécanismes de protection complémentaires Cette approche complémentariste défendue par l'auteur dans la première édition du livre en 1986 ne s'est pas démentie au fil des ans Au contraire elle a prospéré sous l'influence mutuelle de la doctrine du législateur et du juge internationaux Le sujet est toujours d'actualité plus que jamais dirions-nous car dans l'environnement sombre où nous vivons la communauté internationale se doit de mobiliser tout l'arsenal juridique dont elle dispose pour sauvegarder et faire respecter les règles qui protègent l'humanité Ce livre est une réédition du texte original avec une introduction et une préface nouvelles Eminent expert en droit international qui a consacré sa carrière la réflexion et l'action humanitaire mon collègue Mohamed El Kouhene est idéalement placé pour présenter la complémentarité du droit international humanitaire et du droit international des droits de l'homme Son ouvrage est un outil essentiel pour comprendre les règles et les mécanismes qui nous permettent de mieux protéger notre humanité A lire absolument Catherine Bertini Directrice exécutive du Programme alimentaire mondial des Nations Unies de 1992-2002 Couronné par le Prix Paul Reuter 1985 Dcerné par le Comité International de la Croix Rouge Summary in English The protection of the individual in situations of armed conflict and his protection in situations of peace were split for historical social political and legal reasons Dr Mohamed El Kouhene confronts these two branches of international law that recent developments have brought closer in a substantial way He compares them from the perspective of the most fundamental rights of the person and puts them in relationship under their most sensitive aspect namely the protection systems their scope their interdependencies Although they are two separate legal systems humanitarian law and human rights constitute more than ever a set of complementary standards and protection mechanisms This complementarity approach defended by the author in the first edition of the book in 1986 has not wavered over the years On the contrary it flourished under the mutual influence of the doctrine and the international legislators and judges The topic is still relevant more than ever should we say because in the dark environment where we live the international community must mobilize all legal arsenals available to it to safeguard and enforce the rules that protect humanity This book is a reissued version of the original text with new introduction and preface
