Regional History of the Railways of Great Britain David St. John Thomas, 1990      Spirit of Northern Rails David

Goodyear,2024-04-30 This book endeavours to capture the very essence of the railways in the northern UK exploring in photographs their imprint upon the landscape Railways are illustrated as they traverse the bleak fells pass by traditional cotton mills and industrial heritage stride over iconic viaducts crossing vast windswept valleys and coastal estuaries and as they share the grandeur of iconic cathedrals of both religious and railway station designs while not forgetting the intricate network of canals intertwining with the rails that eventually carried the very traffic that kept these waterways in use Here is a personal selection which I trust helps explore all that characterises and reveals the moods and atmosphere which conjure the heart and Spirit of railways traversing our northern climes Locomotives train designs and liveries past and present will help recall the rails of the 1980 s and 90 s and offer an interesting contrast to the more modern images of the present millennium With a mix of traction and train fleets both in use on passenger and freight consists this selection of images reveals their participation in capturing the heart of railways in the north Readers are invited to share this fascinating adventure and indeed the inherent Northern Spirit which permeates throughout such a journey Best Pub Walks in the Lake District Neil Coates,2004 This guide to pub walks in the Lake District ranges from easy lowland ambles to hair raising leaps across foaming upland torrents all offering stunning views There are details of the refreshments provided in each pub from home brew to regional and national favourites The Dalesman ,1988 Ottley's Bibliography of British Railway History. Second Supplement 12957-19605 ,1998 The London, Midland and Scottish Railway Volume Two Preston to Carlisle Stanley C. Jenkins,Martin Loader,2015-10-15 This fascinating selection of photographs traces some of the many ways in which the LMS line between Preston and Carlisle has changed and developed over the last century I Hate the Lake District Charlie Gere,2019-10-08 An alternative view of the North West of England that delves into its stranger past I Hate the Lake District offers a different vision of the rural environment from those found in much contemporary nature writing Based on the author s trips around North West England the book engages with nuclear power and nuclear war slavery imperialism ghosts love God cockroaches and the sheer violence and contingency of nature itself of which the human presence is merely a part Each chapter starts with an account of a visit to a place in this remote part of England the deep north but digresses and wanders through multifarious themes and subjects Among the sites Gere visits are the defunct nuclear power station at Sellafield home of all British nuclear waste Lake Coniston where Donald Campbell died trying to break the water speed record Hadrian s Wall furthestmost reach of the Roman Empire the mysterious and deathly Morecambe Bay sites of slavery in the North West places where UFOs have been sighted avant garde artists created work and Islamic terrorists trained shantytowns where the navvies who built the railways lived with their families and even the remains of Blobbyland in Morecambe In I Hate the Lake District Gere challenges the bourgeois pastoralism of popular nature writing and reveals the landscape of North West England as profoundly unnatural and strange My Real Children Jo Walton,2014-05-20 It s 2015 and Patricia Cowan is very old Confused today read the notes clipped to the end of her bed She forgets things she should know what year it is major events in the lives of her children But she remembers things that don't seem possible She remembers marrying Mark and having four children And she remembers not marrying Mark and raising three children with Bee instead She remembers the bomb that killed President Kennedy in 1963 and she remembers Kennedy in 1964 declining to run again after the nuclear exchange that took out Miami and Kiev Her childhood her years at Oxford during the Second World War those were solid things But after that did she marry Mark or not Did her friends all call her Trish or Pat Had she been a housewife who escaped a terrible marriage after her children were grown or a successful travel writer with homes in Britain and Italy And the moon outside her window does it host a benign research station or a command post bristling with nuclear missiles Two lives two worlds two versions of modern history each with their loves and losses their sorrows and triumphs Jo Walton's My Real Children is the tale of both of Patricia Cowan's lives and of how every life means the entire world At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

Signal Boxes and Semaphores Gordon D. Webster, 2016-11-15 Explores the decline of mechanical signalling in the UK

Britain's Railways Through the Seasons David Goodyear, 2023-01-31 The four seasons pass by like a gliding ship each signalled by a transformation of changing colors and hues of light thus providing a form of marker to these passages of time Living in the temperate zone we experience four distinct seasons The railway scene reflects such in its own special character cold winter air enhances the bountiful steam escaping from the hissing steam locomotive impatiently awaiting its departure while autumn enchants with trees that exude a variety of hues which embellish any image of even the most mundane suburban train Springtime blossom and wild flowers bestow railway cuttings with a bounty of generous bright colors while coastal railways often look most inviting on warm sunny days as they pass alongside azure seas and golden beaches The seasons each add their own dimension for the photographer to encapsulate and railways passing through the ever changing landscape provide their own tribute to this inspirational tapestry As readers travel through each season so they are invited to share this awe and constant source of inspiration from nature's kaleidoscope of color Photographs are provided with captions and reflective commentary to enlighten the knowledgeable rail enthusiast alongside those who equally enjoy such a portrait of landscape and scenery through the seasons The range of photographs ranges from the mid 1980s to the present with the majority from the last two decades

The Stone Circles of Britain, Ireland, and Brittany Aubrey Burl, 2000-01-01 The spectacular stone circles of western Europe some nearly 6000 years old have intrigued viewers through the ages This beautiful book about these megalithic rings explores their ancestry methods of construction and eventual desertion A substantially revised version of Aubrey Burl's highly praised work The Stone Circles of the British Isles it offers new insights into the purpose of stone circles It also provides a new interpretation of Stonehenge and of Callanish in Scotland the first overview of the cromlechs in Brittany a discussion of the problems of archaeoastronomy as related to stone circles a greatly expanded Gazetteer and an up to date list of radiocarbon dates and recent excavations

The Railways Simon

Bradley, 2015-09-24 Sunday Times History Book of the Year 2015 Britain's railways have been a vital part of national life for nearly 200 years Transforming lives and landscapes they have left their mark on everything from timekeeping to tourism As a self contained world governed by distinctive rules and traditions the network also exerts a fascination all its own From the classical grandeur of Newcastle station to the ceaseless traffic of Clapham Junction from the mysteries of Brunel's atmospheric railway to the lost routines of the great marshalling yards Simon Bradley explores the world of Britain's railways the evolution of the trains and the changing experiences of passengers and workers The Victorians' private compartments railway rugs and footwarmers have made way for air conditioned carriages with airline type seating but the railways remain a giant and diverse anthology of structures from every period and parts of the system are the oldest in the world Using fresh research keen observation and a wealth of cultural references Bradley weaves from this network a remarkable story of technological achievement of architecture and engineering of shifting social classes and gender relations of safety and crime of tourism and the changing world of work The Railways shows us that to travel through Britain by train is to journey through time as well as space

The English Electric Class 37 David Mather, 2025-09-30 The versatile and reliable Class 37s quickly established themselves as a firm favourite with engine men and enthusiasts alike Equally at home in charge of Class 1 passenger or heavy freight trains they would prove their worth over lines the length and breadth of the network operating from their initial delivery in 1960 through the demise of steam traction and even into the modern era This book explains their origin development and operation with information on every one of the 309 examples introduced Over time numerous modifications were made resulting in a number of sub classes Many are described in detail including black and white and colour photographs depicting their transformations through the decades Soon becoming the traction of choice to head rail tours they were and still are in great demand by the preservation movement They continue to attract enthusiasts of classic traction and several are key members of the locomotive pools of heritage railways throughout the land David Mather describes the long and successful career of this iconic class and explains the origin and demise of those which succumbed to the cutter's torch together with details and up to date photographs of many in preservation where they continue to operate to the delight of railway enthusiasts of all ages
