The Jesuit Mission to the Lakota Sioux Ross Enochs,1996-07 This study examines the development of ministry at the St Francis and Holy Rosary missions in South Dakota Using primary sources this study seeks to understand the points of views of the Lakota Sioux Catholics during the 1920s and 1930s and the Jesuit missionaries who reached them It takes into particular account the patterns which develop in missiology

The Silencing of Jesuit Figurist Joseph de Prémare in Eighteenth-Century China D. E. Mungello,2019-06-24 The image of a voice in the wilderness evokes an outcast who has been condemned and banished by society That image fits the scholar priest Joseph de Pr mare who spent the last thirty eight years of his life 1698 1736 mainly in remote areas of China He was condemned to silence by not only his religious superiors but also by intellectuals in Europe He was silenced because his Figurist theories were regarded as dangerous and implausible And yet the irony of this silencing is that Father Pr mare was one of the most knowledgeable Sinologists of all time As a missionary in towns in the southern province of Jiangxi he was freed from many pastoral duties by an assisting catechist and able to devote himself to intensive study of Chinese texts He was practically a scholar hermit who left the urban politicized atmosphere of Beijing after only two years to return to Jiangxi province There he cultivated Chinese literati who helped him assemble a remarkable collection of classical texts He was prolific in producing a wide body of works in philology history philosophy religion and drama Faced by critics who were claiming that Chinese culture was alien to Christianity Pr mare joined the effort led by his fellow Jesuit Joachim Bouvet to save the Christian mission in China from destruction The Figurists were radical in arguing that the ancient Chinese texts like the Old Testament anticipated the coming of Christ long before his birth They claimed that Chinese commentators erred in viewing these ancient texts as records of history when in fact they were works of metaphorical and figurative meaning

Influenced by a Chinese scholar Pr mare made a philological analysis of Chinese characters to explain his theory When Figurism was condemned by his religious superiors Pr mare attempted to circumvent their prohibition by sending his manuscripts to the proto Sinologist Etienne Fourmont in Paris asking that they be published anonymously Fourmont criticized Pr mare s theories and failed to publish them By the time of his death Pr mare had sent most of his manuscripts to Paris where they remained buried for many years

Secularities in Japan ,2022-07-18 This volume brings together contributions that from different disciplinary perspectives highlight certain aspects and problems related to the configuration of the relationship between the religious and the secular in Japan In the background stands the question of the historical path dependencies that lead to the formation of a specifically Japanese secularity Based on the assumption that existing epistemic and social structures shape the way in which Western concepts of secularism were appropriated the individual case studies demonstrate that the culturally specific appropriation of Western regulatory principles such as secularism has created problems that are of political relevance in contemporary Japan

Catholic Sensationalism and Victorian Literature Maureen Moran,2007-01-01 Exotic corrupt and dangerous Roman Catholicism functioned in the popular Victorian imagination as a highly sensationalized and implacably anti English enemy Maureen Moran s lively study considers a wide range of key authors including Charlotte Bront Robert Browning Wilkie Collins and George Eliot as well as a number of non canonical writers to give a detailed account of the cultural tensions between Catholics and Protestants Moran shows that rather than representing a traditional religious schism the demonizing of Catholics resulted from secular fears over crime sex and violence
