Let's Start with the Children Al Colella,2013-01-11 Make the journey from the slave trade of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the plight of African Americans in inner city America in the South Bronx Learn about the ravages and disadvantages of residence there and its lifelong impact upon an entire population Recognize that this continuing situation has a sad and shameful historical path shaped by societys blindness to humanity This malaise of blindness exacted an unfair immoral and immeasurable human cost upon generations a blindness which denied entry to the opportunities afforded others as a birthright The aggregated cost in the South Bronx is staggering beyond belief There is however a collateral cost to the reservoir of national resources caused by a failure to recognize and therefore unrealized and unavailable the creativity talents skills and potential of inner city residents Hear those voices that have addressed the inequities of this situation learn of individuals who believe in the humanity of every individual Despite these voices the deplorable inner city situation continues and even worsens Is anybody listening There are listeners who have taken up the cause albeit in the face of a lack of political humanitarian and spiritual wills Learn about those listeners in a New England church community that made the trek to the South Bronx for a decade One may perceive these two communities as radically different experience the merger of two communities into a single family via the grace of a spiritual ministry Think about how you can make a difference somewhere sometime somehow and discover the difference in your being Proceeds from book sales will be directed to an educational fund specifically for the children of St Anns community in the South Bronx
