Fugitive Pedagogy Jarvis R. Givens, 2021-04-13 The story of Black education is about more than desegregation and inclusion in mainstream schooling Jarvis Givens returns to the classrooms of Jim Crow to highlight the forgotten work of

Carter G Woodson and his followers who undertook the radical act of educating Black children Their subversive methods continue to provide a model today Whose America? Jonathan Zimmerman, 2022-08-26 In this expanded edition of his 2002 book Zimmerman surveys how battles over public education have become conflicts at the heart of American national identity Critical Race Theory The 1619 Project Mask mandates As the headlines remind us American public education is still wracked by culture wars But these conflicts have shifted sharply over the past two decades marking larger changes in the ways that Americans imagine themselves In his 2002 book Whose America Zimmerman predicted that religious differences would continue to dominate the culture wars Twenty years after that seminal work Zimmerman has reconsidered arguments over what American history is what it means and how it is taught have exploded with special force in recent years In this substantially expanded new edition Zimmerman meditates on the history of the culture wars in the classroom and on what our inability to find common ground might mean for our future

Freedom's Racial Frontier Herbert G. Ruffin, Dwayne A. Mack, 2018-03-15 Between 1940 and 2010 the black population of the American West grew from 710 400 to 7 million With that explosive growth has come a burgeoning interest in the history of the African American West an interest reflected in the remarkable range and depth of the works collected in Freedom's Racial Frontier Editors Herbert G Ruffin II and Dwayne A Mack have gathered established and emerging scholars in the field to create an anthology that links past current and future generations of African American West scholarship The volume's sixteen chapters address the African American experience within the framework of the West as a multicultural frontier The result is a fresh perspective on western U S history centered on the significance of African American life culture and social justice in almost every trans Mississippi state Examining and interpreting the twentieth century while mindful of events and developments since 2000 the contributors focus on community formation cultural diversity civil rights and black empowerment and artistic creativity and identity Reflecting the dynamic evolution of new approaches and new sites of knowledge in the field of western history the authors consider its interconnections with fields such as cultural studies literature and sociology Some essays deal with familiar places while others look at understudied sites such as Albuquerque Oahu and Las Vegas Nevada By examining black suburbanization the Information Age and gentrification in the urban West several authors conceive of a Third Great Migration of African Americans to and within the West The West revealed in Freedom's Racial Frontier is a place where black Americans have fought and continue to fight to make their idea of freedom live up to their expectations of equality a place where freedom is still a frontier for most persons of African heritage

The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed

The Afrocentric Praxis of Teaching for Freedom Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2015-08-27 The Afrocentric Praxis of Teaching for Freedom explains and illustrates how an African worldview as a platform for culture based teaching and learning helps educators to retrieve African heritage and cultural knowledge which have been historically discounted and decoupled from teaching and learning The book has three objectives To exemplify how each of the emancipatory pedagogies it delineates and demonstrates is supported by African worldview concepts and parallel knowledge general understandings values and claims that are produced by that worldview To make African Diasporan cultural connections visible in the curriculum through numerous examples of cultural continuities seen in the actions of Diasporan groups and individuals that consistently exhibit an African worldview or cultural framework To provide teachers with content drawn from Africa's legacy to humanity as a model for locating all students and the cultures and groups they represent as subjects in the curriculum and pedagogy of schooling This book expands the Afrocentric praxis presented in the authors Remembering History in Teacher and Student Learning by combining remembered democratized historical content with emancipatory pedagogies that are connected to an African cultural platform

The New Deal's Black Congressman Dennis Sven Nordin, 1997 A biography of the first African American to be elected to the US Congress Contending that Nordin's 1883-1968 successes were due to questionable deeds and attitudes traces how he ingratiated himself with the political machine in Chicago to get elected and faithfully served them for many years in office Also documents how his patrons dropped him because of his support however belated of the NAACP and his legal action against racial discrimination Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
