The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness. Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog. Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory. Arthur Schlesinger Jr "A Reliable Car and a Woman Who Knows It" Curt McConnell, 2000-09-15 The audacity of driving a horseless carriage from coast to coast in the early years of the 20th century is hard to imagine in an age of superhighways and global positioning systems. Roads might be nothing more than muddy ruts made by wagon wheels. Sources of gasoline or replacement parts were few and agonizingly far between. Frequent repairs and tire changes were necessary and the traveler was subject to the whole range of nature's perils and discomforts. For a woman to attempt the trip was at the time a jaw dropping event. Yet in 1909 22 year old Alice Ramsey and three female companions piled into a Maxwell in New York City and 59 days later they triumphantly rolled into San Francisco. A few years later silent film star Anita King would become the first woman to make the transcontinental drive solo. These and other early coast to coast drives proved women's growing independence as well as the automobile's long distance viability. Detailed accounts of five coast to coast drives make up this lively history. Drawing from plentiful contemporary newspaper reports and the women's own words author Curt McConnell recounts the bold adventurers' experiences day by day and mile by mile. Woman's Who's who of America, 1914 The Image of the Jew in the Wyoming Frontier Press Steven C. Dinero, 2025-07-07 Although Jews and other ethnic and racial minorities were uncommon in the more remote regions of the frontier American West this did not mean that early settlers lacked an interest in these groups their behaviors their cultures and their beliefs as shown in the press. This book analyzes newspaper articles editorials and jokes published in Wyoming's nascent press from 1867 through 1918. Nearly 30 000 pieces related to the representation of minorities by editors journalists and others were studied revealing an amalgam of classic anti Semitic and racist tropes alongside seemingly benign romantic portrayals that similarly served to stereotype these minority communities. As this study highlights these attitudes were not confined to Wyoming or the American frontier but rather were part of broader societal trends that continue to persist in the present day. Literary Afterlife Bernard A.
