Trauma and Forgiveness C. Fred Alford, 2014-01-09 Contrary to the view of trauma popularized by literary theorists Trauma and Forgiveness argues that the traumatized are capable of representing their experience and that we should therefore listen more and theorize less Using stories and case studies including testimonies from Holocaust survivors as well as the victims of ordinary trauma C. Fred Alford shows that while the traumatized are generally capable of representing their experience this does little to heal them He draws on the British Object Relations tradition in psychoanalysis to argue that forgiveness which might be expected to help heal the traumatized is generally an attempt to avoid the hard work of mourning losses that can never be made whole Forgiveness is better seen as a virtue in the classical sense a recognition of human vulnerability The book concludes with an extended case study of the essayist Jean Améry and his refusal to forgive

Mortimore,2022-11-21 The Spirit of God as Fire the Globe Within the Sun Our Heaven is a philosophical book by D Mortimore that ties together the concepts of spirituality religion and astronomy with a view to forming a greater view about existence Excerpt Now you will remember that the heathen in ancient times and even so with them at the present day were always dismayed and frightened at the recurrence of an eclipse of the Sun and imagined the time of the world had come to an end But the science of astronomy has comprehended the laws of nature and has revealed the true causes of these seeming phenomena to the enlightenment of the world and many years previous to their occurrence Astronomers can foretell the day the hour and even the very moment when they will appear or be visible in any part of the world as also when they will disappear But we see however that God himself has spoken of such eclipses as signs in the heaven and yet they are eclipses of the Sun Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization),1994 The Sabbath Recorder ,1923
