Film Genre 2000 Wheeler W. Dixon, 2000-02-24 New essays by prominent film scholars address recent developments in American genre filmmaking

The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020-10-16 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi's logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi s creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi s work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities

Subverting Masculinity ,2021-08-04 Contemporary Western societies are currently witness to a crisis of masculinity but also to an intriguing diversification of images of masculinity Once relatively stable regimes of masculine gender representation appear to have been replaced by a wider spectrum of varieties of masculine lifestyles taken up by the media and the market to produce new and immensely flexible forms consumerised gender hegemony The essays in Subverting Masculinity concentrate on contemporary film literature and diverse forms of popular culture The essays show that the subversion of traditional images of masculinity is both a source of gender contestation but may equally be susceptible to assimilation by new hegemonic configurations of masculinity Subverting Masculinity maps out the ongoing relevance of gender politics in contemporary culture but also raises the question of increasingly unclear distinctions between hegemonic and subversive versions of masculinity in contemporary cultural production Subverting Masculinity will be of interest to students and teachers of gender cultural film and literary studies

Horror Films of the 1980s John Kenneth Muir,2010-07-28 John Kenneth Muir is back This time the author of the acclaimed Horror Films of the 1970s turns his attention to 300 films from the 1980s From horror franchises like Friday the 13th and Hellraiser to obscurities like The Children and The Boogens Muir is our informative guide Muir introduces the scope of the decade s horrors and offers a history that draws parallels between current events and the nightmares unfolding on cinema screens Each of the 300 films is discussed with detailed credits a brief synopsis a critical commentary and where applicable notes on the film s legacy beyond the 80s Also included is the author s ranking of the 15 best horror films of the 80s

Filmography of American History Grant Tracey,2001-11-30 Containing over 200 films this resource is ideal for students teachers and other viewers who are interested in using films to enhance their knowledge of American historical events and periods Along with traditional historical categories such as the two World Wars the Civil War and the Great Depression the book emphasizes immigrant multicultural and women centered films to portray the fullness of the American experience It also analyzes representations of people and events across different films for a variety of viewpoints and considers how films reconfigure a past era through the issues of the day in which they were produced For ease of use the book is organized into time periods Each entry contains the setting director cast credits the year of production distributor Ratings are supplied to identify audience appropriateness The detailed narrative supplies a brief plot summary along with a thesis supported by strong examples from the film such as excerpts of dialogue and factual details from history The entries encourage readers to view the film through the lens of history and to consider it within the larger nexus of films listed in that particular chapter Frequently the historical focus considers both the time period depicted in the film and the time period in which it was made The running times provide readers with a quick access to key scenes for further study Each entry also
