Magus Of The North:

The Magus of the North Isaiah Berlin, 1993 The Magus of the North Isaiah Berlin, Henry Hardy, 1993 The Königsberg lay theologian and philosopher J G Hamann 1730-88 is undeniably an obscure figure. A solitary, isolated thinker inclined to mysticism, he lived all his life in poverty and neglect despite the admiration of Herder and Goethe. Yet this neglect, Isaiah Berlin argues, is undeserved. Hamann was a man of profoundly original opinions whose importance has only become apparent in our own time. He was the first out and out opponent of the Enlightenment, the father of modern European irrationalism and a crucial forerunner of romanticism and existentialism, a uniquely independent thinker who deserves to be rescued from the comparative oblivion in which, at any rate in the English speaking world, he has languished since his death two centuries ago.

Three Critics of the Enlightenment Isaiah Berlin, 2000-10. Princeton is pleased to return to print Isaiah Berlin's essays on three uncelebrated thinkers: Vico, Hamann and Herder, which have been edited by Hardy to introduce this important work to a broader readership. These essays are not marginal ruminations but rather Berlin's most important studies in the history of ideas. After Enlightenment John R. Betz, 2012-03-12. After Enlightenment: Hamann as Post-Secular Visionary is a comprehensive introduction to the life and works of eighteenth-century German philosopher J G Hamann, the founding father of what has come to be known as Radical Orthodoxy. It provides a long overdue comprehensive introduction to Hamann's fascinating life and controversial works, including his role as a friend and critic of Kant and some of the most renowned German intellectuals of the age. Features substantial new translations of the most important passages from across Hamann's writings, some of which have never been translated into English. Examines Hamann's highly original views on a range of topics including faith, reason, revelation, Christianity, biblical exegesis, Socrates, theological aesthetics, language, sexuality, religion, politics and the relationship between Judaism and Christianity. Presents Hamann as the founding father of a distinctly post-modern, post-secular theology and as such, as an alternative to the post-modern triumvirate of Nietzsche, Heidegger and Derrida. Considers Hamann's work as a touchstone of modern Jewish-Christian dialogue in view of debates with his friend Moses Mendelssohn. Explores Hamann's role as the visionary founder of a metacritical movement that radically calls into question the basic principles of modern secular reason and thus reprises the debate between those defending Hamann's views and those labeling him the black sheep of the Enlightenment. Spectres of False Divinity Thomas Anand

Holden, 2010-03-11. Thomas Holden presents a historical and critical interpretation of Hume's rejection of the existence of a deity with moral attributes. Hume's moral atheism is a central plank both of his naturalistic agenda in metaphysics and his secularizing program in moral theory. It threatens to rule out any religion that would make claims on moral practice.

Facets of Russian Irrationalism between Art and Life, 2016-04-08. Russia is an enigmatic, mysterious country situated between East and West, not only spatially but also mentally. Or so it is traditionally perceived in Western Europe and the Anglophone world at large. One of the distinctive features of Russian culture is its irrationalism, which revealed itself diversely
