Mascia-Lees, 2011-03-29 A Companion to the Anthropology of the Body and Embodiment offers original essays that examine historical and contemporary approaches to conceptualizations of the body In this ground breaking work on the body and embodiment the latest scholarship from anthropology and related social science fields is presented providing new insights on body politics and the experience of the body Original chapters cover historical and contemporary approaches and highlight new research frameworks Reflects the increasing importance of embodiment and its ethnographic contexts within anthropology Highlights the increasing emphasis on examining the production of scientific technological and medical expertise in studying bodies and embodiment

Music and Marx Regula Burckhardt Qureshi, 2013-11-05 Well known contributors analyze the ways in which Marxist thought enters into music discourse Exploring everything from Marxism in hip hop to feudal properties of Hindustani music to revolutionary music of Central America the essays in this book find surprising paradigm shifting revelations This book will revolutionize the way music production and consumption is viewed First published in 2002

Greek and Roman Classics in the British Struggle for Social Reform Henry Stead, Edith Hall, 2015-06-18 Greek and Roman Classics in the British Struggle for Social Reform presents an original and carefully argued case for the importance of classical ideas education and self education in the personal development and activities of British social reformers in the 19th and first six decades of the 20th century Usually drawn from the lower echelons of the middle class and the most aspirational artisanal and working class circles the prominent reformers revolutionaries feminists and educationalists of this era far from regarding education in Latin and Greek as the preserve of the upper classes and inherently reactionary were consistently inspired by the Mediterranean Classics and contested the monopoly on access to them often claimed by the wealthy and aristocratic elite The essays several of which draw on previously neglected and unpublished sources cover literary figures Coleridge the Cockney Classicist poets including Keats and Dickens different cultural media burlesque theatre body building banner art poetry journalism and fiction topics in social reform the desirability of revolution suffrage poverty social exclusion women s rights healthcare eugenics town planning race relations and workers education as well as political affiliations and agencies Chartists Trade Unions the WEA political parties including the Fabians the Communist Party of Great Britain and the Labour Party The sixteen essays in this volume restore to the history of British Classics some of the subject s ideological complexity and instrumentality in social progress a past which is badly needed in the current debates over the future of the discipline Contributors include specialists in English Literature History Classics and Art

Shakespeare and Impure Aesthetics Hugh Grady, 2009-08-13 Shakespeare and Impure Aesthetics explores ideas about art implicit in Shakespeare s plays and defines specific Shakespearean aesthetic practices in his use of desire death and mourning as resources for art Hugh Grady draws on a tradition of aesthetic theorists who understand art as always formed in a specific historical moment but as also distanced from its context through its form and Utopian projections Grady sees A Midsummer Night s Dream Timon of Athens Hamlet and Romeo and Juliet as displaying these qualities showing aesthetic theory s usefulness for close readings of the plays The book argues that such social minded impure aesthetics can revitalize the political impulses of the new historicism while opening up a new aesthetic dimension in the current discussion of Shakespeare

A New Economic Theory of Public Support for the Arts Arnaldo Barone, 2015-12-14 Should the arts receive public support Can the arts survive in a modern capitalist society Can economics shed light on the nature of public support and whether there is a rationale for public intervention This book undertakes to examine these questions as it explores the ways government and public resources are used to support the arts This book applies a Veblenian approach to understanding economic development to investigate public support for the arts in an effort to determine whether this approach can elucidate economic rationales for public support Divided into three parts the first provides basic information on public support for the arts by surveying support in the United States and Australia Part two includes a neoclassical overview of the topic while part three presents Veblen s ideas on economic development This book will be of interests to researchers concerned with cultural and institutional economics as well as political economy

Light and Photomedia Jai McKenzie, 2020-09-02 Light and Photomedia proposes that regardless of technological change the history and future of photomedia is essentially connected to light It is a fundamental property of photomedia binding with space and time to form and inform new explicitly light based structures and experiences Jai McKenzie identifies light space time structures throughout the history of photomedia from the early image machines through analogue and digital image machines to the present day She proposes that they will continue to develop in the future and takes us to future image machines of the year 2039 With the use of the theories of Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard and Vilem Flusser featuring artists including Henri Cartier Bresson Nam June Paik Yves Klein Eadweard Muybridge Martha Rosler Cindy Sherman and Michael Snow as well as their photographic images Light and Photomedia places the reader in a new history and future which although mostly overlooked by the canon of photomedia theory is an essential line of enquiry for contemporary thinking and dialogue in photography

Modernism's History Bernard Smith, 1998 Encompassing movements from post impressionism to post modernism eminent and widely published art historian Bernard Smith has written a sweeping history a reformulation of art history in the twentieth century

Literature and class Andrew Hadfield, 2021-08-24 This book explores the intimate relationship between literature and class in England and later Britain from the Peasants Revolt at the end of the fourteenth century to the impact of the French Revolution at the end of the eighteenth century and beginning of the nineteenth The book argues throughout that class cannot be seen as a modern phenomenon that occurred after the Industrial revolution but that class divisions and relations have always structured societies and that it makes sense to assume a historical continuity The book explores a number of themes relating to class class consciousness class conflict commercialisation servitude rebellion gender relations and colonisation After outlining the history of class relations five chapters explore the ways in which social class consciously and unconsciously influenced a series of writers Chaucer Shakespeare Behn Rochester Defoe Duck Richardson Burney Blake and Wordsworth

The Cameroonian Novel of English Expression. An Introduction S. A. Ambanasom, 2009 In this eclectic and compelling book Ambanasom sets out to achieve three primary objectives to introduce the reader to the extensive body of Cameroonian novels in English to re examine the distorting and limiting criteria upon which the critical assessment of the Cameroonian novel in English has so far been based and to bridge the widening chasm between literary theory and actual critical practice To achieve these objectives Ambanasom begins by elaborating an alternative and flexible theoretical framework which he christens the Socio Artistic Approach and which according to him is concerned with both a text s thematic moral cultural or ideological issues on the one hand and its central literary analysis on the other He then proceeds to use this new critical framework to examine twenty seven major Cameroonian novels in English

The Stories of Jazz Mario Dunkel, 2021-09-22 New Orleans jazz Dixieland Chicago jazz swing bebop cool jazz hard bop and free jazz up until today the history of jazz is told as a tradition consisting of fixed components including a succession of jazz styles How did this construction of music history emerge What were the alternative perspectives And why did the narrative of a fixed tradition catch on In this study Mario Dunkel examines narratives of jazz history from the beginnings of jazz until the late 1950s According to Dunkel the jazz tradition is simultaneously an attempt to approach historical reality and the product of competition between different narratives and cultural myths From the middlebrow culture of the 1920s to the New Deal the African American civil rights movement and the role of the U S in the Cold War Dunkel shows in detail how the jazz tradition as a global narrative of the twentieth century is intertwined with greater social and cultural developments

Marx at the Movies Lars Kristensen, 2014-09-09 Marx and the Moving Image approaches cinema from a Marxist perspective It argues that the supposed end of history marked by the comprehensive triumph of capitalism and the end of cinema calls for revisiting Marx's writings in order to analyse film theories histories and practices Theory for Ethnomusicology Ruth M. Stone, 2015-07-14 For courses in ethnomusicological theory This book covers ethnomusicological theory exploring some of the underpinnings of different approaches and analyzing differences and commonalities in these orientations This text addresses how ethnomusicologists have used and applied these theories in ethnographic research

Hugh MacDiarmid's Epic Poetry Alan Riach, 2019-08-07 A collection of Hugh MacDiarmid's poetry John Donne and Baroque Allegory Hugh Grady, 2017-08-10 John Donne has been one of the most controversial poets in the history of English literature his complexity and intellectualism provoking both praise and censure In this major re-assessment of Donne's poetry Hugh Grady argues that his work can be newly appreciated in our own era through Walter Benjamin's theory of baroque allegory Providing close readings of The Anniversaries The Songs and Sonnets and selected other lyrics this study reveals Donne as being immersed in the aesthetic of fragmentation that define both the baroque and the postmodernist aesthetics of today Synthesizing cultural criticism and formalist analysis Grady illuminates Donne afresh as a great poet for our own historical moment The Cultural Front Michael Denning, 1998 As garment workers longshoremen autoworkers sharecroppers and clerks took to the streets striking and organizing unions in the midst of the Depression artists writers and filmmakers joined the insurgent social movement by creating a cultural front Disney cartoonists walked picket lines and Billie Holiday sang Strange Fruit at the left wing cabaret Caf Society Duke Ellington produced a radical musical Jump for Joy New York garment workers staged the legendary Broadway revue Pins and Needles and Orson Welles and his Mercury players took their labor operas and anti fascist Shakespeare to Hollywood and made Citizen Kane A major reassessment of US cultural history The Cultural Front is a vivid mural of this extraordinary upheaval which reshaped American culture in the twentieth century Seeing and Consciousness Gen Doy, 2020-08-20 Through its provocative examination of feminist and Marxist approaches to women's art and female representations this book challenges the widespread belief that Marxism has nothing valuable to contribute to women's studies The author argues that from the French Revolution through to the present gender and class have shaped visual imagery She shows how Marxist theory can function to question some of the premises of feminist art histories and to provide a more accurate understanding of the meanings of visual imagery
