Dissociation and Wholeness in Patrick White's Fiction Laurence Steven, 1989-08-23 Most studies of Patrick White's fiction are devoted to elucidating archetypal patterns symbolic configurations and thematic preoccupations and generally to praising the way White's fictional elements combine to form a religious mystical worldview Few have questioned this critical approach to White fewer still have questioned White's vision itself Yet according to the author questioning is in order for Patrick White is a man divided One part of him strives for permanence for the ideal in a world he knows is contingent and temporal a world that will undermine his striving This leads him as a novelist to devalue human life and to impose arbitrary symbolic resolutions on his novels This has been the focus of most critics But there is another side a part of White that strains away from the dualism of idealism versus despair and towards a vital wholeness that can be found not in a world beyond the one we live in but in human relationships It is this side of Patrick White argues Laurence Steven that is the source of his genuine power as a novelist An important challenge for the critic is to develop an ability to see within the restrictive compass White's symbolic designs impose on the novels the new shoots as D H Lawrence would have it which indicate new life new creativity and which point towards a wholeness which human beings can embrace as their own

Introduction Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss, 1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White's fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979

Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White's poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White's world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm Patrick

Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians. The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects. The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngannawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991. The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter. We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB. Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostoja Kotkowski was born in Poland. Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney. Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953. Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects. Politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage. Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography.

The ALS Guide to Australian Writers Martin Duwell, Laurie Hergenhan, 1992. Alphabetically organised chronological listing of the primary works of each author as well as selected critical biographical and historical articles and reviews and interviews. Material is drawn from the series Annual Bibliographies of Studies in Australian Literature published in Australian Literary Studies between 1964 and 1991.

German Images in Australian Literature from the 1940s to the 1980s Irmtraud Petersson, 1990. This cross cultural study examines German Australian relations by tracing patterns of representation in Australian writing. The imagological approach enables comparisons to be made among a wide range of texts and of authors as diverse as Martin Boyd Dymphna Cusack Thomas Keneally David Martin E O Schlunke Patrick White. The most common German images and stereotypes found are those associated with rural environment and romantic imagination on the one hand and with savagery and barbarity represented by Nazism on the other. The significance of such images often links up with Australian perception of the Old World and its cultural legacy thus being part of the process of Australian self definition and self understanding.

Department of Printed Books, 1969 Victorian Year-book , 1962 Writing the Nation Cynthia Vanden Driesen, 2009. The time for new approaches to White's work is overdue. Central to the present study are Edward Said's ideas about the role of the intellectual and the writer of speaking truth to power and also the importance of tracing the affiliations of a text and its embeddedness in the world. This approach is not incompatible with Jung's theory of the great artist and his capacity to answer the deep seated psychic needs of his people White's work has contributed in many different ways to the writing of the nation The spiritual needs of a young nation such as Australia must also comprehend its continual urge towards self definition Explored here is one important aspect of that challenge white Australia's dealings with the indigenous people of the land tracing the significance of the Aboriginal presence in three texts selected from the oeuvre of Patrick White Voss 1957 Riders in the Chariot 1961 and A Fringe of Leaves 1976 Each of these texts interrogates European culture's denigration of the non European Other as embedded in the discourse of orientalism One central merit of White's commanding perspective is the constant close attention he pays to European hubris and to the paramount autonomy of indigenous culture There is evidence even of a project which can be articulated as a search for the possibility of white indigeneity the potential for the white settler's belonging within the land as does the indigene Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976 NTA UGC NET/JRF English (Paper I & II) | Teaching and Research Aptitude | 1500+ Solved Questions [10 Full-length Mock Tests] EduGorilla Prep Experts,2022-08-03 Best Selling Book for UGC NET English Exam with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the NTA Compare your performance with other students using Smart Answer Sheets in EduGorilla's UGC NET English Exam Practice Kit UGC NET English Exam Preparation Kit comes with 10 Full length Mock Tests with the best quality content Increase your chances of selection by 14X UGC NET English Exam Prep Kit comes with well structured and 100% detailed solutions for all the questions Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts
