Revolution 4.0 such as greater data availability and the increasing popularity of the Internet governments, firms and people are utilizing data especially big data to improve their decision making, boost productivity, understand citizens and or customers needs and behaviours, meet a greater variety of demands and many others benefits. It is undeniable that the data driven economy features powerful economies of scale, economies of scope, network externalities in many sectors and pervasive information asymmetry. Businesses globally are experiencing a significant increase in digitalization leading to a surge in data volumes and emphasizing the need for enterprises to prioritize data driven approaches. Data is becoming a crucial company asset and its value relies on effectively utilizing it to produce actionable insights for strategic decision making. In addition to the challenges that businesses are facing in the data driven economy over the past few years, the world has been gripped with rising uncertainties and significant challenges such as the COVID-19 pandemic, the Russia-Ukraine or the Israel-Hamas conflicts. These issues coupled with current lingering problems such as climate change do pose significant threats to economies and companies around the world. In response to these challenges, governments and firms have adopted sustainability oriented approaches such as the digitalization and or digital transformation of business activities, the pursuit of sustainable development goals (SDGs) or the adoption of Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices. In the context of coupling challenges as mentioned above, it is essential to discuss the solutions that businesses should take to be resilient in uncertain contexts and achieve sustainable development. Thus ICECH2024 aims to provide a forum for academics and professionals to share research findings, experiences and knowledge with respect to the craft implementation and effects of sustainable strategies in a data driven global economy. The ICECH2024 Conference will focus on but not limited to Asia Pacific nations. We welcome submissions in the following areas: Economics, Business Law, Management, Finance and Banking, Innovation and Technology, Accounting and Auditing.

The abstracts detail the questions addressed, the analytical methods used, the findings to date, and their policy implications. Each abstract identifies the expected completion date of each project, the research team, and reports or publications produced.

Corporate Governance Sabri Boubaker, Bang Dang Nguyen, Duc Khuong Nguyen, 2012-12-18. The current crisis has rocked the financial system worldwide and has cast doubt on the effectiveness of the existing regulatory regime. Thousands of firms have gone bankrupt and many financial institutions were bailed out by governments. The effects of the crisis have shaken emerging and developing markets alike and have not spared neither small nor large businesses. Many scholars and practitioners attribute the roots of the crisis to failures and weaknesses in the way corporate governance has been practiced.
