Shewa, Menilek and the Ethiopian Empire R. H. Kofi Darkwah, 1978 A History of Modern Ethiopia, 1855-1991

Bahru Zewde, 2002-03-17 Bounded by Sudan to the west and north Kenya to the south Somalia to the southeast and Eritrea and Djibouti to the northeast Ethiopia is a pivotal country in the geopolitics of the region Yet it is important to understand this ancient and often splintered country in its own right In A History of Modern Ethiopia Bahru Zewde one of Ethiopia's leading historians provides a compact and comprehensive history of his country particularly the last two centuries Of importance to historians political scientists journalists and Africanists alike Bahru's A History of Modern Ethiopia now with additional material taking it up to the last decade will be the preeminent overview of present day Ethiopia A History of Addis Ababa from Its Foundation in 1886 to 1910 Peter P. Garretson, 1974 This thesis traces aspects of the political economic and religious history of Addis Ababa from 1886 to 1910 It is based largely on documentary material both Ethiopian and European but also depends on oral information As a city it was unique in Africa because of the absence of an imposed European direction of its development and as a result it grew ad hoc influenced by both Ethiopian and foreign concepts of an urban community From the beginnings Emperor Menilek completely dominated the political and administrative machinery of the capital but during his illnesses many of his responsibilities were perforce delegated to his closest associates who exercised their powers largely through the organisation of the Imperial Palace The bureaucracy became increasingly civilian in its personnel rather than military especially after the Battle of Adwa Furthermore since Addis Ababa was also the capital of the empire the city and its administrators played not only a local but also an imperial role The economic influence of the capital was even more pronounced where again the Emperor was more important than any other individual in the land and under his watchful eye foreigners dominated the import and export trade while Christians wrested the overall control of trade in the Empire from the Muslims Yet evangelically the church was rarely very energetic in the capital although its influence was pervasive While many historians have seen Menilek's reign as a period of significant innovation and modernisation this thesis regards that as an exaggerated claim For when closely examined the modernisation of even the capital was never very impressive although it was the acknowledged centre of foreign influence Nonetheless the capital did show itself to be the main point for the diffusion of the few modernisations that were introduced into the country from the 1880s to 1910 Interpreting the Ethiopian Revolution Etana H. Dinka, 2025-10-16 Fifty years after the 1974 Ethiopian revolution Etana H Dinka brings together a who's who of modern Ethiopian studies in order to offer this long overdue analysis of the revolution and its legacies With contributions both from seasoned academics many of whom wrote about the revolution as it developed and from representatives of a younger generation this six part collection offers new insights not only into the revolution itself but also into issues such as the Red Terror the EPRDF revolution of 1991 and Abiy Ahmed's repositioning of Ethiopia after 2018 Such wide ranging analyses cumulatively cast Ethiopia's three successive post revolution regimes not as separate entities but rather as successive attempts to fulfil the promise of the revolution surrounding issues such as ethnicity the nationalities question economic development and the land tenure question In developing this model the collection captures the defining developments and issues in Ethiopia the Horn and the Red Sea region over the past fifty years and it speaks directly to a global body of knowledge about revolutions state making projects and empires and warfare and military interventions in politics A unique collection that expands the historical revolutionary analyses of Ethiopian politics and society to the present in order to suggest new ways of ensuring social economic and environmental justice for all this book is a must read for researchers and upper level students interested in Ethiopia the Horn of Africa African Studies and revolutionary politics and land economics in general The Economics of the Indian Ocean Slave Trade in the Nineteenth Century William Gervase Clarence-Smith,2013-12-16 First Published in 1989 Well over a million slaves were exported from Indian Ocean and Red Sea ports in Eastern Africa during the nineteenth century and millions more were shifted around the interior of the continent and along the coast of East Africa And yet we still know remarkably little about this great movement of people particularly from an economic point of view This is a collection of twelve essays looking at the economics of the Indian Ocean and the Red Sea Slave trades of the nineteenth century Black Marxism Cedric J. Robinson,2005-10-12 In this ambitious work first published in 1983 Cedric Robinson demonstrates that efforts to understand black people s history of resistance solely through the prism of Marxist theory are incomplete and inaccurate Marxist analyses tend to presuppose European models of history and experience that downplay the significance of black people and black communities as agents of change and resistance Black radicalism must be linked to the traditions of Africa and the unique experiences of blacks on western continents Robinson argues and any analyses of African American history need to acknowledge this To illustrate his argument Robinson traces the emergence of Marxist ideology in Europe the resistance by blacks in historically oppressive environments and the influence of both of these traditions on such important twentieth century black radical thinkers as W E B Du Bois C L R James and Richard Wright Ethiopian Warriorhood Tsehai Berhane-Selassie,2018 The history of the often overlooked chewa Ethiopian warriors and their crucial role in defending their homeland against invasion as well as their strong influence on political identity and the social infrastructure Islam in Nineteenth-Century Wallo, Ethiopia Hussein Ahmed,2021-10-01 While presenting an historical account of the internal dynamics of Islam in Wallo Ethiopia with particular emphasis on the modes of its introduction and dissemination and on its relationship with the Ethiopian state and regional power structure this book describes the background to and manifestations of the revival and consolidation of Islam in the region in the nineteenth century by assessing the role of Muslim scholars traders and chiefs in that process It also traces the origin of the tradition of Islamic renewal and reform and analyzes the response of Wallo Muslim religious intellectuals to the attempt of the Ethiopian Christian monarchs of the period to bring about the political unification of the kingdom by imposing a policy of religious coercion on the Muslims of Wallo Based largely on hitherto untapped oral and written indigenous sources and supplemented by external archival and documentary evidence the study is aimed at redressing the historiographical and interpretive imbalance embedded in the scholarly institutional and popular perceptions on Islam in Ethiopia The Oromo and the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia Mohammed Hassen, 2015 First full length history of the Oromo 1300 1700 explains their key part in the medieval Christian kingdom and demonstrates their importance in shaping Ethiopian history The Southern Marches of Imperial Ethiopia Donald Donham, Wendy James, 1986 This international collection of essays offers a unique approach to the understanding of imperial Ethiopia out of which the present state was created by the 1974 revolution After the 1880s Abyssinia under Menilek II expanded its ancient heartland to incorporate vast new territories to the south Here for the first time these regions are treated as an integral part of the empire The book opens with an interpretation of nineteenth century Abyssinia as an African political economy rather than as a variant on European feudalism and with an account of the north s impact on peoples of the new south Case studies from the southern regions follow four by historians and four by anthropologists each examining aspects of the relationship between imperial rule and local society In revealing the region s diversity and the relationship of the periphery to the centre the volume illuminates some of the problems faced by post revolutionary Ethiopia

Proceedings of the XVth International Conference of Ethiopian Studies, Hamburg, July 20-25, 2003 Siegbert Uhlig, 2006 The XVth International Conference of Ethiopian Studies took place in Hamburg in July 2003 More than 400 scientists from over 25 countries participated 130 contributions from the program were selected for this volume They are mostly written in English and deal on the regions of Ethiopia and Eritrea and cover the span from the 4th Century to the present The volume is divided into the following chapters Anthropology 20 Articles History 25 Arts 10 Literature and Philology 10 Religion 5 Languages and Linguistics 25 Law and Politics 10 Environmental Economic and Educational Issues 10 Women and Slavery: Africa, the Indian Ocean world, and the medieval north Atlantic Gwyn Campbell, Suzanne Miers, Joseph Calder Miller, 2007 The particular experience of enslaved women across different cultures and many different eras is the focus of this work General History of Africa International Scientific Committee for the drafting of a General History of Africa, 1989-12-31 One of UNESCO s most important publishing projects in the last thirty years the General History of Africa marks a major breakthrough in the recognition of Africa s cultural heritage Offering an internal perspective of Africa the eight volume work provides a comprehensive approach to the history of ideas civilizations societies and institutions of African history The volumes also discuss historical relationships among Africans as well as multilateral interactions with other cultures and continents Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia Donald Crummey, 2000 Land and Society in the Christian Kingdom of Ethiopia offers an original perspective on how the rulers of Ethiopia one of the great subcenters of agricultural innovation and development used land to support their dominion Crummey draws on all the surviving documents pertaining to the holding and granting of agricultural land in the Ethiopian highlands from the thirteenth to the twentieth century By examining how social relations affected the conditions for economic production and how people of power drew on the wealth created by society's basic producers he provides new insight into how ordinary farming and herding folk were incorporated into and affected by the institutions that ruled them UNESCO General History of Africa, Vol. VI J. Etefa, 2012-04-09 This book analyzes the development of indigenous religious commercial and political institutions among the Oromo mainly during the relatively peaceful two centuries in its history from 1704 to 1882 The largest ethnic group in East Africa the Oromo promoted peace cultural assimilation and ethnic integration Africana Journal, 1976 The Mahdi and Africa John D Grainger, 2025-11-30 The story of the Mahdi of Sudan is generally related from the British point of view though it was more an African event The Mahdi's uprising was the latest in a series of Islamic rebellions and wars which began in the eighteenth century It also had a profound effect on the rest of North and East Africa destroying the Egyptian Empire provoking Ethiopia into a new unification which allowed it to successfully resist the Mahdists the Egyptians and the Italians it brought British forces forward from the East African coast as far as Uganda for fear that some European power would seize the sources of the Nile and block the river's flow Eventually but only after several humiliating defeats the Mahdist state was overthrown by a British invasion led by Kitchener and participated in by Churchill this also produced a difficult confrontation at Fashoda between the British conquerors and a French expedition sparking a European crisis The author sets the Mahdist war in the wider context of Africa and Islam and in the context of the development of African states but also with a glance forward to the present day where the most important development in Africa is the extensive Islamic uprising which is replicating that of the nineteenth century African Military History John Lamphear, 2017-05-15 This collection of essays on pre colonial sub Saharan African military history is drawn from a number of academic journals and includes some which are considered milestones in African historiographical discourse as well as others which while lesser known provide remarkable insight into the unique nature of African military history Selections were made so as to produce an introduction to the understudied field of pre colonial African military history that will be useful to specialists and non specialists alike The volume also contains an introduction which presents one of the first significant reviews of pre colonial African military historiography ever attempted Unconquered States H. E. Chehabi, David Motadel, 2024-11-25 In the heyday of empire most of the world was ruled directly or indirectly by the European powers Unconquered States explores the struggles for sovereignty of the few nominally independent non Western states in the imperial age It examines the ways in which countries such as China Ethiopia Japan the Ottoman Empire Persia and Siam managed to keep European imperialism at bay whereas others such as Hawai i Korea Madagascar Morocco and Tonga long struggled but ultimately failed to maintain their sovereignty The chapters in this book address four major aspects of the relations these countries had with the Western imperial powers armed conflict and military reform unequal treaties and capitulations diplomatic encounters and royal diplomacy Bringing together scholars from five continents this book provides the first comprehensive global history of the engagement of the independent non European states with the European empires reshaping our understanding of sovereignty territoriality and hierarchy in the modern world order
