Starting School Liz Brooker, 2002-04-16 This is a unique portrait of a group of working class families whose 4 year old children start school on the cusp of the millenium in urban Britain It is a brilliant analysis of ways in which parents children and teachers strive to cross cultural and linguistic boundaries to come to a common understanding of school Beautifully written it is essential reading for all involved in the education of young children Eve Gregory Professor of Language and Culture in Education Goldsmiths University of London This book will challenge and support practitioners in their quest to improve early childhood practice The use of theory is friendly and the real life examples of the experiences of young children and their parents really bring home to the reader the experience of inequality Readers will rarely find a book which expresses the complexity of educational experience in such an accessible form This is a valuable book for every level of early years training Iram Siraj Blatchford Professor of Early Childhood Education Institute of Education University of London How does the home experience of children from poor and ethnic minority communities influence their adaptation to school How does the traditional child centred and progressive pedagogy of early years classrooms meet the needs of children from culturally diverse backgrounds Starting School seeks to address these key questions by tracing the learning experiences of individual children from a poor inner urban neighbourhood half of them from Bangladeshi families as they acquire the knowledge appropriate to their home culture and then take this knowledge to their reception class The book highlights the small differences in family life in parenting practices in perspectives on childhood and in beliefs about work and play which make a big difference to children s adaptations to school In other words it shows how children succeed and fail from their early days at school It shows too how the good intentions of good teachers can sometimes allow children from certain backgrounds to become disaffected and learn to fail and it suggests ways of working with children from working class and multicultural families which may help both children and parents to gain a better understanding of school learning in the UK

The Top Books of the Year Maths Made Easy Book 1 Age 3 5 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Maths Made Easy Book 1 Age 3 5 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Maths Made Easy Book 1 Age 3 5 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
