The Temporal Mechanics of the Fourth Gospel Douglas Estes,2008-01-01 By redefining narrative temporality in light of modern physics this book advances a unique and innovative approach to the deep seated temporalities within the Gospel of John and challenges the implicit assumptions of textual brokenness that run throughout Johannine scholarship

Strategies of Reflexivisation and the Meaning of Predicates Andreas Frühwirth,2003 Reflexive situations play a vital role in people s lives and are consequently often encoded by specific grammatical devices Many languages have more than one such strategy of reflexivisation at their disposal The present study provides substantial evidence for its major claim that the preference for a particular strategy is motivated by that meaning component of the predicate which may be called directedness A large number of data from English German and French are analysed contrastively and in great detail The relevance of predicate directedness is also largely confirmed by data from related areas of reflexivity Two implicational hierarchies emerge a scale of directedness and a hierarchy among German French and English regarding the weight of preferred reflexive strategies

Mirror Images Klára Hůrková,2000 The early plays by V clav Havel and Tom Stoppard show a number of important parallels In the present study six plays by Havel and Stoppard are regarded as works which satirize in different ways the totalitarian system The comparison shows that the treatment of the political themes and the dramatic devices the two playwrights use can be described as mirror images

come to be viewed as a basic human strategy for coming to terms with time process and change However the very predominance of narrative as a focus of interest across multiple disciplines makes it imperative for scholars teachers and students to have access to a comprehensive reference resource

Events, States and Times Daniel Altshuler,2016 This monograph investigates the temporal interpretation of narrative discourse in two parts The theme of the first part is narrative progression It begins with a case study of the adverb now and its interaction with the meaning of tense The case study motivates an ontological distinction between events states and times and proposes that now seeks a prominent state that holds throughout the time described by the tense Building on prior research prominence is shown to be influenced by principles of discourse coherence and two coherence principles NARRATION and RESULT are given a formally explicit characterization The key innovation is a new method for testing the definitional adequacy of NARRATION and RESULT namely by an abductive argument This contribution opens a new way of thinking about how eventive and stative descriptions contribute to the perceived narrative progression in a discourse The theme of the second part of the monograph is the semantics and pragmatics of tense A key innovation is that the present and past tenses are treated as scalar alternatives a view that is motivated by adopting a particular hypothesis concerning stative predication The proposed analysis accounts for tense in both matrix clauses and in complements of propositional attitudes where the notorious double access reading arises This reading is explored as part of a corpus study that provides a glimpse of how tense semantics interacts with Gricean principles and at issueness Several cross linguistic predictions of the analysis are considered including their consequences for the Sequence of Tense phenomenon and the Upper Limit Constraint Finally a hypothesis is provided about how tense meanings compose with temporal adverbs and verb phrases Two influential analysis of viewpoint aspect are then compared in light of the hypothesis The monograph is directed at graduate students and researchers in semantics pragmatics an
