Nutritional Adaptation to New Life-Styles J. C. Somogyi, E. H. Koskinen, 1990-06-13 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1990 Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Cumulated Index Medicus, 1990 Healthful Quantity Baking Maureen Egan, Susan Davis Allen, 1991-11-29 In today's health conscious society it offers delicious and healthy alternatives to traditional scratch baked products without utilizing expensive sugar and fat substitutes or artificial ingredients. A multitude of healthful recipes including classic desserts and pastries have been reformulated for lower fat, sugar, and sodium content and higher fiber content. Along with a wealth of illustrations and tables to aid readers in grasping the theoretical and practical ideas presented, the nutritional benefits of each recipe can be found listed in the appendix. Sexual Lifestyle in the Twentieth Century E. Haavio-Mannila, O. Kontula, A. Rotkirch, 2001-12-17 This study presents us with an insightful sociological exploration of sexual practice within five different types of relationship and from varying perspectives of gender and age. Lifelong love, serial loves, searching, devitalized relations, and parallel relations. Based on the accounts of almost two hundred adults in Finland, these real life experiences reflect the way in which sexuality has evolved both within the lifetime of the individual and over generations. Also examined is the impact of major historical events on love and sexual relationships from war to economic crisis and that of the spirit of the age from the emancipatory zeal of the 1960s to the new age holistic ideals in the 1980s. Nutrition and Diet Therapy Reference Dictionary Rosalinda T. Laguna, Virginia S. Claudio, 2012-12-06 This new fourth edition of the Nutrition and Diet Therapy Reference Dictionary covers all aspects of nutrition including assessment of drug-nutrient interactions, laboratory interpretations, enteral and parenteral nutrition, support community and public health nutrition programs, nutrition throughout the life cycle, and such topics as nutrition and the immune system, nutrition labeling, chemical dependency, AIDS, and organ transplantation. Special features of the Dictionary are entries on 130 different diets listed under D, nutrition therapy for more than 350 disorders including inborn errors of metabolism, 145 drugs and their effects on nutrition, and more than 150 nutritional products with their main uses and composition. Of particular importance are topics of public health concerns for the 1990s and the year 2000 and dietary recommendations for prevention of major degenerative diseases such as obesity, coronary heart disease, hypertension, diabetes mellitus, and cancer. With more than 3000 carefully selected entries, the new Fourth Edition includes 380 new terms and more than 600 revised and expanded definitions. In choosing the words to be entered and defined, the authors used as their criterion the frequency of use or importance of a term in relation to nutrition. Definitions are cross-referenced to other word entries, and the materials found in the Appendix provide further details and information. All practitioners in the fields of nutrition and dietetics, as well as educators, students, and others interested in nutrition, will find this handy desk reference particularly useful. It is easy to use and provides instant access to nutrition information. Digestion, 1990 Understanding Consumers of Food Products

Lynn Frewer, Hans Van Trijp, 2006-12-22 In order for food businesses scientists and policy makers to develop successful products services and policies it is essential that they understand food consumers and how they decide which products to buy Food consumer behaviour is the result of various factors including the motivations of different consumers the attributes of specific foods and the environment in which food choices occur Recognising diversity between individual consumers different stages of life and different cultural contexts is increasingly important as markets become increasingly diverse and international The book begins with a comprehensive introduction and analysis of the key drivers of consumer food choices such as the environment and sensory product features Part two examines the role of consumers attitudes towards quality and marketing and their views on food preparation and technology Part three covers cultural and individual differences in food choice as well as addressing potentially influential factors such as age and gender Important topics such as public health and methods to change consumers preferences for unhealthy foods are discussed in part four The final section concludes with advice on developing coherent safety policies and the consumers responsibility for food production and consumption Understanding consumers of food products is a standard reference for all those in the food industry concerned with product development and regulation Develop an understanding of buyer behaviour to assist developing successful products Recognise the diversity between consumers and learn how to cater for their needs Covers cultural and individual differences in food choice

Food, the Body and the Self Deborah Lupton, 1996-03-11 In this wide ranging and thought provoking analysis of the sociocultural and personal meanings of food and eating Deborah Lupton explores the relationship between food and embodiment the emotions and subjectivity She includes discussion of the intertwining of food meaning and culture in the context of childhood and the family as well as the gendered social construction of foodstuffs food tastes dislikes and preferences the dining out experience spirituality and the civilized body She draws on diverse sources including representations of food and eating in film literature advertising gourmet magazines news reports and public health literature and her own empirical research into people s preferences memories experiences and emotional responses to food Food the Body and the Self s strong interdisciplinary approach incorporates discussion of the work of a number of major contemporary social and cultural theorists including Bourdieu Elias Kristeva Grosz Falk and Foucault
