Orientalism And The Postcolonial Predicament Perspectives On South Asia:

Orientalism and the Postcolonial Predicament Carol A. Breckenridge, Peter van der Veer, 1993 This book explores the ways in which colonial administrators constructed knowledge about the society and culture of India and the processes through which that knowledge has shaped past and present Indian reality Orientalism And The Postcolonial Predicament Veer Peter Van der, 1993 Across Cultural Borders Eckhardt Fuchs, Benedikt Stuchtey, 2002 This innovative work offers the first comprehensive transcultural history of historiography The contributors transcend a Eurocentric approach not only in terms of the individual historiographies they assess but also in the methodologies they use for comparative analysis Moving beyond the traditional national focus of historiography the book offers a genuinely comparative consideration of the commonalities and differences in writing history Distinguishing among distinct cultural identities the contributors consider the ways and means of intellectual transfers and assess the strength of local historiographical traditions as they are challenged from outside The essays explore the question of the utility and the limits of conceptions of modernism that apply Western theories of development to non Western cultures Warning against the dominant tendency in recent historiographies of non Western societies to define these predominantly in relation to Western thought the authors show the extent to which indigenous traditions have been overlooked The key question is how the triad of industrialization modernization and the historicization process which was decisive in the development of modern academic historiography also is valid beyond Europe Illustrating just how deeply suffused history writing is with European models the book offers a broad theoretical platform for exploring the value and necessity of a world historiography beyond Eurocentrism Subjects of modernity Saurabh Dube, 2017-01-20 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book thinks through modernity and its representations by exploring critical considerations of time and space Drawing on anthropology history and social theory it investigates the oppositions and enchantments the contradictions and contentions and the identities and ambivalences spawned under modernity Crucially it understands these antinomies not as errors but as constitutive elements of modern worlds The book questions routine portrayals of homogeneous time and antinomian blueprints of cultural space while acknowledging the production of time and space by social subjects Instead of assuming a straightforward singular trajectory for the phenomena it views modernity as involving checkered contingent and contended processes of meaning and power which have found heterogeneous historical elaborations over the past five centuries Bringing together past and present theory and narrative it sows the historical ethnographic and methodological deep into its critical procedures offering an innovative understanding of cultural identities and imaginatively exploring the relationship between history and anthropology Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies Sitta Reden, 2019-12-02 The notion of the Silk Road that the German geographer Ferdinand von Richthofen invented in the 19th century has lost attraction to scholars in light of large amounts of new evidence and new approaches The handbook suggests new conceptual and methodological tools for researching ancient economic exchange in a global perspective with a strong focus on recent debates on the nature of pre modern empires The interdisciplinary team of Chinese Indian and Graeco Roman historians archaeologists and anthropologists that has written this handbook compares different forms of economic development in agrarian and steppe regions in a period of accelerated empire formation during 300 BCE and 300 CE It investigates inter imperial zones and networks of exchange which were crucial for ancient Eurasian connections Volume I provides a comparative history of the most important empires forming in Northern Africa Europe and Asia between 300 BCE and 300 CE It surveys a wide range of evidence that can be brought to bear on economic development in these empires and takes stock of the ways academic traditions have shaped different understandings of economic and imperial development as well as Silk Road exchange in Russia China India and Western Graeco Roman history Handbook of Pragmatics Jan-Ola Östman, Jef Verschueren, 2020-11-20 This encyclopaedia of one of the major fields of language studies is a continuously updated source of state of the art information for anyone interested in language use The IPrA Handbook of Pragmatics provides easy access for scholars with widely divergent backgrounds but with convergent interests in the use and functioning of language to the different topics traditions and methods which together make up the field of pragmatics broadly conceived as the cognitive social and cultural study of language and communication i e the science of language use The Handbook of Pragmatics is a unique reference work for researchers which has been expanded and updated continuously with annual installments since 1995 Also available as Online Resource benjamins com online hop Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies From the Margins Brian Keith Axel, 2002-06-07 State of the art volume by the major voices in historical anthropology Colonial Collecting and Display Claire Wintle, 2013-05-01 In the late nineteenth century British travelers to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands compiled wide ranging collections of material culture for scientific instruction and personal satisfaction Colonial Collecting and Display follows the compelling history of a particular set of such objects tracing their physical and conceptual transformation from objects of indigenous use to accessioned objects in a museum collection in the south of England This first study dedicated to the historical collecting and display of the Islands material cultures develops a new analysis of colonial discourse using a material culture led approach to reconceptualize imperial relationships between Andamanese Nicobarese and British communities both in the Bay of Bengal and on British soil It critiques established conceptions of the act of collecting arguing for recognition of how indigenous makers and consumers impacted upon British collection practices and querying the notion of a homogenous British approach to material culture from the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Postcolonial Biblical Criticism Fernando F.

Segovia, Stephen D. Moore, 2006-12-14 Postcolonial studies has recently made significant inroads into biblical studies giving rise to numerous conference papers articles essays and books Postcolonial Biblical Criticism is the most in depth and multifaceted introduction to this emerging field to date It probes postcolonial biblical criticism from a number of different but interrelated angles in order to bring it into as sharp a focus as possible so that its promise and potential pitfalls can be better appreciated This volume carefully positions postcolonial biblical criticism in relation to other important political and theoretical currents in contemporary biblical studies feminism racial ethnic studies poststructuralism and Marxism

Alternating between hermeneutical and exegetical reflection the essays cumulatively isolate and evaluate the definitive features of postcolonial biblical criticism Such a mapping of postcolonial biblical criticism as a whole has never before been undertaken in such explicit and detailed terms The contributors include Roland Boer Laura E Donaldson David Jobling Tat siong Benny Liew Stephen D Moore and Fernando F Segovia The Return of the Galon King Maitrii Aung-Thwin, 2011

In late 1930 on a secluded mountain overlooking the rural paddy fields of British Burma a peasant leader named Saya San crowned himself King and inaugurated a series of uprisings that would later erupt into one of the largest anti colonial rebellions in Southeast Asian history Considered an imposter by the British a hero by nationalists and a prophet king by area studies specialists Saya San came to embody traditional Southeast Asia s encounter with European colonialism in his attempt to resurrect the lost throne of Burma The Return of the Galon King analyzes the legal origins of the Saya San story and reconsiders the facts upon which the basic narrative and interpretations of the rebellion are based Aung Thwin reveals how counter insurgency law produced and criminalized Burmese culture contributing to the way peasant resistance was recorded in the archives and understood by Southeast Asian scholars This interdisciplinary study reveals how colonial anthropologists lawyers and scholar administrators produced interpretations of Burmese culture that influenced contemporary notions of Southeast Asian resistance and protest It provides a fascinating case study of how history is treated by the law how history emerges in legal decisions and how the authority of the past is used to validate legal findings The Oxford Handbook of

Caste , 2023-10-31 Beginning with the 1990s the subject of caste has seen a profound increase in interest among scholars What was until then approached as a fossilized tradition of the ritual obsessed Hindus refusing to see the progressive spirits of the emerging world and studied as a branch of anthropology suddenly began to be seen as a complex reality deeply embedded in a range of institutions and social practices attracting scholars from a wide range of disciplines sociology political science history literature and even economics Underlying this opening of the subject of caste were many factors epistemic empirical and political Caste is no longer approached through the classical binaries of traditional and modern the East and the West or the closed and open systems of stratification With the growing consolidation of caste based identities among those ranked lower down in the hierarchy since the 1990s raising questions of citizenship and dignity the subject has acquired a new salience As the emerging research shows the realities of caste on the ground have always been diverse across regions often contested and ever changing This Handbook presents a wide range of essays written by authors representing diverse academic disciplines and perspectives bringing together the emerging trends in the research imaginations and lived realities of caste

Black Flesh Matters Vincent L. Wimbush,2022-03-18 These essays written over more than thirty years of Vincent L Wimbush s career as a scholar provide a response to the nearly universal persistent and sedimented modern world hyper signification of Black flesh always needing to be framed humiliated policed and dirtied Because Wimbush is a scholar of religion as culture having to do with social practices and their psycho politics as regimes of knowledge discourse formation and power relations his ex centric transdisciplinary interest in scriptures has been viewed in some circles as controversial Yet it is Wimbush s linkage of the modern hyper signification of Black flesh leading to racialization and racism especially anti Black racism to the scriptural as shorthand for discourse and relations of power that makes this work compelling Germany and the Imagined East

Lee M. Roberts, 2009-01-14 German speaking Europe is an array of images that have emerged from varied discourses about itself and its neighbors and Germany and the Imagined East revolves around the exchange of views on and in the vast construct called the East The world has been divided conceptually in countless ways but the works in this volume treat aspects of Germany as both part of and also separate from any perception of an eastern border From the former German Democratic Republic East Germany to sterreich whose name loses its eastern association in the English version Austria the East begins within the very world of the German language But it is also the expanse off to the right of Germany within which essays in this collection treat such political and cultural distinctions as former Yugoslavia Romania and Russia in Eastern Europe or Turkey and Persia in the Near East spreading through India to China and Japan in the Far East With a variety of perspectives on literature film philosophy architecture music and history these essays comprise a multidisciplinary collage that invites scholars from all departments to explore the wealth of insights German Studies has to offer on East West relations The Social Sciences in the Asian Century Carol Johnson, Vera Mackie, Tessa Morris-Suzuki, 2015-09-30 In this collection of essays we reflect on what it means to practise the social sciences in the twenty first century The book brings together leading social scientists from the Asia Pacific region We argue for the benefit of dialogue between the diverse theories and methods of social sciences in the region the role of the social sciences in addressing real world problems the need to transcend national boundaries in addressing regional problems and the challenges for an increasingly globalised higher education sector in the twenty first century The chapters are a combination of theoretical reflections and locally focused case studies of processes that are embedded in global dynamics and the changing geopolitics of knowledge In an increasingly connected world these reflections will be of global relevance
