Radios Great Comedies:

Radio Drama and Comedy Writers, 1928-1962 Ryan Ellett, 2017-11-02 More than 700 uncredited scriptwriters who created the memorable characters and thrilling stories of radio's Golden Age receive due recognition in this reference work. For some, radio was a stepping stone on the way to greater achievements in film or television; on the stage or in literature. For others, it was the culmination of a life spent writing newspaper copy. Established authors dabbled in radio as a new medium, while working writers saw it as another opportunity to earn a paycheck. When these men and women came to broadcasting, they crafted a body of work still appreciated by modern listeners.

The Great Movies III Roger Ebert, 2024-05-31 Roger Ebert has been writing film reviews for the Chicago Sun Times for over four decades now, and his biweekly essays on great movies have been appearing there since 1996. As Ebert noted in the introduction to the first collection of those pieces, "They are not the greatest films of all time because all lists of great movies are a foolish attempt to codify works which must stand alone. But it's fair to say if you want to take a tour of the landmarks of the first century of cinema, start here." Enter The Great Movies III, Ebert's third collection of essays on the crème de la crème of the silver screen, each one a model of critical appreciation and a blend of love and analysis that will send readers back to the films with a fresh set of eyes and renewed enthusiasm, or maybe even lead to a first-time viewing. From The Godfather Part II to Groundhog Day, from The Last Picture Show to Last Tango in Paris, the hundred pieces gathered here display a welcome balance between the familiar and the esoteric, spanning Hollywood blockbusters and hidden gems, independent works and foreign language films alike. Each essay draws on Ebert's vast knowledge of the cinema, its fascinating history, and its breadth of techniques, introducing newcomers to some of the most exceptional movies ever made while revealing new insights to connoisseurs as well. Named the most powerful pundit in America by Forbes magazine and a winner of the Pulitzer Prize, Roger Ebert is inarguably the most prominent and influential authority on the cinema today. The Great Movies III is sure to please his many fans and further enhance his reputation as America's most respected and trusted film critic.

From Radio to the Big Screen Hal Erickson, 2014-05-23 There was a time when American popular entertainment referred only to radio and motion pictures. With the coming of talking pictures, Hollywood cashed in on the success of big-time network radio by bringing several of the public's favorite broadcast personalities and programs to the screen. The results, though occasionally successful, often proved conclusively that some things are better heard than seen. Concentrating primarily on radio's Golden Age, 1926-1962, this lively history discusses the cinematic efforts of airwave stars Rudy Vallee, Amos 'n' Andy, Fred Allen, Joe Penner, Fibber McGee & Molly, Edgar Bergen, Lum Abner, and many more. Also analyzed are the movie versions of such radio series as The Shadow, Dr. Christian, and The Life of Riley. In addition, two recent films starring contemporary radio headliners, Howard Stern and Garrison Keillor, are given their due.
