Regional Security Ehtnicity And Governance:

   Regionalism and Regional Security in South Asia Zahid Shahab Ahmed,2016-04-08 Zahid Shahab Ahmed evaluates the progress of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation SAARC This study goes beyond economic integration to present a detailed appraisal of cooperation under the overarching themes of economic cooperation environmental security human welfare and cooperation in security matters According to the author SAARC is making progress in addressing the myriad of issues on its agenda The transition from agreements to actions and frequent interactions among the member states has boosted confidence The progress of SAARC is more evident in the less controversial areas of human security such as poverty alleviation health and safety human resources development and higher education Notwithstanding enthusiastic commitments reflected in agreements and action plans there is a gulf between rhetoric and implementation most notably in sensitive areas relating to traditional security In the light of the findings of this study the author proposes that greater cooperation in common human security areas has a potential to pave the way for a cooperation on issues of a contentious nature particularly terrorism   Understanding Security Practices in South Asia Monika Barthwal-Datta,2012-05-04 This book explores the ways in which non state actors NSAs in South Asia are involved in securitizing non traditional security challenges in the region at the sub state level South Asia is the epicentre of some of the most significant international security challenges today Yet the complexities of the region s security dynamics remain under researched While traditional security issues such as inter state war border disputes and the threat of nuclear devastation in South Asia remain high on the agendas of policy makers and academics both within and beyond the region scant attention has been paid to non traditional or new security challenges Drawing on various case studies this work offers an innovative analysis of how NSAs in South Asia are shaping security discourses in the region and tackling security challenges at the sub state level Through its critique of securitization theory the book calls for a new approach to studying security practices in South Asia one which considers NSAs as legitimate security actors This book will be of much interest to students of security studies Asian security Asian politics critical security studies and IR in general   Comparative Regional Security Governance Shaun Breslin,Stuart Croft,2013-03-01 This book seeks to understand the role of regions in the provision of security and insecurity practices across the globe Specialists with expertise in the regions they examine present eight case studies and analyses of the Americas Africa and the Middle East South and East Asia and Europe Discussing both The State and people in the context of security this book examines four categories inter state security transnational criminal practices the drugs trade human trafficking migration proliferation issues both nuclear and non nuclear and issues of domestic state collapse The book uses an inclusive definition of security to include traditional and non traditional conceptions and incorporates the use of force and the threat of the use of force as well as issues related to the integrity of peoples The chapters weave theory and case studies to provide a rich description of a variety of regional governance forms and where applicable the absence of them to move beyond regionalism to consider the key determining features of regional governance Comparative Regional Security Governance will be of interest to students and scholars of international security international relations and governance

A. Akindele,2003 New Architecture of Regional Security in Africa Usman A. Tar,Bashir Bala,2019-11-11 This book critically explores the emerging architecture of regional security in Africa with particular reference to counterterrorism and counterinsurgency in the Lake Chad Basin Region In New Architecture of Regional Security in Africa the contributors scholars policy makers and defense security practitioners from both within and outside Africa examine the evolution dynamics and working mechanisms for peace and security or emerging regional security architecture for regional security in the region The volume will be essential reading for all academics scholars and researchers in academia and NGOs with interests in counterinsurgency and counterterrorism related issues in the Lake Chad Basin region Additionally the volume will also be useful for students of counterinsurgency counterterrorism small wars terrorism and strategic studies and defense and security studies It will also provide invaluable reference material for policy practitioners working on the activities in the contemporary operating environment within the Lake Chad Basin region This book offers innovative perspectives on the emerging architecture for regional security in Africa with a focus on how member states of the Lake Chad Basin Commission are coping with the challenges of terrorism and insurgency Edited by Usman A Tar and Bashir Bala the volume is the first to critically document regional security in the Lake Chad Basin   The Oxford Handbook of International Security Alexandra Gheciu,William Curti Wohlforth,2018 This Oxford Handbook is the definitive volume on the state of international security and the academic field of security studies It provides a tour of the most innovative and exciting news areas of research as well as major developments in established lines of inquiry It presents a comprehensive portrait of an exciting field with a distinctively forward looking theme focusing on the question what does it mean to think about the future of international security The key assumption underpinning this volume is that all scholarly claims about international security both normative and positive have implications for the future By examining international security to extract implications for the future the volume provides clarity about the real meaning and practical implications for those involved in this field Yet contributions to this volume are not exclusively forecasts or prognostications and the volume reflects the fact that within the field of security studies there are diverse views on how to think about the future Readers will find in this volume some of the most influential mainstream positivist voices in the field of international security as well as some of the best known scholars representing various branches of critical thinking about security The topics covered in the Handbook range from conventional international security themes such as arms control alliances and Great Power politics to new security issues such as global health the roles of non state actors cyber security and the power of visual representations in international security The Oxford Handbooks of International Relations is a twelve volume set of reference books offering authoritative and innovative engagements with the principal sub fields of International Relations The series as a whole is under the General Editorship of Christian Reus Smith of the University of Queensland and Duncan Snidal of the University of Oxford with each volume edited by a distinguished pair of specialists in their respective fields The series both surveys the broad terrain of International Relations scholarship and reshapes it pushing each sub field in challenging new directions Following the example of the original Reus Smit and Snidal The Oxford Handbook of International Relations each volume is organized around a strong central thematic by a pair of scholars drawn from alternative perspectives reading its sub field in an entirely new way and pushing scholarship in challenging new directions   Region-building Ludger Kühnhardt,2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community   Governance and Border Security in Africa Celestine Oyom Bassey,Oshita O. Oshita,2010 The need therefore for effective governance through border security regimes arises from the intractable challenges of conflict management as a core objective of multilateral institutions and non governmental agencies in global governance Thus governance along the Frontier has come to be marked by density and complexity This density and complexity in frontier relations under score the disciplinary concern for border governance Book Jacket   Naval Constabulary Operations and Fisheries Governance Sean A. G. Andrews,2024-05-07 This book offers an analysis of naval constabulary operations in particular Australian fisheries patrols and challenges the widely accepted Anglo American school of maritime thought In the Indo Pacific fisheries and the activities of fishing boats are of increasing strategic importance in Australia s region Australia s Four Oceans Issues of overfishing population growth and climate change are placing growing pressure on fish as a resource and in doing so are making fisheries more significant and significant on a strategic as opposed to simply an economic or environmental level When combined with the growing use of fishing vessels as para naval forces it is clear that the activities of fishing vessels whether fishing or not fishing are matters of considerable strategic relevance This book illuminates contemporary seapower challenges explains and defines maritime security and examines and refines existing theory to advance a set of new or refined concepts to help frame the on water activities of constabulary operations reducing the possibility of on water miscalculation between states This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of naval studies and sea power maritime strategy maritime security and International Relations   Central Asia and Regional Security Mr P L Dash,Ms Anita Sengupta,Mr Murat M Bakhadirov,2014-02-15 While security concerns have assumed salience across the globe Afghanistan s proximity to Central Asia has meant that security or perceptions of insecurity dominate the strategic discourse in the region Issues that stand out include the challenges that the Central Asian states will face in terms of stability ethnic tensions radicalization of youth destabilization of commodity flows and energy security and the impact that these could have on Central Asian society However security cannot just be defined in terms of security at the borders It needs to be defined in cosmopolitan terms through an array of issues like movements across borders radicalism within states the sharing of water and various multilateral attempts at combating insecurity This volume is an attempt to focus on some of these issues that reflect on perceptions of security principally from Indian and Uzbek positions It examines shifts over the last two decades from debates on the geopolitical importance of the region from a great game perspective to the salience of new engagements within the international arena Global Migration and Ethnic Communities Naoki Yoshihara,2012 This book is a collection of essays on the critical subject of migration in a global context The book offers insights into the broad range of experiences of migrants in diverse settings It also examines multi layered local community issues that have emerged in the light of the increasing flow of people across the globe The key question informing the arguments in the book has to do with the relationship between nationality and citizenship Part I of the book looks at the situation of emigrant workers discussing the opportunities and problems they face in their experiences overseas Part II focuses on the transformation of ethnic communities painting a picture of various forms of migrants based on the constellation of such factors as safe and secure town planning redevelopment and kou rotating savings and credit associations Finally Part III addresses migrant education and language and also discusses identity formation and generational succession of minority children who live in a multicultural symbiotic society Series Stratification and Inequality Vol 14
