What is Indigenous Knowledge? Ladislaus M. Semali, Joe L. Kincheloe, 2002-09-11 Ladislaus M Semali and Joe L Kincheloe's edited book What is Indigenous Knowledge Voices from the Academy not only exposes the fault lines of modernist grand narratives but also illuminates in a vivid and direct way what it means to come to subjectivity in the margins The international panel of contributors from both industrialized and developing countries led by Semali and Kincheloe injects a dramatic dynamic into the analysis of knowledge production and the rules of scholarship opening new avenues for discussion in education philosophy cultural studies as well as in other important fields

American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10 Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apress to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature Douglas A. Vakoch,2022-09-19 The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature explores the interplay between the domination of nature and the oppression of women as well as liberatory alternatives bringing together essays from leading academics in the field to facilitate cutting edge critical readings of literature Covering the main theoretical approaches and key literary genres of the area this volume includes Examination of ecofeminism through the literatures of a diverse sampling of languages including Hindi Chinese Arabic and Spanish native speakers of Tamil Vietnamese Turkish Slovene and Icelandic Analysis of core issues and topics offering innovative approaches to interpreting literature including activism animal studies cultural studies disability gender essentialism hegemonic masculinity intersectionality material ecocriticism postcolonialism posthumanism postmodernism race and sentimental ecology Surveys key periods and genres of ecofeminism and literary criticism including chapters on Gothic Romantic and Victorian literatures children and young adult literature mystery and detective fictions including interconnected genres of climate fiction science fiction and fantasy and distinctive perspectives provided by travel writing autobiography and poetry This collection explores how each of ecofeminism s core concerns can foster a more emancipatory literary theory and criticism now and in the future This comprehensive volume will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature ecofeminism ecocriticism gender studies and the environmental humanities Iskwewak Kah' Ki Yaw Ni Wahkomakanak Janice Acoose,2016-02-05 Now in its second edition this groundbreaking work of literary and cultural criticism analyzes representations of Indigenous women in Canadian literature By deconstructing stereotypical images of the Indian princess and easy squaw Janice Acoose calls attention to the racist and sexist depictions of Indigenous women in popular literature Blending personal narrative and literary criticism this revised edition draws a strong connection between the persistent negative cultural attitudes fostered by those stereotypical representations and the missing and murdered Indigenous women in Canada Acoose decolonizes written English by interweaving her own story with reflections on the self determination of her female ancestors and by highlighting influential Indigenous female writers who have resisted cultural stereotypes and reclaimed the literary field as their own This important text urges both Indigenous and non Indigenous people to move beyond words to challenge the harmful attitudes that condone violence against Indigenous women Thoroughly updated and featuring new photographs questions for critical thought and a discussion of Indigenous women s literary voices that have emerged in the past twenty years the second edition of Iskwewak is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of Indigenous studies women s studies and literature LeAnne Howe at the Intersections of Southern and Native American Literature Kirstin L. Squint,2018-05-18 With the publication of her first novel Shell

Shaker 2001 Choctaw writer LeAnne Howe quickly emerged as a crucial voice in twenty first century American literature Her innovative award winning works of fiction poetry drama and criticism capture the complexities of Native American life and interrogate histories of both cultural and linguistic oppression throughout the United States In the first monograph to consider Howe s entire body of work LeAnne Howe at the Intersections of Southern and Native American Literature Kirstin L Squint expands contemporary scholarship on Howe by examining her nuanced portrayal of Choctaw history and culture as modes of expression Squint shows that Howe s writings engage with Native southern and global networks by probing regional identity gender power authenticity and performance from a distinctly Choctaw perspective a method of discourse which Howe terms Choctalking Drawing on interdisciplinary methodologies and theories Squint complicates prevailing models of the Native South by proposing the concept of the Interstate South a space in which Native Americans travel physically and metaphorically between tribal national and U S boundaries Squint considers Howe s engagement with these interconnected spaces and cultures as well as how indigeneity can circulate throughout them This important critical work which includes an appendix with a previously unpublished interview with Howe contributes to ongoing conversations about the Native South positioning Howe as a pivotal creative force operating at under examined points of contact between Native American and southern literature Writing America Katherine Wood (editor of Writing America.),Virginia Cohen,1999

A Sense of Regard Laura McCullough,2015 How do poets engage issues of race This timely collection of essays brings together the voices of living poets and scholars including Garrett Hongo and Major Jackson to discuss the constraints and possibilities of racial discourse in poetic language offering new insights on this perennially vexed issue Native American Literature Helen May Dennis,2006-11-22 Considering Native American literature within a modernist framework and comparing it with writers such as Woolf Stein T S Eliot and Proust results in a valuable and enriching context for the selected texts Writing America Keith Donohue,2001-04 This edition of Writing America published by the Nat Endow for the Arts NEA features the work of 50 NEA Literature Fellowship winners one from each state who paint a vivid portrait of the U S in the last decades of the 20th cent They evoke the magnificent spectrum of people places and experiences that define America Their biographies and personal narratives are stories in and of themselves revealing each writer s own unique path to fulfill the call to write The selections which include a mix of poetry and prose serve as inspiration to emerging writers and provide a glimpse of the tremendous vitality and diversity of contemporary American literature Decolonizing Methodologies Professor Linda Tuhiwai Smith,2013-10-10 A landmark in the process of decolonizing imperial Western knowledge Walter Mignolo Duke University To the colonized the term research is conflated with European colonialism the ways in which academic research has been implicated in the throes of imperialism remains a painful memory This essential volume explores intersections of imperialism and research specifically the ways in which imperialism is embedded in disciplines of knowledge and tradition as regimes of truth Concepts such as discovery and claiming are discussed and an argument presented that the decolonization of research methods will help to reclaim control over indigenous ways of knowing and being Now in its eagerly awaited second edition this bestselling book has been substantially revised with new case studies and examples and important additions on new indigenous literature the role of research in indigenous struggles for social justice which brings this essential volume urgently up to date Telling to Live Latina Feminist Group,2001-09-18 An anthology of testimonials from Latina Chicana feminists some of whom are well known which give insight into their personal life experiences and break barriers and assumptions Indigenous American Women Devon Abbott Mihesuah,2003-01-01 Oklahoma Choctaw scholar Devon Abbott Mihesuah offers a frank and absorbing look at the complex evolving identities of American Indigenous women today their ongoing struggles against a centuries old legacy of colonial disempowerment and how they are seen and portrayed by themselves and others Mihesuah first examines how American Indigenous women have been perceived and depicted by non Natives including scholars and by themselves She then illuminates the pervasive impact of colonialism and patriarchal thought on Native women s traditional tribal roles and on their participation in academia Mihesuah considers how relations between Indigenous women and men across North America continue to be altered by Christianity and Euro American ideologies Sexism and violence against Indigenous women has escalated economic disparities and intratribal factionalism and culturalism threaten connections among women and with men and many women suffer from psychological stress because their economic religious political and social positions are devalued In the last section Mihesuah explores how modern American Indigenous women have empowered themselves tribally nationally or academically Additionally she examines the overlooked role that Native women played in the Red Power movement as well as some key differences between Native women feminists and activists Native American Women Gretchen M. Bataille,Laurie Lisa,2003-12-16 This A Z reference contains 275 biographical entries on Native American women past and present from many different walks of life Written by more than 70 contributors most of whom are leading American Indian historians the entries examine the complex and diverse roles of Native American women in contemporary and traditional cultures This new edition contains 32 new entries and updated end of article bibliographies Appendices list entries by area of woman s specialization state of birth and tribe also includes photos and a comprehensive index Native Speakers María Eugenia Cotera,2010-01-01 Gloria Anzaldua Book Prize National Women s Studies Association 2009 In the early twentieth century three women of color helped shape a new world of ethnographic discovery Ella Cara Deloria a Sioux woman from South Dakota Zora Neale Hurston an African American woman from Florida and Jovita Gonz lez a Mexican American woman from the Texas borderlands achieved renown in the fields of folklore studies anthropology and ethno linguistics during the 1920s and 1930s While all three collaborated with leading male intellectuals in these disciplines to produce innovative ethnographic accounts of their own communities they also turned away from ethnographic meaning making at key points in their careers and explored the realm of storytelling through vivid mixed genre novels centered on the lives of women In this book Cotera offers an intellectual history situated in the borderlands between conventional accounts of anthropology women s history and African American Mexican American and Native American intellectual genealogies At its core is also a meditation on what it means to draw three women from disparate though nevertheless interconnected histories of marginalization into conversation with one another Can such a conversation reveal a shared history that has been erased due to institutional racism sexism and simple neglect Is there a mode of comparative reading that can explore their points of connection even as it remains attentive to their differences These are the questions at the core of this book which offers not only a corrective history centered on the lives of women of color intellectuals but also a methodology for comparative analysis shaped by their visions of the world
