The Transformation of Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations in Vietnam Anne Vo, 2009-05-15 This essential reference reviews recruitment and selection training and development performance management and union relations in a sample of multi national companies MNCs and local firms in Vietnam It addresses the transfer of human resources management HRM systems across borders and the transformation of HRM practices in Vietnam in the context of a developing and transitional economy The book extensively examines the attraction of younger generations to HRM systems in developing countries the brain drain phenomenon and the local firms potentially losing commercial competitiveness in their own country The book also reviews the catalyst role of MNCs in the management of human resources Covers HRM in Vietnam an area barely covered in other books Covers two of the most important types of enterprises in Vietnam multinational companies and state owned enterprises Contributes to knowledge in a number of key areas including globalisation social transformation and diffusion of best practice by multinational corporations

Essential Trade Ann Marie Leshkovich, 2014-09-30 My husband doesn't have a head for business complained Ngoc the owner of a children's clothing stall in Ben Thanh market Naturally it's because he's a man When the women who sell in Ho Chi Minh City's iconic marketplace speak their language suggests that activity in the market is shaped by timeless essential truths Vietnamese women are naturally adept at buying and selling while men are not Vietnamese prefer to do business with family members or through social contacts stallholders are by nature superstitious marketplace trading is by definition a small scale enterprise Essential Trade looks through the facade of these timeless truths and finds active participants in a political economy of appearances traders words and actions conform to stereotypes of themselves as poor weak women in order to clinch sales manage creditors and protect themselves from accusations of being greedy corrupt or bourgeois even as they quietly slip into southern Vietnam's growing middle class But Leshkovich argues that we should not dismiss the traders' self disparaging words simply because of their essentialist logic In Ben Thanh market performing certain styles of femininity kinship relations social networks spirituality and class allowed traders to portray themselves as particular kinds of people who had the capacity to act in volatile political and economic circumstances When so much seems to be changing a claim that certain things or people are inherently or naturally a particular way can be both personally meaningful and strategically advantageous Based on ethnographic fieldwork and life history interviewing conducted over nearly two decades Essential Trade explores how women cloth and clothing traders like Ngoc have plied their wares through four decades of political and economic transformation civil war postwar economic restructuring socialist cooperativization and the frenetic competition of market socialism With close attention to daily activities and life narratives this groundbreaking work of critical feminist economic anthropology combines theoretical insight vivid ethnography and moving personal stories to illuminate how the interaction between gender and class has shaped people s lives and created market socialist political economy It provides a compelling account of postwar southern Vietnam as seen through the eyes of the dynamic women who have navigated forty years of profound change while building their businesses in the stalls of Ben Thanh market

Painters in Hanoi Nora Annesley Taylor,2009-07-31 Painting has played a significant role in modern Vietnam Postage stamps billboards and annual national exhibitions attest to its fundamental place in a country where painters may be hailed as national heroes and include among their number fervent nationalists propagandists even dissidents As Vietnamese painting has gained prominence in the contemporary transnational art circuits of Southeast Asia many artists have become millionaires yet Vietnamese painting is generally overlooked in art history surveys of the region Nora Taylor sets out here to change that Painters in Hanoi engages with twentieth century Vietnam through its artists and their works providing a new angle on a country most often portrayed through the lens of war and politics Drawing on interviews with artists cultural officers curators art critics and others in Hanoi Taylor surveys the impact artists have had on intellectual life in Vietnam The book shows them within their own complex community one fraught with tensions politicking and favoritism yet also a sense of belonging It describes their education the role of the government in the arts the rise and fall of individual artists their influence as active players in the politics of place and gender the audience for their work and how tourism and the international art market have influenced it

Living with Uncertainty Setsuko Shibuya,2016-04-29 This book is one of the first ethnographies written on the life of farmers in rural Southern Vietnam since the economic reform in the 1980s It investigates how social economic and political factors affect the farmers life in the Mekong Delta in the late socialist era with a particularly focus on the family which serves as the basic and most significant social unit for the farmers Dealing with classical anthropological topics of kinship and family the book examines them as dynamic institutions With vivid illustrations of the village life family farming education of children jobs outside of farming and everyday politics it presents new and different pictures of the current Vietnamese family under rapid social changes The book will contribute to the current ethnographical research in Vietnam and Southeast Asia and also be of particular interest to those working on society and culture in the geographical region from broader disciplines It will also appeal to readers who are interested in such topics as late socialism social transformation and rural development The

Political Economy of Vietnam's Industrial Transformation John Walsh,Burkhard Schrage,Trung Quang Nguyen,2021-03-01 This book presents an overview of political economic change in Vietnam during a period of significant social and economic change and an era of international turbulence It combines various political economic perspectives to offer an integrated and comprehensive review of Vietnam s recent development discussing topics such as public administrative reform labour markets and special economic zones environmental management and other important contemporary issues This concise and highly readable book includes a considerable amount of research and as such provides valuable insights for scholars and researchers interested in political economic change and in Vietnam The Vietnamese

Family in Change Pham Van Bich,2013-10-11 Like most societies Vietnam has seen marked changes in family structures and dynamics this century For Vietnam however these changes have been especially radical After decades of French acculturation the 1940s brought sweeping economic changes and a move away from collectivism Perhaps because of Vietnam s long isolation from the late 1970s into the early 1990s very little has been written on the Vietnamese family This text provides an examination of the Vietnamese family focusing on two fundamental relationships husband wife and parent children within their wider social and historical context The author explores how and why marital partners are chosen individual s domains within the family reproduction and birth control son preference ancestor worship and the role of the state As such the study will be of interest not just to sociologists but also to those scholars looking to understand the current social transformation of Vietnam Privatizing the Land Ivan Szelenyi,2002-09-11 Privatizing the Land provides an overview of reforms in the state socialist agrarian systems especially during the 1970s and 1980s in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union Using empirical evidence the contributors provide a balanced assessment of how agrarian economies performed in different communist countries The Soviet and Eastern European experience is contrasted with reforms in China Vietnam and Cuba to provide the first comprehensive account of agricultural restructuring after the collapse of communism in Europe and Asia The Korean War and The Vietnam War Britannica Educational Publishing,2009-10-01 In the 1950s and 1960s and on into the 1970s the United States was involved in two wars fought far from home one in aid of South Korea against the neighboring Communist North Korea and a second waged through the jungles of Vietnam Cambodia and Laos Both of these military engagements were a reaction to what the United States feared as being Communist takeovers and were surrounded by a strong degree of political controversy This book explores both wars in detail to help readers understand why the conflicts occurred and what their lasting effects have been Vietnamese-Chinese Relationships at the Borderlands Yuk Wah Chan, 2013-11-12 Ever since China and Vietnam resumed diplomatic contacts and reopened the border in 1991 the borderland region has become part of the vibrant growing economies of both countries and drawn many from the interior provinces to the borderland for new economic adventures This book examines Chinese Vietnamese relationships at the borderland through every day cross border interaction in trade and tourism activities It looks into the historical underlining of bilateral relations of the two countries which often shape people s perceptions of the other and interpretation of intentions of acts in their daily interaction Albeit Chinese and Vietnamese have lived side by side for centuries their interaction in the space of trade and modern tourism in post war and post reform China and Vietnam is something novel to both people The book provides a bottom up approach to examine the localized experiences of inter state relations It illustrates the changes the vibrant economic process has brought to the borderland communities and how the revived contacts and interaction have generated a contested space for examining Vietnamese Chinese relationships and demonstrating trans border cultural politics A novel study of the strategic development of the borderland within the new political economy at China Southeast Asia border region this book is of interest to academics in the field of Anthropology Border Studies Social and Cultural Studies and Asian Studies Postwar Vietnam Hy V. Luong, 2003 This historically grounded examination of the dynamics of contemporary society in Vietnam including cultural political and economic dimensions focuses on dynamic tensions both within society and among societal forces the state and global capital
