How Christians Should Relate to Government Wayne A.

Grudem,2012-04-10 Derived from theologian Wayne Grudem s Politics According to the Bible this digital short outlines five misguided approaches Christians take to politics and a way that is both more biblical and better for society Grudem describes the five misguided approaches as follows Government should compel religion Government should exclude religion All government is evil and demonic Do evangelism not politics Do politics not evangelism In their place Grudem argues for a view that he calls significant Christian influence on government Provocative and compelling How Christians Should Relate to Government will prod the thinking of politically minded Christians regardless of which party they favor Leading with a Limp Dan B. Allender,2011-11-30 Put your flawed foot forward Pick up most leadership books and you ll find strategies for leveraging your power and minimizing your areas of weakness But think about the leaders whose names have gone down in history Most of them were so messed up that if they were looking for work today no executive placement service would give them the time of day God s criteria for choosing leaders runs counter to the conventional wisdom Our culture equates strength with effectiveness but God favors leaders who know the value of brokenness In Leading With a Limp you ll discover what makes flawed leaders so successful They re not preoccupied with protecting their image they are undaunted by chaos and complexity they are ready to risk failure in moving an organization from what is to what should be God chooses leaders who aren t deceived by the myths of power and control but who realize that God s power is found in brokenness If you are a leader or if you have been making excuses to avoid leading find out how you can take full advantage of your weakness A limping leader is the person God uses to accomplish amazing things To go deeper check out the Leading With a Limp

Workbook Can You Relate to This? Bekah Joy,2023-03-17 A glimpse a vision a simple look into the eyes of the one who adores you It s time to go on an adventure with the God who would do anything to have a friendship with you It s time to leave your world of insecurities behind and be who you are made to be Life is an adventure and it s waiting for you As you read this ask yourself Can I relate to this There is an amazing God out there who wants to know you and is waiting for you to walk through the door Honor Your Father and Mother Pamela S. Ellis,2008-10 James Alison and a Girardian Theology John P. Edwards,2020-05-14 Opening with a Foreword by James Alison this volume is the first in depth treatment of Alison s theological method John P Edwards shows that Alison s theological project outstrips Ren Girard s application of mimetic theory to theology He concludes that an explicitly Christian theological perspective is necessary for providing a fully coherent account of Girard s notions of conversion and mimetic desire This volume grounds Alison s theological method in his understanding of the ongoing interaction between conversion and theological reflection which is informed by his use of mimetic theory While Alison describes this method as theology in the order of the discovery the author refers to it as an inductive theology The volume closes by demonstrating that such a theology bears fruit in a renewed understanding of the value of Christian doctrines and particularly the doctrine of revelation Finding Hope in This World of Turmoil Trevor Bartley,2016-09-24 The resurrection message is the most important part of our belief system Without the truth of the resurrection message our faith is just another religion with no real substance The Resurrection sets Christianity apart This book is dedicated to establishing this truth The extent of the work of Christs resurrection is staggering However if there is one topic that is the central message of the Bible it is the sacrifice of Christ The Old Testament looks forward to it whereas the New Testament looks back at it We must be extremely careful not to allow these two ordinances to become routine in our Christian life communion and baptism and thereby reduce the significance of what Jesus did for us at his sacrifice and resurrection The greatest gift that anyone can be given is eternal life and the one that made that possible is Jesus In Christ we have victory provided we see ourselves dead to sin and raised together with him Even so consider yourselves also dead to sin and your relation to it broken but alive to God living in unbroken fellowship with Him in Christ Jesus Romans 6 11 AMP I have been crucified with Christ in Him I have shared His crucifixion it is no longer I who live but Christ the Messiah lives in me and the life I now live in the body I live by faith in by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in the Son of God Who loved me and gave Himself up for me Therefore I do not treat Gods gracious gift as something of minor importance and defeat its very purpose I do not set aside and invalidate and frustrate and nullify the grace unmerited favor of God For if justification righteousness acquittal from guilt comes through observing the ritual of the Law then Christ the Messiah died groundlessly and to no purpose and in vain His death was then wholly superfluous Galatians 2 2021 AMP We need to remember that the story doesnt end with Jesuss death He is currently in heaven in his resurrected body and one day he will return The resurrection of Jesus was an act of the supreme love of God Remember our identification is in who we are in Christ and his resurrection The Bible tells us in John 14 12 that the things Christ has done we can do and greater than these we will do because he goes to the Father The resurrection demonstrated Jesus's victory over the power of death and confirms there is life beyond the grave Jesus Christ offers us a resurrection power beyond ourselves that can make us alive it empowers us to overcome the limitations of this realm with an infused ability as we focus on the Spirit of power working within us I hope you receive much insight and revelation as you discover the wholeness of what Jesus achieved for you and me

Shadow Christians Jeff Iorg, 2020-11-10 Are you a shadow Christian Shadow Christians are people who work in the margins in the shadows created by the spotlight shining on others We often think they we are insignificant But here's the good news God chooses and uses shadow Christians There are some names in the Bible that everyone knows Adam and Eve Noah Moses Mary Peter Paul But the Bible is also full of stories with unnamed characters People who made a difference not in the spotlight but in the shadows If you're a shadow Christian you matter to God and he wants to use you to make a difference

Mothers on the Margin? E. Anne Clements, 2014-05-01 The Gospel of Matthew opens with a patrilineal genealogy of Jesus that intriguingly includes five women Tamar Rahab Ruth she of Uriah and Mary In a gospel that has a strongly Jewish and male orientated outlook why are women incorporated In particular why include these four Old Testament women alongside Mary Rejecting traditional as well as feminist views Anne Clements undertakes a close literary reading of the narratives to discern how each woman is characterized and presented All are significant scriptural figures on the margins of Israelite society From this intertextual world established by Matthew Clements explores why Matthew may have named these women in the opening genealogy and what implications their inclusion may have for the ongoing gospel narrative Mothers on the Margin argues that Matthew's Gospel contains a counter narrative focused on women The presence of the five women in the genealogy indicates that the birth of the Messiah will bring about a crisis in Israel's identity in terms of ethnicity marginality and gender The women signal that Matthew's Gospel is concerned with the construal of a new identity for the people of God
