Well-Being Over the Life Course Regina M. Bures, Nancy R. Gee, 2020-12-14 This book provides a multidisciplinary overview of the impact of human-animal interaction on well-being from childhood to later life. It presents a life-course perspective to the study of human-animal interaction, addressing concepts of family and the role of pets therein, as well as the impact of companion animals on child development and successful aging. This book fills a gap in the existing literature by framing the study of human-animal interaction including the role of animal-assisted interventions on well-being in a broader social and behavioral context.

Character, Responsibility, and Well-Being: Influences on Mental Health and Constructive Behavior Patterns Danilo Garcia, Trevor Archer, Ann-Christine Andersson Arntén, 2016-05-25

Character can be defined as self-aware knowledge that helps the individual to set goals, values, and ethical principles.

Cloninger (2004) This meta-cognitive dimension of human personality involves Theory of Mind and is positively related to measures of well-being, mental health, and constructive behavior patterns. Research from at least three different fields: cultural, Shweder, Much, Mahapatra, communion, which is related to engagement in the protection and relations to others such as families, companies, or nations, and spirituality, which is related to the human ability to transcend the self and find and interconnection with all life and appreciation of the whole world around us. Haidt (2006) Cloninger (2013) Using the Temperament and Character Inventory, Cloninger, Svrakic, Przybeck (1993) researchers have found that agentic, i.e., Self-directedness and communal, i.e., Cooperativeness, values are associated to high levels of happiness, psychological well-being, and less violent behavior. Moreover, low Self-directedness and Cooperativeness is recurrent among individuals with all types of mental health problems such as depression, schizophrenia, anxiety disorder, autism spectrum disorders, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and etcetera Spirituality in coherence with agency and communion guides the individual to seek self realization in harmony with others and nature in the changing world Cloninger 2013 Seeing character as self awareness of the self in three dimensions has also been associated to human responsibility and empowerment This research topic will focus on all article types that put forward findings regarding Character as a protective factor against mental illness Character s association to conduct disorders and violent behavior Character as a promoter of happiness life satisfaction and well being The etiology of character Longitudinal studies on character Agency communion and spirituality as broad dimensions for the conceptualization of positive measures of mental health Innovative methods to measure or conceptualize character Non linear effects of character on mental health Character as a measure conceptualization of responsibility Character in school and work place settings Character in relation to empowerment Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span Carole Lium Edelman,Carol Lynn Mandle,Elizabeth C.
