Perverse Serenity Robyn Rowland,1992 Annotation When a feminist and a monk fall in love poetry results Abortion Pills Carrie N. Baker,2024-12-03 This is the first book to offer a comprehensive history of abortion pills in the United States Public intellectual and lawyer Carrie N Baker shows how courageous activists waged a decades long campaign to establish expand and maintain access to abortion pills Weaving their voices throughout her book Baker recounts both dramatic and everyday acts of their resistance These activists battled anti abortion forces overly cautious policymakers medical gatekeepers and fearful allies in their four decade long fight to free abortion pills In post Roe America abortion pills are currently playing a critically important role in providing safe abortion access to tens of thousands of people living in states that now ban and restrict abortion Understanding this struggle will help to ensure continued access into the future

Reproductive Rights and Wrongs Betsy Hartmann,2016-11-21 Those involved in women s health issues Third World studies and economic development should find food for thought Kirkus Reviews This is an updated edition of the influential study Publishers Weekly of issues surrounding childbirth and the history of population control programs Challenging conventional wisdom about overpopulation and uncovering the deeper roots of poverty environmental degradation and gender inequalities the author uses data and vivid case studies to explore how population control programs came to be promoted by powerful governments foundations and international agencies as an instrument of Cold War development and security policy Mainly targeting poor women these programs were designed to drive down birth rates as rapidly and cheaply as possible with coercion often a matter of course In the war on population growth birth control was deployed as a weapon rather than a tool of reproductive choice Threaded throughout is the story of how international women s health activists fought to reform population control and promote a new agenda of sexual and reproductive health and rights for all While their efforts bore fruit obstacles remain On one side is the anti choice movement that wants to deny women access not only to abortion but to most methods of contraception On the other is a resurgent well funded population control lobby that often obscures its motives with the language of women s empowerment Despite declining birth rates worldwide average global family size is now 2.5 children overpopulation alarm is on the rise tied now to the threats of climate change and terrorism Reproductive Rights and Wrongs reveals how these developments are rooted in the longer history and politics of population control In this book a new generation of readers will find knowledge and inspiration for the ongoing struggle to achieve reproductive rights and social environmental and gender justice Nothing Mat(t)ers Somer Brodribb,1993 Nothing Mat t ers is a feminist critique of the theories of Foucault Derrida and Lacan among others Somer Brodribb analyzes the texts and the arguments that post structuralism has nominated as central in the process exposing the misogyny at their core Brodribb provides a history of definitions of structuralism post structuralism deconstruction and postmodernism She considers feminist encounters with structuralism and existentialism She evaluates the originality of Foucault s contributions and discusses feminist responses to his work Turning to Derrida she considers his fixation with dissemination and demeaning versus conception and new embodiment She contrasts the work of Lacan and Irigaray on ethics before turning to the work of de Beauvoir O'Brien and other feminists as an authentic alternative to postmodern critical theory A Girl's Best Friend

Jan Fook, Renate Klein, 2001 Annotation With contributions about what their dogs mean to them this collection presents over eighty women and girls from diverse backgrounds ages and countries share their feelings and experiences of living with dogs

Australia for Women Susan Hawthorne, Renate Klein, 1994 Australia is a land full of opportunities but where can you go to find the things that matter to women This book is a guide to the land as well as the diverse culture of women Women's culture in Australia goes back more than 40 000 years and is a rich mosaic of story art and music On the top of this has come the culture of the past 200 years from the British convicts from China from the Pacific from the newer waves of migration and from the women's movement This is reflected in literature theatre the visual arts music circuses and dance Rural and urban women describe the places they know and love they also describe their histories and show something of what lies behind a first impression Contributors featured include Oodgeroo Noonuccal Faith Bandler Portia Robinson Elizabeth Jolley Sara Dowse Janine Haines Dale Spender Ruby Langford Ginibi Kate Llewellyn and Finola Moorhead Paradoxes of Gender

Judith Lorber, 1994-01-01 In this pathbreaking book a well known feminist and sociologist who is also the Founding Editor of Gender why transvestites transsexuals and hermaphrodites do not affect the conceptualization of two genders and two sexes in Western societies why most of our cultural images of women are the way men see them and not the way women see themselves why all women in modern society are expected to have children and be the primary caretaker why domestic work is almost always the sole responsibility of wives even when they earn more than half the family income why there are so few women in positions of authority when women can be found in substantial numbers in many occupations and professions why women have not benefited from major social revolutions Lorber argues that the whole point of the gender system today is to maintain structured gender inequality to produce a subordinate class women that can be exploited as workers sexual partners childbearers and emotional nurturers Calling into question the inevitability and necessity of gender she envisions a society structured for equality where no gender racial ethnic or social class group is allowed to monopolize economic educational and cultural resources or the positions of power Peace Begins in the Womb

Marilyn Kopp, 2023-05-02 Peace Begins in the Womb Reflections from a Pro Life Feminist is a collection of published letters to the editor and articles by Marilyn Kopp past president of the Ohio chapter of Feminists for Life of America and also includes articles about Feminists for Life In this book Marilyn demonstrates how one can be a feminist and pro life at the same time and how the principles of each go together Pro life feminism proposes that it is misogynistic to suggest that women are oppressed by their own life giving capacity We will never be truly free until we acknowledge that the beauty power and strength of pregnancy is something that deserves to be accommodated and supported not disparaged and denigrated Abortion conflicts with authentic feminist principles of justice nonviolence and nondiscrimination A truly just society would address the challenges that unplanned pregnancies present with life affirming solutions not with the lethal violence of abortion In this book Marilyn also explores the pro life roots of the American feminist movement You are welcome to use the letters and the ideas in them as models to compose your own

Abortion Care is Health Care Barbara Baird, 2023-10-03 In Abortion Care is Health Care Barbara Baird tells the history of the provision of abortion care in Australia since 1990 Against the backdrop of a reticent public sector Baird describes a system of predominantly private provision which has excluded women already marginalised by poverty rural and remote residency lack of Medicare entitlement racism and other factors Tracing changes in the private sector the long struggle to make medical abortion available and the nationwide decriminalisation of abortion since 2002 Baird introduces readers to the large cast of champions and everyday healthcare workers and activists who have persisted in their commitment to make abortion care available when governments and the medical profession have so often failed Drawing on oral history interviews conducted nationwide with abortion providing doctors nurses counsellors and managers women s health workers academics and community activists Baird brings a critical feminist analysis to create a sophisticated historical narrative of abortion provision over the last thirty years
