Greco-Roman Cults of Isis (SET) Valentino Gasparini,Richard Veymiers,2018-10-16 In Individuals and Materials in the Greco Roman Cults of Isis Valentino Gasparini and Richard Veymiers present a collection of reflections on the individuals and groups which animated one of Antiquity s most dynamic significant and popular religious phenomena the reception of the cults of Isis and other Egyptian gods throughout the Hellenistic and Roman worlds These communities whose members seem to share the same religious identity for a long time have been studied in a monolithic way through the prism of the Cumontian category of the Oriental religions The 26 contributions of this book divided into three sections devoted to the agents their images and their practices shed new light on this religious movement that appears much more heterogeneous and colorful than previously recognized a critical dictionary of english literature and british and american authors s.

Walter Scott,1913 Exhibitors Herald World ,1929 The Art and Science of Making the New Man in Early 20th-Century Russia Yvonne Howell,Nikolai Kremmentsov,2021-12-02 The idea that morally mentally and physically superior new men might replace the currently existing mankind has periodically seized the imagination of intellectuals leaders and reformers throughout history This volume offers a multidisciplinary investigation into how the new man was made in Russia and the early Soviet Union in the first third of the 20th century The traditional narrative of the Soviet new man as a creature forged by propaganda is challenged by the strikingly new and varied case studies presented here The book focuses on the interplay between the rapidly developing experimental life sciences such as biology medicine and psychology and countless cultural products ranging from film and fiction dolls and museum exhibits to pedagogical projects sculptures and exemplary agricultural fairs With contributions from scholars based in the United States Canada the UK Germany and Russia the picture that emerges is emphatically more complex contradictory and suggestive of strong parallels with other new man visions in Europe and elsewhere In contrast to previous interpretations that focused largely on the apparent disconnect between utopian new man rhetoric and the harsh realities of everyday life in the Soviet Union this volume brings to light the surprising historical trajectories of new man visions their often obscure origins acclaimed and forgotten champions unexpected and complicated results and mutual interrelations In short the volume is a timely examination of a recurring theme in modern history when dramatic advancements in science and technology conjoin with anxieties about the future to fuel dreams of a new and improved mankind
