Running Connie Ha:

Connie's Dreams Beverly Manconi, 2004-07 A heart beats very loud in Connie's room but it isn't her own. As the clock strikes twelve the heartbeat gets louder and faster. The walls appear to be respirating to the beat. Something in Connie's room is coming to life. Then Connie stirred in her sleep. She is awakened by the heartbeat. Who's there who is it? Asked Connie as she awakes from her last dream. Connie jumped up and ran to the closet. She tried to open the door but it had been locked for years. She listened at the door. She could hear a small voice whispering, let me out. I can't breathe, let me out. The voice was of a young child. It sounded very much like her own voice. Connie was determined to find out who was inside of her closet. The very closet her father begged her not to tamper with. Who are you? Who's there? Connie felt ridiculous talking to a blank door. But she had some relief when she heard a response. I am innocent. I am innocent. let me out. Here I have Connie's story of dreams. She is a dreamer whose dreams come true.

Naïveté Dr. Jack W. McLaughlin Jr, 2021-09-27 Why would someone write a book about a child molester? As a lifelong educator the most challenging situation I faced was dealing with the possibility a teacher was sexually molesting a student. The teacher in question was so popular no one could believe he was doing what the student alleged. I came into contact with experts who described the characteristics of a child molester. Characteristics I had not or most educators had not been made aware of in our formal training. Once I heard of the modus operandi of a child molester I had the information I needed to begin dealing with not only that situation but others faced. Everyone was Naïve. It just couldn't be. A Parent's Trust Betrayed has been inspired and fictionalized into a worst case scenario to bring out molester's characteristics to help others become knowledgeable. Most teachers, coaches, tutors, organizations, clubs, and religious leaders with characteristics portrayed in this book are outstanding and not pedophiles of course. But one must not be naïve to the fact there is always that possibility.

Poisoned Heart Vera Ramone King, 2009-06-01 With more than 50 never before published photos of The Ramones. Often regarded as the first punk rock group ever named one of Rolling Stone magazine's Top 50 Bands of All Time with all members having been inducted into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame. The Ramones are nothing if not legendary. Waking up the neighbors and setting the U.S. music scene on fire in the 1970s and through the 80s. The Ramones story is tragic and raw. Sentiments that could also describe the band's songwriter, bass player, and unsung genius Dee Dee. A wild ride into the heart and soul of New York City. Poisoned Heart is Vera Ramone King's last testament to her former husband who shocked the world when he died in 2002 of a drug overdose despite having been clean for years. Dee Dee defined the punk rock lifestyle. He was a rash, often violent heroin addict and no one better understood his twisted mentality or insanity than faithful wife Vera. But Vera herself a less destructive Nancy to Dee Dee's Sid also came to know the Dee Dee that music fans worldwide held near and dear, a generous, loving man who had a soft spot for bums who grew up in submitting to man's will not that of God. Fortunately enough I was not raised in a religious household. In hindsight I believe that as a youth I may have enjoyed too much freedom. Because of such libertarian rearing or lack thereof depending upon view, worshipping authoritative figures has never been a priority on my list. I have always been rebellious in that aspect. Keeping in mind I believe in giving respect where it is due, in the same token I am also a firm believer that God is no respecter of persons, notwithstanding there is a time and place for everything. Even Jesus encouraged people to render to Caesar what was his. Give respect and honor where it is indeed due. There is a way to come before kings as God is a God of order. As there is God-ordained authority and leadership where in fact we must submit in many instances. We must bear in mind dominion and authority are not given exclusively to men as in the sex per se. Often times where we see man or men in biblical text it means the whole of humanity. Not just males. Not just leadership. We all have something to bring to the table. As equally we are all very flawed creatures who ourselves need to submit to the leadership of God's Holy Spirit.
