Harnessing the Bohemian takes a fresh and interdisciplinary perspective on the intractable problem of shrinking populations and resources in remote rural communities It challenges the conventional wisdom of community development theories and practices and envisages more central roles for the creative disciplines in revitalising futures planning It argues that the evolution of technologies the emergence of creative economies the increasing demand for creative products and the emergence of new creative talent are continually changing community expectations and opportunities Consequentially fresh arguments and new ideas must be developed to stimulate more creative and innovative approaches to community development Recognising that creativity and innovation exist across all community sectors this book proposes practical new approaches that harness the creative capital of all community stakeholders      The Essential Guide to Business for Artists and Designers Alison Branagan,2017-02-09 This second edition of the best selling comprehensive handbook The Essential Guide to Business for Artists and Designers will appeal to a wide range of artists makers designers and photographers looking to set up and establish an arts practice or design business within the visual arts and creative industries With fully revised content three new chapters and profiles of contemporary artists and designers from around the world this guide leads the reader through the most important aspects of setting up and growing a profitable enterprise Providing the vital knowledge and tools to develop a vision and achieve business growth topics include Building networks and successful negotiation tactics Promoting an engaging social media presence Business planning and money management Overview of legal tax and intellectual property issues Setting up a website and trading online Exploiting innovation and future trends As well as specially tailored enterprise exercises and useful diagrams this latest edition features apt quotations and indispensable resources including an extensive glossary and a list of key professional bodies and organisations based in the UK USA Canada Australia and South America This handbook is printed in a dyslexic friendly font and includes new illustrated mind maps and colour pictures throughout      Selling the Kimono Julie Valk,2021-05-30 Based on twelve months of in depth ethnographic research in Japan with retailers customers wholesalers writers and craftspeople Selling the Kimono is a journey behind the scenes of a struggle to adapt to difficult economic conditions and declining demand for the kimono The kimono is an iconic piece of clothing instantly recognised as a symbol of traditional Japanese culture Yet little is known about the industry that makes and sells the kimono in particular the crisis this industry is currently facing Since the 1970s kimono sales have dropped dramatically craftspeople are struggling to find apprentices and retailers have closed up shop

Illuminating recent academic investigations into the lived experience of economic crisis this volume presents a story of an industry in crisis and the narratives of hope creativity and resilience that have emerged in response The ethnographic depth and theoretical contribution to understanding the effects of economic crisis and the transformation of traditional culture will be of broad interest to students academics and the general public     Making a Living in Crafts Donald A. Clark,2006

Global Markets and Local Crafts Frederick F. Wherry,2008-02-25 Today it is not uncommon to find items in department stores that are hand crafted in countries like Thailand and Costa Rica These traditional crafts now make up an important part of a global market They support local and sometimes national economies and help create and solidify cultural identity But these crafts are not necessarily indigenous Whereas Thailand markets crafts with a long history and cultural legacy Costa Rica has created a local handicraft tradition where none was known to exist previously In Global Markets and Local Crafts Frederick F Wherry compares the handicraft industries of Thailand and Costa Rica to show how local cultural industries break into global markets and conversely how global markets affect the ways in which artisans understand adapt and utilize their cultural traditions Wherry develops a new framework for studying globalization by considering the phenomenon from the perspective of the supplier instead of the market Drawing from interviews and extensive fieldwork shadowing artisans and exporters in their daily dealings Wherry offers a rare account of globalization in motion and what happens when market negotiations do not proceed as planned Considering economic and political forces flows of people and materials and frames that define cultural and market situations as they play out in the artisan communities of these two countries Wherry uncovers how authentic folk tradition is capitalized or created     Artisans in Europe, 1300-1914 James R. Farr,2000-08-17 This book is a survey of the history of work in general and of European urban artisans in particular from the late middle ages to the era of industrialization Unlike traditional histories of work and craftsmen this book offers a multifaceted understanding of artisan experience situated in the artisans culture It treats economic and institutional topics but also devotes considerable attention to the changing ideologies of work the role of government regulation in the world of work the social history of craftspeople the artisan in rebellion against the various authorities in his world and the ceremonial and leisure life of artisans Women masters journeymen apprentices and non guild workers all receive substantial treatment The book concludes with a chapter on the nineteenth century examining the transformation of artisan culture exploring how and why the early modern craftsman became the industrial wage worker mechanic or shopkeeper of the modern age     Roman Artisans and the Urban Economy Cameron Hawkins,2016-07-19 Vividly reconstructs economic conditions in ancient Roman cities and the socio economic strategies of artisans who lived in them
