Running Amok An Historical Inquiry:

Running Amok John C. Spores, 1988 Amok one of the few Malay words commonly appearing in English names a syndrome of unpredictable and indiscriminate homicidal behavior with suicidal intent In tracing the development of this behavioral pattern Spores examines historical data including frequently colorful colonialist accounts of such episodes from British Malaya and the Netherlands East Indies during the period 1800 1925 Spores presents a basic etiological distinction between reactive motivated and a spontaneous unmotivated amok the one an intentional act capable of establishing or restoring dignity and self respect the other a result of organic disturbance He also explores the social psychological dynamics of engagement in the two types of solitary amok and suggests possible behavioral chains Further his study demonstrates the impact of social forces and processes of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century which significantly altered factors in traditional Malay society important in generating expressions of solitary amok Running amok demonstrates the utility of bringing historical data to bear on the examination of specific social phenomena particularly suggesting that the understanding of some present day forms of mental disorder or other aberrant or deviant behavior can be facilitated and enriched through such analysis

The Deadly Ethnic Riot Donald L. Horowitz, 2023-11-15 Donald L Horowitz s comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethnic group on civilian members of another ethnic group Serious frequent and destabilizing these events result in large numbers of casualties Horowitz examines approximately 150 such riots in about fifty countries mainly in Asia Africa and the former Soviet Union as well as fifty control cases With its deep and thorough scholarship incisive analysis and profound insights The Deadly Ethnic Riot will become the definitive work on its subject Furious and sadistic the riot is nevertheless directed against a precisely specified class of targets and conducted with considerable circumspection Horowitz scrutinizes target choices participants and organization the timing and supporting conditions for the violence the nature of the events that precede the riot the prevalence of atrocities during the violence the location and diffusion of riots and the aims and effects of riot behavior He finds that the deadly ethnic riot is a highly patterned but emotional event that tends to occur during times of political uncertainty He also discusses the crucial role of rumor in triggering riots the surprisingly limited role of deliberate organization and the striking lack of remorse exhibited by participants Horowitz writes clearly and eloquently without compromising the complexity of his subject With impressive analytical skill he takes up the important challenge of explaining phenomena that are at once passionate and calculative Donald L Horowitz s comprehensive consideration of the structure and dynamics of ethnic violence is the first full scale comparative study of what the author terms the deadly ethnic riot an intense sudden lethal attack by civilian members of one ethn

The Lost Geopoetic Horizon of Li Jieren Kenny Kwok-kwan Ng, 2015-03-10 Engaged with the paradigms of cultural geography local history spatial politics and everyday life The Lost

Geopoetic Horizon of Li Jieren unveils a Sichuan writer's lifelong quest in an independent historical fiction writing project on Chengdu from the turn of the century through China's 1911 Revolution. Kenny Kwok-kwan Ng's study illuminates the crisis of writing home in a globalized age by rescuing Li Jieren's repeatedly revised but never finished river novel series written from Republican to Communist China, struggling to liberate local memory from the national-cum-revolutionary currents. The book undercuts official historiography and rewrites Chinese literary history from the ground up by highlighting Li's resilient geopoetics of writing that decenters the nation by adopting the place-based view of a distant province.

Emotions as Bio-cultural Processes Birgitt Röttger-Rössler, Hans Jürgen Markowitsch, 2009-06-12 Emotions have emerged as a topic of interest across the disciplines yet studies and findings on emotions tend to fall into two camps: body versus brain, nature versus nurture. Emotions as Bio-cultural Processes offers a unique collaboration across the biological-social divide from psychology and neuroscience to cultural anthropology and sociology as 15 noted researchers develop a common language, theoretical basis, and methodology for examining this most sociocognitive aspect of our lives. Starting with our evolutionary past and continuing into our modern world of social classes and norms, these multidisciplinary perspectives reveal the complex interplay of biological, social, cultural, and personal factors at work in emotions, with particular emphasis on the nuances involved in pride and shame. A sampling of the topics: 1. The roles of the brain in emotional processing 2. Emotional development milestones in childhood 3. Social feeling rules and the experience of loss 4. Emotions as commodities: The management of feelings and the self-help industry 5. Honor and dishonor: societal and gender manifestations of pride and shame 6. Emotion regulation and youth culture 7. Pride and shame in the classroom. A volume of such wide and integrative scope as Emotions as Bio-cultural Processes should attract a large cohort of readers on both sides of the debate among emotion researchers, social and developmental psychologists, sociologists, social anthropologists, and others who analyze the links between humans that on the one hand differentiate us as individuals but on the other hand tie us to our socio-cultural worlds.

Violent Conflicts in Indonesia Charles A. Coppel, 2006-04-07 Indonesia is currently affected by many serious conflicts which have arisen as a result of a variety of ethnic, religious, and regional tensions. Presenting important new thinking on violent conflict in the world's largest Muslim-majority nation, this book examines a selection of conflicts in detail and discusses the nature of violence and the reasons behind violent outbreaks. Chapters include analysis of conflicts in Aceh, East Timor, Maluku, Java, West Kalimantan, West Papua, and elsewhere. The contributors provide analysis of political, ethnic, and nationalistic killings with a concentration on the post-Suharto era. The book goes on to examine vital questions concerning the way in which violence in Indonesia is represented in the media and explores ways in which violent conflicts could be resolved or prevented. The last section turns the focus onto victims of violence and forms of justice and retribution.

Exploring Islamic Social Work Hansjörg Schmid,Amir Sheikhzadegan,2022-05-20 This open access book addresses for the first time Islamic social work as an emerging concept at the interface of Islamic thought and social sciences Applying a multidisciplinary approach it explores on the one hand the discourse that provides religious legitimisation to social work activities and on the other hand case studies of practical fields of Islamic social work including educational programmes family counselling and resettlement of prisoners Although in many cases these activities are oriented towards Muslim clients more often than not they go beyond the boundaries of Muslim communities to benefit society as a whole Muslim actors are also starting to professionalise their services and to negotiate the ways in which they can become fully recognised service providers within the welfare state At a more general level the volume also shows that in contrast to the widespread processes of secularisation of social work and its separation from religious communities newtypes of activities are now emerging which bring back to the public arena both an increased sensitivity to the religious identities of the beneficiaries and the religious motivations of the benefactors The edited volume will be of interest to researchers in Islamic Studies Social and Political Sciences Social Work and Religious Studies This is an open access book Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay,2010-06-01 The literature of Malaysia and Singapore the multicultural epicentre of Asia offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia Focusing on themes of home
