Publication ,1994 Contemporary Narratives of Ageing, Illness, Care Katsura Sako,Sarah Falcus,2021-12-24 This collection of essays explores cultural narratives of care in the contexts of ageing and illness It includes both text based and practice based contributions by leading and emerging scholars in humanistic studies of ageing The authors consider care not only in film feature and documentary and literature novel short story children s picturebook but also in the fields of theatre performance photography and music The collection has a broad geographical scope with case studies and primary texts from Europe and North America but also from Hong Kong Japan Australia Argentina and Mexico The volume asks what care autonomy and dependence may mean and how these may be inflected by social and cultural specificities Ultimately it invites us to reflect on our relations to others as we face the global and local challenges of care in ageing societies Children's Magazine Guide ,1997 Video Source Book ,2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Caring Peta Bowden,2008-01-28 In Caring Peta Bowden extends and challenges recent debates on feminist ethics She takes issue with accounts of the ethics of care that focus on alleged principles of caring rather than analysing caring in practice Caring Bowden argues must be understood by working through examples Following this approach Bowden explores four main caring practices mothering friendship nursing and citizenship Her analysis of the differences and similarities in these practices their varying degrees of intimacy and reciprocity formality and informality vulnerability and choice reveals the practical complexity of the ethics of care Caring recognizes that ethical practices constantly outrun the theories that attempt to explain them and Bowden s unique approach provides major new insights into the nature of care without resorting to indiscriminate unitary models It will be essential reading for all those interested in ethics gender studies nursing and the caring professions Poetical Works George Crabbe,1914 Falling Above S Goel,2014-06-22 It is a story about Sam who has no friend except Sneha who goes missing after they both got into a feud He must find her as soon as possible as her life may be at stake Will he be able to find her or has he lost his only friend Can he fight against the new magical world he found School Library Journal ,2004 Peter Selz Paul J. Karlstrom,2012-01-02 This absorbing biography often conveyed through Peter Selz s own words traces the journey of a Jewish German immigrant from Hitler s Munich to the United States and on to an important career as a pioneer historian of modern art Paul J Karlstrom illuminates key historical and cultural events of the twentieth century as he describes Selz s extraordinary career from Chicago s Institute of Design New Bauhaus to New York s Museum of Modern Art during the transformative 1960s and as founding director of the University Art Museum at UC Berkeley Karlstrom sheds light on the controversial viewpoints that at times isolated Selz from his colleagues but nonetheless affirmed his conviction that significant art was always an expression of deep human experience The book also links Selz s long life story featuring close relationships with such major art figures as Mark Rothko Dore Ashton Willem de Kooning Sam Francis and Christo with his personal commitment to political engagement Trapeze Anaïs Nin,2017-05-15 Ana s Nin made her reputation through publication of her edited diaries and the carefully constructed persona they presented It was not until decades later when the diaries were published in their unexpurgated form that the world began to learn the full details of Nin's fascinating life and the emotional and literary high wire acts she committed both in documenting it and in defying the mores of 1950s America. Trapeze begins where the previous volume Mirages left off when Nin met Rupert Pole, the young man who became not only her lover but later her husband in a bigamous marriage. It marks the start of what Nin came to call her trapeze life, swinging between her longtime husband Hugh Guiler in New York and her lover Pole in California, a perilous lifestyle she continued until her death in 1977. Today what Nin did seems impossible and what she sought perhaps was impossible to find: harmony and completeness within a split existence. It is a story of daring and genius, love and pain largely unknown until now.
