Rural Urban Interaction In The Developing World:

Rural-Urban Interaction in the Developing World Kenny Lynch,2004-11-10 Understanding the rural urban interface Food Natural flows People Ideas Finance Rural-urban Interaction in the Developing World Kenneth Lynch,2005 Provides an introduction to the relationships between rural and urban places in the developing world showing that not all their aspects are as obvious as migration from country to city Proceedings of the 2025 11th International Conference on Humanities and Social Science Research (ICHSSR 2025) Bootheina Majoul,Abdullah Abdullah,Sharifah Faizah Syed Mohammed,Fonny Dameaty Hutagalung,2025-08-10 This is an open access book Review ICHSSR was established in 2015 and the past five sessions have all been successfully published and indexed by CPCI we wholeheartedly welcome colleagues worldwide to join us at this momentous conference held in Beijing Urban Geography Michael Pacione,2009-03-16 This is the most comprehensive and readable book on urban geography in the array of contemporary literature on the subject

Peri-urban Water and Sanitation Services Mathew Kurian,Patricia McCarney,2010-08-17 More than 2 6 billion people in the developing world lack access to safe water and sanitation service The Millennium Development Goal s MDG target is to halve the number of people without access to a sustainable source of water supply and connection to a sewer network by 2015 That target is unlikely to be met If there is anything that can be learnt from European experience it is that institutional reform occurs incrementally when politically enfranchised urban populations perceive a threat to their material well being due to contamination of water sources Handbook of African Development Tony Binns,Kenneth Lynch,Etienne Nel,2018-04-27 This handbook presents an extensive new overview of African development past present and future It addresses key core themes and topics that are pertinent to the continent s development including sections on history health and food politics economics rural and urban development and development policy and practice The volume draws on the expertise of over 60 of the world s leading scholars to provide a detailed and up to date analysis of the key opportunities and challenges that confront Africa and how such issues are being addressed Arranged by key themes the handbook provides not only a historical understanding of the past but also political perspectives on the future The chapters provide critically informed analyses of their topics by drawing upon the latest conceptual viewpoints and applied experiences in Africa in the form of case studies to offer a comprehensive examination of the opportunities challenges key debates and future prospects This handbook is an invaluable state of the art overview and reference concerning many different aspects of Africa s development which will be of interest to academics in all fields of African studies and also academics and students working in cognate disciplines such as development studies geography history politics and economics The Geography of Urban-Rural Interaction in Developing Countries Robert Potter,Tim Unwin,2017-10-30 Originally published in 1989 The Geography of Urban Rural Interaction in Developing Countries addresses the nature and importance of the interaction between urban and rural areas within Third World national territories providing much needed comparative cross cultural and cross national material The book discusses the various theories of urban rural interaction and summarises the topic in the form of the movement of people goods money capital new technology energy information and ideas Case studies are drawn from different areas of the Third World including Africa Asia the Middle East and the Caribbean and illustrate in detail the nature of urban rural interaction Rapid Urbanisation, Urban Food Deserts and Food Security in Africa Jonathan Crush, Jane Battersby, 2016-09-23 This book investigates food security and the implications of hyper urbanisation and rapid growth of urban populations in Africa By means of a series of case studies involving African cities of various sizes it argues that while the concept of food security holds value it needs to be reconfigured to fit the everyday realities and distinctive trajectory of urbanisation in the region The book goes on to discuss the urban context where food insecurity is more a problem of access and changing consumption patterns than of insufficient food production In closing it approaches food insecurity in Africa as an increasingly urban problem that requires different responses from those applied to rural populations Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo, David Chikodzi, 2021-09-28 Tropical cyclones in Southern Africa also known as hurricanes or typhoons in other regions of the world is a hot subject for academic research This focus has been magnified by the need to consider tropical cyclones in the context of other global development agendas that includes the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and its inseparable 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs the Paris Agreement the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction and Habitat III's New Urban Agenda The ambitious SDGs challenge global and community leaders to make sure development addresses the nexus among poverty inequality and employment creation as well as care for the earth and its natural resources and biodiversity The SDGs further present an agenda to eradicate hunger bring quality education and sustain water and sanitation The infrastructure development human settlements sustainable consumption and production climate change biodiversity and the ocean blue economy agendas are also pitched Lastly the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development encourages partnerships on delivering various programmes and projects at all spatial levels However as tropical cyclones continue to make multiple landfalls and ravage Southern Africa and other parts of the world the achievement of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is threatened To this end this book addresses this gap by documenting the implications of tropical cyclones drawing examples and case studies from recent tropical cyclones such as cyclone Idai and cyclone Kenneth that resulted in catastrophic impacts in 2019 The book comes as part of a series with three volumes The other volumes include Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 1 Interfacing the Catastrophic Impact of Cyclone Idai with SDGs in Zimbabwe and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 2 Foundational and Fundamental Topics Given the foregoing the book is suitable as a read for several professionals and disciplines such as tourism and hospitality studies economics sustainable development development studies environmental sciences arts geography life sciences politics planning and public health Mobilities in India Bhaswati Mondal, Gopa Samanta, 2021-07-26 This book presents commuting as a new paradigm in mobility studies in the context of global south It delves into suburban train commuting in Eastern India The book interprets commuting not only as a means to attend work but also as a process producing kinetic event space infused with different mobile practices which is not determined by their locational fixity rather can be cognized It analyses the role of suburban train commuting in the metropolitan expansion of Kolkata and the transformation of rural space into urban The significant contribution of the book lies in explaining commuters experiencescape and the production of spatial fluidity in time capsule through commuting It also explores the subjective reality of gendered commuting The book uses a trans disciplinary research design blending quantitative and ethnographic research methods The area selected for the empirical research is the Howrah Bardhaman Main Railway Line 108 km the first suburban railway line in Eastern India Commuters originating from three adjacent districts of Purba Bardhaman Hooghly and Howrah took part in this research Besides the commuters non commuting passengers and hawkers in the train were also interviewed to understand the diverse perceptions of the process of commuting This book may be considered as a reference book for mobility studies transport studies urban geography and regional planning

Cities and Agriculture Henk de Zeeuw, Pay Drechsel, 2015-09-16 As people increasingly migrate to urban settings and more than half of the world's population now lives in cities it is vital to plan and provide for sustainable and resilient food systems which reflect this challenge This volume presents experience and evidence based state of the art chapters on the key dimensions of urban food challenges and types of intra and peri urban agriculture The book provides urban planners local policy makers and urban development practitioners with an overview of crucial aspects of urban food systems based on an up to date review of research results and practical experiences in both developed and developing countries By doing so the international team of authors provides a balanced textbook for students of the growing number of courses on sustainable agriculture food and urban studies as well as a solid basis for well informed policy making planning and implementation regarding the development of sustainable resilient and just urban food systems
