Beeton's Hero soldiers, sailors and travellers in Kafirland; gymnastics, telegraphy, fire-arms &c., ed. by S.O.

Beeton Samuel Orchart Beeton, 1873 Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War Massachusetts. Office of the Secretary of State, 1896 The Vital Spark John Armstrong, 2017-10-18 This book collects seventeen previously published essays by John Armstrong concerning the British coastal trade Armstrong is a leading maritime historian and the essays provided here offer a thorough exploration of the British coastal trade his specialisation during the period of industrialisation and technological development that would lead to modern shipping The purpose is to demonstrate the whether or not the coastal trade was the main carrier of internal trade and a pioneer of the technical developments that modernised the shipping industry Each essay makes an original contribution to the field and covers a broad range of topics including the fluctuating importance of the coastal trade and size of the coastal fleet over time the relationship between coastal shipping canals and railways a comparison between the coastal liner and coastal tramp trade the significance of the river Thames in enabling trade coastal trade economics maritime freight rates the early twentieth century shipping depression competition between coastal liner companies and a detailed study of the role of the government in coastal shipping The book also contains case studies of the London coal trade coastal trade through the River Dee port and the Liverpool Hull trade route It contains a foreword introduction and bibliography of Armstrong's writings There is no overall conclusion except the assertion that coastal shipping plays a tremendous role in British maritime history and a call for further research into the field The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, 1869 The 1797 Naval Mutinies and Popular Protest in Britain Callum Easton, 2025-09-02 This book offers a holistic re-evaluation of the Spithead and Nore mutinies of 1797 which immobilised the two Royal Navy fleets responsible for Britain's defence at a time when invasion seemed likely The mutinies represent two of the most serious manifestations of collective resistance in eighteenth century Britain yet they have received relatively little attention in recent historiography This book challenges the predominant view that the mutinies represented attempts at revolutionary uprising arguing that the mutineers were instead focused on the mutineers' understanding of fairness and focused on securing appropriate wages In doing so it presents an opportunity to scrutinise foundational elements of British society from notions of reciprocal rights and responsibilities to relations between the state and individuals On Descartes' Passive Thought Jean-Luc Marion, 2018-04-10 On Descartes' Passive Thought is the culmination of a life-long reflection on the philosophy of Descartes by one of the most important living French philosophers In it Jean-Luc Marion examines anew some of the questions left unresolved in his previous books about Descartes with a particular focus on Descartes's theory of morals and the passions Descartes has long been associated with mind-body dualism but Marion argues here that this is a historical misattribution popularized by Malebranche and popular ever since both within the academy and with the general public Actually Marion shows Descartes held a holistic conception of body and mind He called it the meum corpus a passive mode of thinking which implies far more than just pure mind rather it signifies a mind directly connected to the body the human being that I am Understood in this new light the Descartes Marion uncovers through close readings of works such as Passions of the Soul resists prominent criticisms leveled at him by twentieth century figures like Husserl and Heidegger and even anticipates the non dualistic phenomenological concepts of human being discussed today This is a momentous book that no serious historian of philosophy will be able to ignore The Athenaeum, 1843 The Athenæum, 1841 The Green Hand George Cupples, 2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Green Hand by George Cupples "The" Athenaeum James-Silk Buckingham, 1841 Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 1850 The baptist Magazine, 1835 European and Non-European Societies, 1450-1800 Robert Forster, 2019-07-16 First published in 1997 this is the first of two volumes It looks at the process of European expansion which brought into contact societies and cultures across the world which had been initially alien to one another Conflict and violent conflict was one aspect of this interaction but accommodation mutual adaptation and institutional and behavioural synthesis were also present though often biased in favour of European norms The intent of this book is to avoid treating colonization dominance and exploitation as the only focuses of attention In the first volume Robert Forster explores issues of formative influences the impact of Eurocentrism on historiography and the reaction against it and the differing approaches and perceptions of the Europeans notably the Spanish French and English In this period he distinguishes three modes of interaction that of the trading empires generally in Africa and Asia where the European control of the encounter was slighter and those of the regions of settlement as in North America and of exploitation typified by the Caribbean where the European impact was profound The second volume focuses on the Americas and uses the topics of religion class gender and race as its points of entry Citizen Sailors Nathan Perl-Rosenthal, 2015-10-12 After 1776 Americans struggled to gain recognition of their new republic and their rights as citizens None had to fight harder than the nation's seamen whose labor took them deep into the Atlantic world Nathan Perl Rosenthal tells the story of how their efforts created the first national racially inclusive model of U S citizenship Interpreting New Testament Narratives Eric J. Douglass, 2018-10-02 Narratives are the concrete manifestation of an author's subjectivity They function as that person's voice and should be treated with the same respect that is granted to all voices In Interpreting New Testament Narratives Eric Douglass develops this ethical perspective so that narratives are treated as communication and the author's voice is regarded as a valued perspective Employing a cross disciplinary approach Douglass shows how readers engage narratives as mental simulations creating a temporary possible world that readers enter and experience To recover communication readers locate the events of this world in the culture of the intended audience and translate this meaning into the modern reader's worldview Using a staged reading design this initial reading is followed by readings of critique The Life and Times Einstein Ronald William Clark, 1984 The

Durham University Journal University of Durham,1898      Tonic to the Nation: Making English Music in the Festival of Britain Nathaniel G. Lew,2016-07-01 Long remembered chiefly for its modernist exhibitions on the South Bank in London the 1951 Festival of Britain also showcased British artistic creativity in all its forms In Tonic to the Nation Nathaniel G Lew tells the story of the English classical music and opera composed and revived for the Festival and explores how these long overlooked components of the Festival helped define English music in the post war period Drawing on a wealth of archival material Lew looks closely at the work of the newly chartered Arts Council of Great Britain for whom the Festival of Britain provided the first chance to assert its authority over British culture The Arts Council devised many musical programs for the Festival including commissions of new concert works a vast London Season of almost 200 concerts highlighting seven centuries of English musical creativity and several schemes to commission and perform new operas These projects were not merely directed at bringing audiences to hear new and old national music but to share broader goals of framing the national repertory negotiating between the conflicting demands of conservative and progressive tastes and using music to forge new national definitions in a changed post war world      Through a Glass Darkly Ronald Hoffman,Mechal Sobel,Fredrika J. Teute,2012-12-01 These thirteen original essays are provocative explorations in the construction and representation of self in America s colonial and early republican eras Highlighting the increasing importance of interdisciplinary research for the field of early American history these leading scholars in the field extend their reach to literary criticism anthropology psychology and material culture The collection is organized into three parts Histories of Self Texts of Self and Reflections on Defining Self Individual essays examine the significance of dreams diaries and carved chests murder and suicide Indian kinship and the experiences of African American sailors Gathered in celebration of the Institute of Early American History and Culture s fiftieth anniversary these imaginative inquiries will stimulate critical thinking and open new avenues of investigation on the forging of self identity in early America The contributors are W Jeffrey Bolster T H Breen Elaine Forman Crane Greg Denning Philip Greven Rhys Isaac Kenneth A Lockridge James H Merrell Donna Merwick Mary Beth Norton Mechal Sobel Alan Taylor Laurel Thatcher Ulrich and Richard White
