Chinese Narrative Andrew H. Plaks, 2014-07-14 Although Chinese narrative and especially the genres of colloquial fiction have been subjected to intensive scholarly scrutiny no comprehensive volume has provided a framework that would permit an overall view of the tradition The distinguished contributors to this volume have taken an important first step in making possible the consideration of Chinese narrative at the level of comparative and general literary scholarship Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1980-1994 Rebecca Stuhr, 1997 This bibliography provides extensive descriptive annotations of nearly 500 autobiographies published by Americans of color during the years 1980 and 1994 The authors of these narratives range from established writers such as Nikki Giovanni Maxine Hong Kingston and Richard Rodriguez to unknown writers compelled to relate their part in the civil rights movement recall their family history as sharecroppers recount experiences in the Japanese internment camps or in Indian boarding schools or describe their struggle to succeed and contribute despite immense hardship and difficulty Among these autobiographies the reader will also find those of sports celebrities actors explorers and entrepreneurs This bibliography brings together at one access point an important body of work making it possible for the reader or researcher to identify and locate these books either through booksellers or through libraries This volume constitutes volume one of a two book series volume two is titled Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1995 2000

Culture & History of Postrevolutionary China Arif Dirlik, 2011-11-24 The essays in this volume grew from a series of talks delivered in late 2010 as the Liang Qichao Memorial Lectures at the Academy of National Learning Guoxue yuan of Tsinghua University Beijing Offering critical perspectives on a number of ideological issues that have figured prominently in Chinese intellectual discourse since the beginning of the so-called reform and opening gaige

kaifang in the late 1970s these essays range widely in subject matter from Marxist historiography to sociology and anthropology in China to guoxue national studies Together they are conceived as different windows into a basic problem the deployment of culture and history in postrevolutionary Chinese thought Dirlik touches on a number of themes including the repudiation of the revolutionary past after 1978 which has led to a rise of cultural nationalism He further places these developments within a global context ultimately making a case methodologically for worlding China bringing China into the world and the world into China Comparative Essays in Early Greek and Chinese Rational Thinking Jean-Paul

Reding,2017-03-02 This collection of essays by Reding in the emergent field of Sino Hellenic studies explores the neglected inchoative strains of rational thought in ancient China and compares them to similar themes in ancient Greek thought right at the beginnings of philosophy in both cultures Reding develops and defends the bold hypothesis that Greek and Chinese rational thinking are one and the same phenomenon Rather than stressing the extreme differences between these two cultures as most other writings on these subjects Reding looks for the parameters that have to be restored to see the similarities Reding maintains that philosophy is like an unknown continent discovered simultaneously in both China and Greece but from different starting points The book comprises seven essays moving thematically from conceptual analysis logic and categories to epistemology and ontology with an incursion in the field of comparative metaphorology One of the book's main concerns is a systematic examination of the problem of linguistic relativism through many detailed examples

China's Search for Modernity He Ping,2002-06-18 Twenty years after a return from fundamentalism to economic reality China has become the world's tenth largest economy and an increasingly important global power Despite the rise of fundamentalism and post modernism the pursuit of modernity was an ongoing historical movement in late twentieth century China He Ping focuses on China's quest for and experience of modernity Implicitly comparative the author discusses broad aspects of both Chinese and western civilizations including their scientific traditions and socio economic structures with reference to modernization He seeks to enhance our understanding of the cultural changes behind China's phenomenal rise and provides a fresh case study for the global cultural discourse Harmoniousness: Essays in Chinese Musicology
