Lost In Familiar Places Creating New Connections Between The Individual Society:

Lost in Familiar Places Edward R. Shapiro, A. Wesley Carr, 2011 Management Consulting in the Era of the Digital Organization David Brian Szabla, 2023-07-01 The 4th Industrial Revolution is well underway Our lives are changing at an exponential rate resulting in a multi faceted deeply interconnected world The digital revolution is integrating multiple technologies which is leading to unprecedented paradigm shifts in the economy management and society Entire systems across countries industries and societies are being transformed triggering a transformation that is unlike anything humankind has ever experienced Given the confluence of dramatic changes in organizational life triggering emerging technology breakthroughs such as robotics the internet of things biotechnology materials science data science and big data and quantum computing this volume of the Research in Management Consulting series explores how the research and practice of management consulting is unfolding in a new era of profound shifts in the way researchers and consultants sense think and act The authors of this volume bring both to scholars and practitioners the latest discussions of efforts to understand consulting in organizations amplified by the fusion of technologies across physical digital and biological worlds They also bring to light a movement from human supervised artificial intelligence systems to fully autonomous artificial intelligence systems that have the potential to demonstrate intelligence beyond human capabilities Heroine Abuse Thomas Gaiton Marullo, 2015-10-15 Fyodor Dostoevsky's first novel Netochka Nezvanova written in 1849 remains the least studied and understood of the writer's long fiction but it was a seedbed for many topics and themes that became hallmarks of his major works Specifically Netochka Nezvanova was the first in Dostoevsky's corpus to focus on the psychology of children and the first to feature a woman in a leading and narrative role It was also the first work in Russian literature to deal with problems of the family In Heroine Abuse Thomas Marullo contends that Netochka Nezvanova also provides a striking example of what psychologists today call codependency the ways often deviant and destructive in which individuals bond with people places and things as well as with images and ideas to cope with the vicissitudes of life Marullo shows how at age twenty eight Dostoevsky intuited and illustrated the workings of relationship addiction almost a century and a half before it became the scholarly focus of practitioners of mental health The moral monsters infernal women children adults and adult children who populate Netochka Nezvanova seek codependence in people places and things and in images ideas and ideals to satiate cravings for love dominance and control as well as to indulge in narcissism sexual perversion and other aberrant or alternative behaviors Indeed in no other work would Dostoevsky examine such phenomena as pedophilia and lesbianism with such abandon Racing from tie to tie bond to bond and caught in a debilitating loop that they claim to detest but sadomasochistically enjoy the characters in Netochka Nezvanova wreak havoc on themselves and the world They do so moreover with impunity their addictions moving them from momentary exultation as self styled extraordinary men and women through prolonged darkness and despair and once again to old and new addictions for physical and emotional release

Readers of Heroine Abuse will see Netochka Nezvanova as a timeless model in depicting codependency in the world of the twenty first century as it did in St Petersburg in 1849 Marullo's original work will appeal to scholars and students of Russian and comparative fiction to doctors psychologists and therapists to laymen and women interested in relationship addiction and finally to codependents and relationship addicts of all types

The Parables of Jesus Richard Q.
