Brady's Photos Reveal the Horrors of War Don Nardo,2013 Mathew Brady Robert Wilson,2014-09-23 A portrait of the visual historian illuminates his role in establishing photography as a valued documenting tool analyzing his portraits of period dignitaries and his self sacrificing effort to capture images of the Civil War Civil War Witness Don Nardo,2014 Mathew Brady recognized that the new art of photography could be more than just a means of capturing people s likenesses in portraits Beginning with the First Battle of Bull Run in 1861 and continuing through the entire Civil War Brady and his employees chronicled the long bloody conflict bringing images of war directly to the people Brady knew the photos would create valuable historical records for later generations More than any other photographer of his generation Brady understood photography s great potential and through his influence he taught others to understand it as well Walt Whitman's Native Representations Ed Folsom,1997-05-28 Moving through Whitman s career four times from four different perspectives this 1994 book investigates several major American cultural developments that occurred during Whitman s lifetime the development of American dictionaries the growth of baseball the evolution of American Indian policy the development of photography became essential components of Whitman s innovative poetics Resisting the usual critical temptation to present a totalised one dimensional Whitman this study views him instead as multiple and contradictory a gatherer of discordant tones and clashing approaches from a variety of surprising cultural arenas In such cultural activities Whitman found not his poetic subject so much as his poetic tools and techniques These cultural actions taught him how to make native representations Robert E. Lee in War and Peace Donald A. Hopkins,2013-10-19 Robert E Lee is well known as a Confederate general and as an educator later in life but most people are exposed to the same handful of images of one of America s most famous sons It has been almost seven decades since anyone has attempted a serious study of Lee in photographs and with Don Hopkins s painstakingly researched and lavishly illustrated Robert E Lee in War and Peace the wait is finally over Dr Hopkins a Mississippi surgeon and lifelong student of the Civil War and Southern history with a recent

interest in Robert E Lee's from life photographs scoured manuscript repositories and private collections across the country to locate every known Lee image 61 in all in existence today The detailed text accompanying these images provides a sweeping history of Lee's life and a compelling discussion of antique photography with biographical sketches of all of Lee's known photographers The importance of information within the photographer's imprint or backmark is emphasized throughout the book Hopkins offers a substantial amount of previously unknown information about these images how each came to be and the mistakes in fact and attribution other authors and writers have made describing photographs of Lee to the reading public Many of the images in this book are being published for the first time In addition to a few rare photographs and formats that were uncovered during the research phase of Robert E Lee in War and Peace the author offers for the first time definitive and conclusive attribution of the identity of the photographer of the well known Lee in the field images and reproduces a startling imperial size photograph of Lee made by Alexander Gardner of Washington D C Students of American history in general and the Civil War in particular as well as collectors and dealers who deal with Civil War era photography will find Hopkins's outstanding Robert E Lee in War and Peace a true contribution to the growing literature on the Civil War About the Author Born in the rural South Donald A Hopkins has maintained a fascination with Southern history since he was a child In addition to published papers in the medical field he has written several Civil War articles and The Little Jeff The Jeff Davis Legion Cavalry Army of Northern Virginia for which he received the United Daughters of the Confederacy's Jefferson Davis Historical Gold Medal Dr Hopkins served as Battalion Surgeon for the 1st Battalion 9th Marines better known as The Walking Dead in Vietnam He was awarded the purple heart and the Bronze Star with combat V Dr Hopkins is a surgeon in Gulfport Mississippi where he lives with his wife Cindy and their golden retriever Dixie

Great Surveys of the American West Richard A. Bartlett, 1980-12-01 After the Civil War four geological and geographical surveys later called the Great Surveys Undertook the massive task of finding out what lay west of the hundredth meridian in the vast American wilderness Parties led by Ferdinand Vandiveer Hayden medical doctor turned geologist Clarence King aristocrat and intellectual John Wesley Powell conqueror of the Colorado River and Lieutenant George M Wheeler determined military man and scientist roamed over the wild country during the years 1867-79 observing analyzing mapping and at the end of each season returning to Washington to publish their results For the first time in book form Richard A Bartlett has recreated for the reader the hardships both physical and financial the discoveries and the high adventures of the bold headstrong and often brilliant men of the Great Surveys as they climbed the Rockies explored the Yellowstone or battled the Colorado

American Journalism W. David Sloan, Lisa Mullikin Parcell, 2002-04-24 News consumers made cynical by sensationalist banners AMERICA STRIKES BACK THE TERROR OF ANTHRAX and lurid leads might be surprised to learn that in 1690 the newspaper Publick Occurrences gossiped about the sexual indiscretions of French royalty or seasoned the story of missing children by adding that barbarous Indians were lurking about before the disappearance Surprising too might be the media's steady adherence to if continual tugging at its philosophical and ethical moorings These 39 essays written and edited by the nation's leading professors of journalism cover the theory and practice of print radio and TV news reporting Politics and partisanship press and the government gender and the press corps presidential coverage war reportage technology and news gathering sensationalism each subject is treated individually Appropriate for interested lay persons students professors and reporters Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze John Dolis, 2014-07-14 An exploration of Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and unique vision of the world The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze is an unusual and insightful work that employs a combination of critical strategies drawn from art history philosophy psychoanalysis and contemporary aesthetic and literary theory to explore Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and his unique vision of the world Dolis studies Hawthorne's anti technological and essentially Romantic view of the external world and examines the recurring phenomena of lighting motion aspectivity fragmentation and imagination as they relate to his descriptive techniques Dolis sets the world of Hawthorne's work over and against the aesthetic and philosophical development of the world understood as a view from its inception in the camera obscura and perspective in general to its 19th century articulation in photography In light of this general technology of the image and drawing upon a wide range of contemporary critical theories Dolis begins his study of Hawthorne at the level of description where the world of the work first arises in the reader's consciousness Dolis shows how the work of Heidegger Merleau Ponty Freud Lacan and Derrida can provide fresh insights into the sophisticated style of Hawthorne's perception of and system for representing reality

Framing the Victorians Jennifer Green-Lewis, 1996 A wide ranging exploration of the complex and often conflicting discourse on photography in the nineteenth century Framing the Victorians traces various descriptions of photography as art science magic testimony proof document record illusion and diagnosis Victorian photography argues Jennifer Green Lewis inspired such universal fascination that even two so self consciously opposed schools as positivist realism and metaphysical romance claimed it as their own Photography thus became at once the symbol of the inadequacy of nineteenth century empiricism and the proof of its totalizing vision Green Lewis juxtaposes textual descriptions with pictorial representations of a diverse array of cultural activities from war and law enforcement to novel writing and psychiatry She compares for example the exhibition of Roger Fenton s Crimean War photographs 1855 with W H Russell s written accounts of the war published in the Times of London 1884 and 1886 Nineteenth century photography she maintains must be reread in the context of Victorian written texts from and against which it developed Green Lewis also draws on works by Thomas Hardy Nathaniel Hawthorne and Henry James as well as published writing by Victorian photographers in support of her view that photography provides an invaluable model for understanding the act of writing itself We cannot talk about realism in the nineteenth century without talking about visuality claims Green Lewis and Framing the Victorians explores the connections
