Naked Souls:

Souls Undressing Zoltan Pinter, 2021-08-12 In ancient times many teachings were written in the style called Sutra The idea behind Sutra is if there is something you can say in six words say it in five The sixth word has to be found They believed this was the only way in which you could understand life In Souls Undressing I set out to find a sixth word as both a therapist and as an individual As I embark on this journey I will relive and revive some of the pivotal moments from my therapy cases through the lens of literature and my own life experience Along the way I found unlearning becoming more important than learning Undressing Loosening the hold on old patterns unbuttoning and perhaps even throwing them away When souls meet other souls without their usual costumes In these stories you may easily find yourself facing your own feelings dilemmas and life situations You may even come to meet yourself And me For writing about unbuttoning our souls the therapist cannot remain dressed either

The Will to Being Manuel Cojocaru, 2024-07-16 This book addresses death and immortality by paralleling Plato's philosophy of becoming like God through exercising one's intellect and virtues with the Greek archaic and heroic way of gaining immortal glory through remarkable deeds In doing so this study focuses on the explicit and implicit references to earthly immortality and heroism in Plato's dialogues arguing for a distinction between the Time bound ontology of the glory seeking individual and the Being centered ontology of the philosopher Such an underlining of the ontological discrepancy between the ways of the hero and those of the philosopher makes this book a novel academic contribution The dual focus discloses the clash of ontologies yet also reveals an implicit existential turmoil in Ancient Greek culture as to the anxieties surrounding one's potential immortality This title appeals to students and researchers working in Ancient philosophy and existentialism

God's Voice from the Void Shaul Magid, 2012-02-01 Rabbi Nahman of Bratslav was one of the most celebrated masters of late Jewish mysticism and Hasidism and his writings have become classics This volume brings together translations of three seminal studies on Rabbi Nahman in German Hebrew and Yiddish with six new studies from scholars in various fields of Jewish studies The presentation of new scholarly work widens the conversation about Hasidism in general and Rabbi Nahman in particular by viewing his ideology from the perspective of contemporary hermeneutic philosophical and literary perspectives incorporating the insights of postmodernism gender theory and literary criticism New ground is covered in essays on Rabbi Nahman's attitude toward death his approach to gender his interpretation of circumcision the impact of his tales on Yiddish literature and his hermeneutic theory The combination of classic and new studies in God's Voice from the Void offers a window into the trajectory of scholarship on Hasidism including ways in which contemporary scholars of Hasidism and Hasidic literature both continue and develop the work of their predecessors

Tropologia Benjamin Keach, 1856 Plotinus Stephen R. L. Clark, 2016-05-04 A bold work that applies a new approach to the interpretation of the thought of the founder of Neoplatonism beautifully written Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews Plotinus the Roman philosopher c 204 270 CE who is widely regarded as the founder of Neoplatonism was also the creator of numerous myths images and metaphors They have influenced both secular philosophers and Christian and Muslim theologians but have frequently been dismissed by modern scholars as merely ornamental In this book distinguished philosopher Stephen R L Clark shows that they form a vital set of spiritual exercises by which individuals can achieve one of Plotinus s most important goals self transformation through contemplation Clark examines a variety of Plotinus s myths and metaphors within the cultural and philosophical context of his time asking probing questions about their contemplative effects What is it for example to think away the spatiality of material things What state of mind is Plotinus recommending when he speaks of love or drunkenness or nakedness What star like consciousness is intended when he declares that we were once stars or are stars eternally What does it mean to say that the soul goes around God And how are we supposed to bring the god in us back to the god in all Through these rich images and structures Clark casts Plotinus as a philosopher deeply concerned with philosophy as a way of life Highly enjoyable His book is the tool by which we learn to read Plotinus in a dynamic way that transforms our very selves Classical World Protagoras, Philebus & Gorg Benjamin Jowett,Plató,1990 Is virtue teachable What should we value as an ideal Is pleasure or perception the highest good that ought to be the object of our lives Three of Plato s most important dialogues are brought together in a single volume to address these concerns which continue to occupy serious minds today In the Protagoras Plato attempts to answer questions about the nature of virtue and whether it is inherent in humans or a subject capable of being taught In the Philebus he addresses the nature and content of the good and whether wisdom or pleasure is to be preferred The Gorgias applies what is learned from the previous discussions to address larger issues such as the proper functioning of society and the state and the individual s appropriate place within them The Dialogues of Plato Plato,1920 Meno. Euthyphro. Apology. Crito. Phaedo. Gorgias. Appendix I: Lesser Hippias. Alcibiades I. Menexenus. Appendix II: Alcibiades II. Eryxias Plato,1892 The Goodness of Judgment Jeff McSwain,2024-11-12 In this volume McSwain continues to deploy Karl Barth Julian of Norwich Athanasius James Cone and dozens of others to buttress his claim about human duplicity and the Easter asymmetry which allows us to properly interpret our lives by the gospel Specifically the focus is on Christ s cross which provides the radical discontinuity judgment needed to preserve the continuity of God s good creation In resurrection light we see the inner connection of re creation to creation an atonement that disentangles good from evil righteousness from sin and life from death Even though the perfect clarity of this liberating separation is reserved for judgment day this same judgment of grace frees us to live now as eschatological activists in the Liberator s way of justice and peace In view of the cross the Spirit empowers us to live in the hidden truth of who Christ is and who we have always been in Christ as God s beloved in the Trinitarian communion McSwain s cosmic vision pictures all people sharing in Christ s sufferings and also in his glory Thus the reconciled human community genuinely participates as one in Christ s victory over sin death and the devil The American Journal of Education Henry Barnard,1881 American Journal of Education and College Review ,1881

Grasso,2019-05-06 Maria R Grasso s monograph on the twelfth century illustrated vita of Saint Amand Valenciennes Biblioth que municipale MS 500 presents new information regarding its contents The author s discovery and analysis of a second almost complete set of preliminary drawings beneath another set of the same drawings demonstrates that important alterations were made prior to the execution of the cycle Grasso s discussion includes the probable reason for the change the isolation of the terminating folio depicting the soul of Amand This important devotional image is the focus of detailed analysis since the soul of Amand rests in the lap of a male figure she convincingly identifies as Christ an extremely unusual placement for the soul of a saint demonstrating the creativity of the artists Translating Ancient Greek Drama in Early Modern Europe Malika Bastin-Hammou,Giovanna Di Martino,Cécile Dudouyt,Lucy C. M. M. Jackson,2023-05-22 The volume brings together contributions on 15th and 16th century translation throughout Europe in particular Italy France Spain Portugal Germany and England Whilst studies of the reception of ancient Greek drama in this period have generally focused on one national tradition this book widens the geographical and linguistic scope so as to approach it as a European phenomenon Latin translations are particularly emblematic of this broader scope translators from all over Europe latinised Greek drama and as they did so developed networks of translators and practices of translation that could transcend national borders The chapters collected here demonstrate that translation theory and practice did not develop in national isolation but were part of a larger European phenomenon nourished by common references to Biblical and Greco Roman antiquities and honed by common religious and scholarly controversies In addition to situating these texts in the wider context of the reception of Greek drama in the early modern period this volume opens avenues for theoretical debate about translation practices and discourses on translation and on how they map on to twenty first century terminology The Second Letter to the Corinthians Mark A. Seifrid,2014-10-17 Newest volume in the acclaimed Pillar New Testament Commentary series The question that Paul set before the ancient church in Corinth Do you not recognize that Jesus Christ is in and among you 2 Cor 13 5 remains a critical question for the church today This commentary by Mark Seifrid seeks to hear Paul s message afresh and communicate it to our time Seifrid offers a unified reading of 2 Corinthians which has often been regarded as a composite of excerpts and fragments He argues that Paul s message is directed at the practical atheism of the Corinthian church the hidden heresy that assumes God s saving work in the world may be measured by outward standards of success and achievement Like all of the Pillar volumes Seifrid s commentary on 2 Corinthians offers careful grammatical analysis and exegesis with clear pastoral application Works Jonathan Edwards,1881 A Living Epistle, Or, Gathered Fragments from the Correspondence of the Late C.
